Short Talk On House Furnishings. Too many house-keepers make errors in buying furniture. They take too much stock in the yellow journal type of advertising used today by some of the largest and smallest stores. Prince Wilhelm's Strenuous Visit Comes to an End

LAST DAY WAS A BUSY ONE

New York, Sept. 3.—Prince Wilhelm of Sweden bade good-bye to New York last night. If he has missed anything of interest during his week's visit, New Yorkers do not know what it is. He has beaten all previous sight-seeing records of visiting foreigners and has had a strenuous and interesting time. The prince and party were up early yesterday and first visited fire headquarters and were shown over the building. Prince Wilhelm was particularly interested in the fire alarm system and was much pleased when an alarm came in just as the operator reached the proper point in his explanation. The royal visitor did not know the alarm was a false one which was rung in for his special benefit.

Following the inspection of the building, the visitors took positions on the sidewalk opposite the doors of the engine house and another alarm was rung in. The prince watched the engine come out, make a short run, couple up and throw a stream of water 100 feet in the air. The working of the fire department, he said, was one of the most interesting things he had seen

Having become thoroughly familiar with the houses of the rich at Newport, the prince expressed a desire to see how "the other half" lives in America have been discontinued except on Therefore, a visit to a model tenement house was a part of the program. The party, guided by Health Commissione Darlington and Ernest Flagg, architect of the Singer building, was taken to a tenement house at Forty-second street and Tenth avenue, of which Flagg was also architect. Here the prince climbed to the sixth floor and, in spite of the odors of cooking onions and cabbage that permeated the halls, inspected the Mr. and Mrs. George H. Brown of building carefully. A BIG ANNUAL DRAIN Will Not

OPPORTUNITY TO RETAIN IT

May Be Done by Development of Beet Sugar Industry by Extension of Irrigation -- Fairbanks Asks If We Can Stand Present Prosperity

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 3 .- Marked by a large attendance and much enthusiasm the 15th national irrigation congress opened here in the Irrigation palace, which has seating accommodations for about 3500. Governor Chamberlain of Oregon, president of the congress, responded to the addresses of

Vice President Fairbanks was given an enthusiastic reception when he arose to deliver his address. He spoke in part as follows:

"We have long since passed the experimental stage in irrigation and it only remains to push the work wherever feasible with the utmost vigor. The reclamation of every 10 or 20 acres of land means the creation of a homestead which will comfortably support a family of industrious, intelligent and patriotic American citizens.

"We must prepare more and more for the increased demand upon our food supply which comes with the multiplying millions of our population. Therefore, the development of the subject of irrigation is of interest, not only to the farmers of these great western regions, but to the farmers and consumers everywhere.

"One of the most promising things in the extension of irrigation is the development of the beet sugar industry. This is a subject of no mere local importance. We are sending abroad more than $100,000,000 a year for sugar. This enormous sum goes to the enrichment of sugar producers in foreign countries. This tremendous annual drain should be stopped.

"To fail to utilize to the utmost our opportunities to develop this great industry and retain within our own bor ders all or nearly all of the enormous sum of $100,000,000 annually now sent abroad would seem to be the part of inexpressible folly.

"Upon such an occasion as this I would not venture to obtrude politics; nothing could be more inappropriate. The fact is that we have a surfeit of politics. Unless the business affairs of the people are arrested by unwise policles, unless the seeds of distrust are sown among ourselves, unless commer cial unrest is encouraged by doctrin aires, we shall continue to expand our industries and the great west will con tinue to grow and fulfill her mighty

"Can we stand prosperity? We are in the midst of a prosperity the like of which was never before seen. Can we utilize it to our benefit? Can we retain it, or will we distrust each other and involve it all in hopeless confusion?

"There never was an hour when it was more important that we should be governed by sober judgment. We should sedulously cultivate a tolerant spirit and a spirit of justice towards each other. We should not forget that confidence is the sure foundation of prosperity and progress and we should have a care that we do not undermine

Gifford Pinchot, government forester and personal representative of President Roosevelt at the congress, delivered the message of the country's chief executive which came by telegraph, containing congratulations and earnest wishes for the fullest success of the Protest Would Be of No Avail Tokio, Sept. 3.-No protest has yet been received from the Chinese government in regard to Japan's occupa tion of Kantao, in behalf of Korea. There was a time when Russia, it is asserted, had an eye on Kantao, but Korea's title is thought to be perfect since the conclusion of the Russo-Japtnese agreement, and a protest from China against Japan's course there is expected to be of no avail.

Merrymounts to Win

The Merrymounts white-washed Malden White Sox at Merrymount park on the morning of Labor day, 4 to 0. Chase, who has just returned from a season's playing in the New Hampshire league, was in the FURNITURE and PIANO MOVER box for the locals, and his effective pitching mystified the various batters who faced his invincible delivery. Speed and control were his and in five innings, he fanned nine, allowed no hits, and gave two passes.

Owing to the fact that both teams had to catch a train only five innings were played, and during these innings only six fair balls were hit by One House, 6 rooms, bath and attic; all the visitors and these were fielded without an error by the home team. Gatcomb, who threw them in for Malden was able to find the plate, September 1, 1907. only in spasms. He allowed ten men in four innings, tickets to first, and was touched for two safe hits, while many reached first on errors.

The game was decidedly uninteresting and aside from the pitching of Chase, presented little that was spectacular.

The afternoon game at Saugus was postponed on account of rain.

Famous Poem Of President John Quincy Adams When Congressman

"Man wants but little here below, Nor wants that little long."

In 1840, Mr. Morgan, afterwards secretary of state of New York, occupied a seat in Congress next to Mr. Adams. Several young ladies in Mr. Ogle's disrict had requested Mr. Adams's autograph. In complying with that request Mr. Adams added the following poem, a copy of which Mr. Morgan obtained. Mr. Adams, be it remembered, when this spirited poem was written, had attained his 74th year.

President Adams was born in Quincy July 11, 1767, and died in Washington Feb. 23, 1848. It would appear that We want a competent fireman to run the heating boilers at the the "wants of man" a century ago were Music Hall and Durgin-Merrill Blocks. If desired arrangements can as numerous as they are today, and probably be made to run another boiler or to do odd jobs so as to make a possible a little more extravgant if one full working day. Application can be made at Music Hall, 8.30 to 9 A. M. may judge by the following poem:

"Man wants but little here below. Nor wants that little long." "Tis not with me exactly so-But 'tis so in the song.

My wants are many, and, if told, Would muster many a score; And were each wish a mint of gold I still should long for more.

What first I want is daily bread, And canvas-backs and wine, And all the realms of nature spread Before me when I dine; Four courses scarcely can provide My appetite to quell, With four choice cooks, from Franc besides, To dress my dinner well.

What next I want, at heavy cost, Is elegant attire-Black sable furs for winter's frost, And silks for summer's fire, And Cashmere shawls and Brussel

My bosom's front to deck, And diamond rings my hands to And rubies for my neck.

Quincy, Mass.

And then I want a mansion fair, A dwelling-house in style,

Four stories high, for wholes A massive marble pile; With halls for banquets and for balls All furnished rich and fine: With stabled studs in fifty stalls, And cellars for my wine.

I want a garden and a park My dwelling to surround-A thousand acres (bless the mark!) With walls encompassed round, Where flocks may range and herds may low And kids and lambkins play-And flowers and fruits commingled All Eden to display.

I want, when summer foliage falls, And autumn strips the trees. A house within the city walls, For comfort and for ease-But here, where space is somewhat scant,

And acres rather rare, My house in town I only want To occupy—a square.

I want a steward, butler, cooks, A coachman, footman, grooms, A library of well-bound books, And picture-garnished roomsCorregios, Magdalen, and Night, The Matron of the Chair-Guido's fleet-courses in their flight And Claudes, at least a pair.

I want a cabinet profuse Of medals, coins, and gems; A printing press for private use, Of fifty thousand ems, And plants, and minerals, and Worms, incects, fishes, birds, And every beast on earth that dwells In solitude or herds.

I want a board of burnished plate, Of silver and of gold-Tureens of twenty pounds in weight With sculpture's fichest mould-Plateaus with chandeliers and lamps Plates, dishes, all the same,

And porcelain vases with the stamps

Of Sevres, Angouleme. And maples of fair glossy stain Must form my chamber doors, And carpets of the Wilton grain Must cover all my floors; My walls with tapestry bedecked

Must never be outdone, And damask curtains must protect Their colors from the sun.

And mirrors of the largest pane From Venice must be brought, And sandal wood and bamboo cane For chairs and tables bought; On all the mantlepieces, clocks Of thrice-gilt bronze must stand, And screens of ebony and box Invite the stranger's hand.

I want-(who does not want?)-

Affectionate and fair, To solace all the woes of life, And all its joys to share-Of temper sweet, of yielding will, Of firm yet placid mind-With all my faults to love me still With sentiment refined.

And as 'Time's car incessant runs, And Fortune fills my store, want of daughters and of sons From eight to half a score;

want (alas! can mortal dare Such bliss on earth to crave?) That all the girls be chaste and The boys all wise and brave.

And when my bosom's darling sings With melody divine,

A pedal harp of many strings Must with her voice combine; A piano, exquisitively wrought, Must open stand, apart, That all my daughters may be taught To win the stranger's heart.

My wife and daughters will desire Refreshments from perfumes, Cosmetic for the skin require, And artificial blooms; The civet, fragrance shall dispense And treasured sweets return-

Cologne revive the flagging sense

And when at night my weary head Begins to droop and doze, A southern chamber holds my bed For nature's soft repose; With blankets, counterpanes and sheet. Mattress and bed of down, And comfortables for my feet,

And pillows for my crown. I want a warm and faithful friend To cheer the adverse hour,

Who ne'er to flatter will descend Nor bend the knee to power-A friend to chide me when I'm wrong, My inmost soul to see, And that my friendship proves as strong For him as his for me.

I want a kind and tender heart For others' wants to feel, A soul secure from Fortune's

And bosom armed with steel-To bear divine chastisement's rod, And mingling in my plan, Submission to the will of God With charity to man.

I want a keen observing eye-

An ever-listening ear.

The truth through all disguise to Andwisdom's voice to hear: A tongue to speak at virture's need. In Heaven's sublimest strain,

And never plead in vain. I want uninterrupted health Throughout my long career; And streams of never failing wealth

To scatter far and near. The destitute to clothe and feed, Free bounty to bestow-Supply the helpless orphan's need And soothe the widow's woe. I want the genius to conceive,

The talents to unfold Designs, the vicious to retrieve-The virtuous to uphold; Inventive power, combining skill, A perserving soul, Of human hearts to mould the will And reach from pole to pole.

I want the seals of power and place, The ensigns of command-Charged by the people's unbought grace, To rule my native land;

Nor crown, nor sceptre, would I But from my country's will, By day, by night, to ply the task Her cup of bliss to fill.

I want the voice of honest praise And to be thought in future days The friend of human kind-That after-ages, as they rise, Exulting may proclaim In choral union to the skies.

Their blessings on my name. These are the wants of mortal man I cannot want them long, For life itself is but a span And earthly bliss a song. My last great want, absorbing all,

Is when beneath the sod, And summoned to my final call, The mercey of my God. And oh! while circles in my veins Of life the purple stream,

And yet a fragment small remains Of nature's transient dream, My soul, in humble hope unscarre Forget not thou to pray, That this thy want may be prepared To meet the Judgment Day!

Intelligent Boston.

It must be very annoying to the intelligent citizens of Boston to see the way the city's money is being wasted according to the testimony given yesterday before the new finance commission.

Michael J. Mitchell, superintendent of Boston purchasing department, ordered thousands of tons of coal, without bids, of an inferior quality, and paid a higher price for the same than most dealers asked. years and probably had better qualifications for burying bodies and money, than of purchasing of coal. His qualification, he seemed to think, was simply in being appointed. He admitted and at the house was yellow, golden his innocence as to coal qualities and rod being used very effectively. grades.

MURDERER OF WOMEN

What Police Think of Burglar Who Was Killed at New York

New York, Sept. 4.—A second Johann Hoch, the police believe, has been discovered in Henry Hoffman, the burglan who was killed while attempting to rob Charles Warrell's flat early last Friday morning.

The police on Saturday declared that Hoffman was the murderer of Sophy Heckler, a servant girl, found dead Aug. 3, and last night they announced the belief that he also murdered Mrs. Lena Schum, who was killed in Brooklyn Aug, 20. It is possible, they de clare, that Hoffman was also guilty o some of the other mysterious murders Not Guilty--Recent Tong Riot In which occurred about the same time.

The detective who has been at work on the Schum case is positive that Hoffman killed the woman. MOORS MEET DEFEAT

Fierce Engagement Takes Place Near Casablanca

FANATICS WERE RECKLESS

Native Auxiliaries Drew Them to Spot Where French Infantry and Artillery Were Concealed -- Met Perfect Rain of Shot and Shell

Casablanca, Sept. 4.-Four French soldiers, including Captain Massenet of the Thirteenth artillery, were wounded during an engagement with the Moors, which was hotly waged. The fanatics showed extreme recklessness, but eventually retired under the repeated sweeping charges of the French and the terrific bombardment of the artillery.

The fighting was started by the Arabs, who made a savage attack on a reconnoitering party. General Drude, the French commander, reinforced the party by five companies of infantry, two batteries of artillery, a detachment of Shahis, African hussars and irregular Algerian cavalry.

A scouting party of native auxiliaries were the first to discover the enemy. They found that the Arab column at l'addert was under arms, and after firng a few shots they retired, drawing he Arabs to a spot where the French infantry and artillery were concealed. When this maneuver had been acconplished the scouting party wheeled and unexpectedly charged the Arabs, while at the same time the infantry and ar fillery unmasked and poured in a rain of shot and shell.

The Arabs made desperate signals for einforcements, which soon began to ! arrive in such numbers as to threaten to overwhelm the French. General Drude thereupon came out with fresh nfantry and artillery, and soon after their advent the Arabs grew desper ate. By nightfall they had all retired.

The Arab patrols left their dead on the field of battle. This they never do except in the last extremity, and it is taken as a sign of their profound dis-

IT MEANS INCREASED PRICES

Millions of Tons of Butuminous Product Must Be Sent From the East -- Revolution In Shipments by Water Said to Be Impending

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—According to steam coal experts a revolution is impending in soft coal shipments from this and other Atlantic ports, due to the removal of the Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific coast. The belief is general that the fleet will go to the Pacific never to return. This means the shipment in the next few years of millions of tons of coal to Pacific ports for the use of the battleships. Necessarily this coal must go by water, as the railroad rate makes the price of coal delivered on the Pacific coast almost Prohibitive, the difference in the cost being $6 to $8

Recognizing the importance of the situation, John C. Grady, director of the department of wharves, docks and ferries of this city, yesterday notified the government at Washington that ships desiring to load coal for United States warships will be given preference at this port.

The prediction is made that within a few months manufacturers will be pay ing largely increased prices for steam coal because of the covernment demand for it. Already there has been a quiet accumulation of coal all along the At lantic coast. There has also been a gen eral brushing up of steam and sailing ships capable of carrying coal to nava stations on the Pacific coast and Puget sound. It is realized that within the next few months the demand for such vessels will be so great as possibly to exclude the carrying of other kinds of

For some time past government agents have been quietly collecting in formation regarding the coal shipping possibilities of the various ports on th Atlantic coast, with a view to using those most available when the govern ment demands begin. It is the desire to store coal in large quantities on th Pacific coast in advance of the arriva there of the battleship fleet. Constant shipments will be necessary to keep a satisfactory supply on hand and ves sel owners realize that their time of prosperity is in sight. The action of Grady has an important bearing on the shipment of coal from this port. The dock facilities are unrivalled and the railroads and the gov ernment are preparing to take advan-

Further Violence at Antwerp Antwerp, Sept. 4 .- The strikers continued to terrorize the city last evening. They killed a policeman and several children were wounded from the in discriminate shooting. Matters reached such a pitch that the authorities were obliged to summon the militia and bring in reinforcements of gendarmes from the surrounding country. Strikers overturned trucks containing bales of cotton and other goods, which they Valuable Painting Destroyed Paris, Sept. 4.—Another valuable picture in the galleries of the Louvre has been practically destroyed. This is the third time within two months that paintings in the galleries have been wantonly damaged. The culprit yesterday was a girl, who, with a pair of scissors, cut the canvas of Ingres' mas terpiece, "The Sistine Chapel." She explained that she had damaged the painting from a desire to be arrested.

Fishing Privileges Will Continue St. Johns, Sept. 4.—Representatives of Gloucester, Mass., vessel owners are here arranging for the opening of the frozen herring industry at Bay of Islands. The opinion of the residents of Bay of Islands is that pending the hearing of the controversy by The Hague tribunal the Americans will enjoy fishing privileges as before.

Policeman Shot to Death San Francisco, Sept. 4 .- Policeman McCartney was shot and killed yesterday. According to a companion officer, the murderer is John J. PLEASES REPUBLICANS

Ind cations of a Divided Democracy In the Bay State

Boston, Sept. 4.-After a respite rom politics for a few days, the campaign being kept up by letters from George F. Williams and Henry M. Fire on the Collier Everett

There was quite a lively blaze early this morning in the collier Everett at the Fore River works. and an alarm was given by the whistles at the works. The whistles awoke nearly everybody in the Point district and called out a large number of workmen who were able to extinguish the fire without calling the city department. The fire was in the engine room and burned some damage was done however. Men some of the men must have left a lighted candle.

Board of Trade Ready to Hear From the Citizens Association

A largely attended meeting of the Board of Trade was held Wednesday evening, President Williams presiding. The topic for the discussion was the rights of granite manufacturers to re move monuments that had not been paid for from cemeteries.

Under the present law, if a granite manufacturer places a monument in a emetery and the party does not pay for t, he has no right to remove the monument, but must seek redress in a civil suit which is often expensive.

In Vermont there is a law allowing he removal of a monument and it works

William H. Deacon, John R Richards, John Q. A. Field, J. W ratt and others spoke on the quesion. It was voted that a committee of three be appointed to act with a like committee from the Granite Manufacturers' Association to draft a suitable bill and present it to the next Legislature.

President Williams then announced hat he had been approached by two rominent members of the Citizens Association who requested that the entiment of the Board of Trade be aken on the subject of consolidating he two associations.

which it was brought out that this same idea was suggested by the Board of Trade some time ago but was turned down by the Citizens'

The unanimous sentiment of the ions should unite, but that the apation should come from the 'itizens' Association. A motion that the board of directors of the Board of Trade confer with the board of directors of the Citizens' Association in regard to the consolidation was laid on the table Two were admitted to membership and $3 was subscribed toward the Quincy stone in the Pilgrim monument. A social hour followed during which refreshments were served.

Where Are The Nine?

Editors of Daily Ledger:

It seems a little strange that in the old patriotic city of Quincy it should require so many weeks to raise a paltry $45 to purchase a stone for the Pilgrim nonument, and I can account for it only on the supposition that our men of affairs are so busy in these prosperous times that they cannot drop their business long enough to attend to it.

There remains now but a small sumonly $9 -- and I should like to appeal, through the columns of the Daily Ledger, to our business men urging them to drop their business cares for just five minutes and write a check for dollar,

I consider it a privilege to be allowed the matter a little thought, they, too, send in their dollars. Now, gentlemen, let us clean it up to-

When asked why he did it, Erickson is said to have muttered something about killing her. He was find in court.

Comfortable Quarters For the Nurses

It will be a great source of satisfaction to every one acquainted with conditions at the Hospital to know that a large part of the money collected this year for that institution, will go towards building a Nurses' Home. The hospital nurses have for several years put up with accommodations which might well have discouraged a less resolute and faithful class of workers. . They have been crowded into sleeping rooms not designed for so many occupants, and so have lacked the comfort and seclusion of individual rooms so nec essary for rest and recuperation when temporarily relieved from their exhausting duties.

The new building will stand in peautiful part of the grounds, entirely by itself, so as to be free at all times from disturbing sights and sounds and thus will be available such nurses as are off duty. There will also be a much-needed nurses parlor for social purposes, relaxation and reading during off-duty

There is certainly no other pro ession which calls more imperatively for a clear brain and sound body than that of the nurse, and those requisites demand proper conditions o hours of rest. And as the highest efficiency of the nurse depends so largely on healthful and comfortable housing, every citizen has a very vital interest in the new building, and will congratulate the nurses heartily when it is really ready for them.

Eward L. To people whom he thinks do not know Mr. Bean personally, he represents himself as Mr. Bean, and to those whom he thinks may know Mr. Bean, he represents himself as the driver of Mr. Bean's hearse. He is a man who evidently knows Quincy people well, and is capable of telling most plausible stories, for he has Medley succeeded in getting sums of money varying from $3 to $15.

In most cases the fellow has worked the game in Boston. To ome of his victims he told the story that Mr. Bean's hearse had been n getting a loan to get the hearse out of the shop and home. To others he has asked for small sums in order to make up the balance due on nechanics' liens. In these cases he would show $15 or $20 and ask for nough to make $25. Several prominent citizens of Quincy have been approached by this swindler and ave contributed various amounts.

The knowledge of these transacions has caused Mr. Bean considerable worriment, as he cannot understand why his name should be used so continuously. Mr. Bean is in lopes that the next man approached in his name will cause the arrest of the swindler, and he promises to do all in his power to aid in the prosecution of the cheat.

Life of Italian Desperado New York, Sept. 5.-After a sensational chase and desperate fight with an Italian desperado in the Bronx half a dozen detectives were forced to fight for his life and their own against re peated assaults of hundreds of Italian men and women who sought to deal out summary justice to the prisoner, Antonio Forgone

Forgone had stabbed Mrs. Lorenza Nicholo in her little store in East 153rd street, almost severing her right ear after she had refused to give him $100, As he dashed from the store Mrs. Gaetano Peppoio tried to block his progress. The bloodstained knife which h waved as he sped through the crowd gave the fugitive a fairly clear path and a number of policemen and detec tives who had taken up the chase wer being outdistanced. Will Probably Need Them All In · Battling With Moors

Fierce Res stance May Necessiate Enlargement of Allies' Forces--Six Thousand Fanatics Participate In the Latest Battle

Paris, Sept. 5.—In an interview last night, Premier Clemenceau was loud in his praise of General Drude, who, he said, was to be congratulated on hav ing dispersed the most formidable Moorish army that yet has appeared before Casablanca. Drude now has a total of 7000 men.

Questioned on the subject of the arms at Mazagan, Clemenceau said that matter was extremely complicated. So far as he could gather, the consignment amounted to 4000 rifles and 1,500,000 rounds of ammunition. It had been sent from Mogador to Mazagan, and was on its way to the sultan

The native customs authorities had taken possession of the arms and de clined to deliver them to either the delegate sent by the reigning sultan, to Mulai Hafig, the sultan who has been proclaimed in the south, or to the com mander of the French cruiser Conde The townspeople of Mazagan, the pre nier continued, were in favor of Mulai Hafig and were clamoring that the arms be given over to him.

The premier said he hoped it would not be necessary to land marines to settle the affair, as that was a most serious step. He added that the matter was entirely in the hands of Vice Admiral Philibert, in whom he had the greatest confidence. In conclusion the premier said to his questioner:

"I have told you all that there is to be known, and for goodness sake don't go and say that General Drude has checked the Moors. They have done as they always do. They are very brave, and beaten at one point they will re form and return to the attack. General Drude is an old African campaign er; he is thoroughly conversant with their methods and is not to be surprised by them."

The fighting on Monday proved that the Moroccan situation is steadily growing more serious and that although France is constantly victorious, the dogged, fanatical resistance of the Moors, who appear to be mobilizing in larger numbers, may necessitate a distinct enlargement of the allies' forces

The fierce assaults of the enemy are believed to be due to France's failure to annihilate the Moors during the early stages of the expedition, a result which France was unable to accomplish on account of the restrictions imposed on her by the Algeciras conven-

The Moors concentrated the largest force they had yet mustered in this vicinity and returned to the attack again and again after encountering the Hunt, Director and teacher of Manual deadly fire of the French artillery and machine guns. The enemy's losses are described as enormous. The fighting was started by an attack made by the Moors on a French scouting party. About 6000 Moors participated in Monday's fighting. The Moors, who were repulsed on all sides, made a most impressive picture as, garbed fantastically, mounted on white horses and carrying their banners in the front line, they swept down from the hills in splendid formation and charged thunderously to within about 400 yards of the French camp, which for a moment seemed to be in danger of being overridden. As they advanced, the Moors chanted in unison verses from the Koran.

The irregular Algerian cavalry encountered the first shock of the Moors' from the position they occupied. General Drude quickly deployed his forces to the greatest advantage and the Moors were submitted to a fire of shot and shell which soon left the ground strewn with corpses. The engagement opened at 5 a. m. and lasted seven

It is estimated that in the engage ments of Aug. 28 and Sept. 1 about 800 Moors were killed, while several hundred were killed on Sept. 2.

VERDICT IN ROGERS' FAVOR

Was Sued For $50,000,000 Said to Be Due In Royalties

Boston, Sept. 5.-A verdict was rendered for the defendant, Henry H. Rogers, by Auditor Slocum in the supreme coart in the suit brought by Cadrecover $50,000,000 alleged due as royal ties for the use of a secret process for rendering petroleum and its products nonexplosive.

The suit has been pending for some time and was referred to an auditor by the supreme court. The plaintiff appeared as assignee of the cause of action under an assignment from Elizabeth P. Greenough of Brooklyn, admin istratrix of the estate of her husband Benjamin F. Greenough, formerly of Brooklyn.

The action was based on a contract made Nov. 5, 1874, between Greenough his wife and sons, with Henry H. Rogers, conveying exclusive rights in a re ceipt for rendering petroleum and its products non-explosive, for a royalty of 1-4 cent a gallon for all the product to which the receipt might be applied, the royalties to amount to not less than $500 any month.

It was represented by the defense that the formula was of no value and did not render the product non-explosive, according to experiments by Hi ram Maxim; that the contract was terminated in January, 1875, Greenough acquiescing, and finally referred to the statute of limitations.

The auditor stated in his findings that the formula did not perform what was claimed of it and rendered his findings for the defendant.

Important Notice to Our Many Patrons.

On the ninth day of September, 1907, we are going to change our list: business over to a cash basis. On and after that date all goods must be paid for upon delivery.

Such action seems wise by the Directors of the company and we fee assured that the public will fully appreciate our position in the matter and not fail to see the MANY benefits they will derive by paying cash.

The question of delivery has been arranged so that you will get your goods early and all mail and telephone orders will receive our prompt attention. We have two numbers-550 and 551. Call either and we will serve you. On Monday we shall cut prices on a number of our goods and shall add several new lines that we have not carried before.

The Coddington On New Location Is Not Ready For Occupancy

Owing to the incomplete condition of affairs at the Coddington school it will be impossible for this school to open next Tuesday with the other school buildings of the city. Supt. Parlin has set the date for the opening as Sept. 16, but it is very doubtful if the building is ready even then. Both buildings are now located on their temporary sites but are in such condition that they can not be occu-

In the first place they are both jacked up and there is no platform or steps by which to enter the buildings. Then the rooms are more or less cluttered with debris, so that the to her sons and daughters scattered janitor can not clean them. The sanitaries have not been connected neither have the water pipes. Work was to be commenced right royal entertainment when they today to lay a temporary sewer connection from the buildings to connect with the main sewer on Wood-

Monday the plumbers will commence work installing the sanitaries which will take some days. These are to be located in the basement and will be reached by a bulkhead from the front of the building.

At the present time the blocking used to move the building has not been removed. Men are at work, however, placing the stone supporting post under the building and as soon as they are in place the blockng will be removed.

The plastering has been cracked and broken in some of the rooms and looks bad. It will probably be allowed to remain for the present how-

As there will be no school rooms in the basement, the building will not oupils and it will be necessary to find accommodations for quite a number of pupils in some other building. Considering the amount of work to be done and the limited number of men that can be kept at work it would not be surprising if it was the first of October before the building will open. The situation next September may be worse. No appropriation has yet been made for a new Coddington building, and finances may not perbeen prepared, but have not been sub- town, they will reside in Norwood. mitted for approval to the School Committee or State board.

Hindus Not Allowed to Dwell In Bellingham, Wash.

HUNDREDS ARE HOMELESS

Mills and Houses Raided by Mob, Which Shows No Mercy--Those Not Driven Away Are Sheltered In Public Buildings

Bellingham, Wash., Sept. 6.—Six badly beaten Hindus are in the hospital, 400 frightened and half naked Sikhs are in jail and the corridors of the city hall, guarded by policemen and somewhere between Bellingham and British Columbia are 750 natives of India, beaten, hungry and half clothed, making thir way along the Great Northern railway to Canadian territory and the protection of the British flag.

The long-expected cry, "drive out the Hindus," was heard throughout the city and along the waterfront late at night. The police were helpless. All authority was paralyzed and for five hours a mob of 500 white men raided the mills where the foreigners were working, battered down doors of lodging houses, and, dragging the Asiatics from their beds, escorted them to the city limits, with orders to keep going. The trouble started at C and Holly streets, a lodging house district. The houses were cleared and the mob then swept down to the waterfront and mill after mill was visited, the white employes joining the mob. Every Hindu was hustled outside. Here the police suggested that the mob victims be taken to jail. This was hailed with delight and the Hindus were hustled along. The mob kept up its work along the waterfront until early in the morning, when Larson's mill at Whatcom Lake was visited and a hundred Hindus brought in from there. The city is now quiet. Four women were found among the crowd in

IN A BAD POSITION HOW TO TELL IF

LONG CAMPAIGN IS LIKELY

Note to Powers Indicates Desire to Stretch Algeciras Treaty-Germany Not Satisfied With French Course and May Protest

Paris, Sept. 6 .- While there has not been any more fighting at Casablanca since the fierce engagement early in the week, the seriousness of the general situation in Morocco and the possibility of its leading France into diplomatic difficulties with the other powers of Europe, notably Germany and Great Britain, to say nothing of the apparently growing necessity of increasing the size of the French force on the Morocean coast, is occupying the attention of the French people.

The press is calling attention to the difficulty of keeping within the terms of the Algeciras convention, and the call to convoke parliament to discuss and decide what course the nation should pursue is becoming more insistent. There is a growing feeling that the important decisions in the matter of France's policy in Morocco should not be left entirely to the members of

The seriousness of the fighting in which Major Prevost of the foreign legion was killed, further details of which are published, has brought home to the French people a comprehension of the persistent resistance of the Moors and a realization that France may be only at the threshold of a protracted campaign that may prove costly in lives and money.

No other power yet has been drawn into the difficulty, but Germany is watching the progress of events in Morocco more closely every day, and as it becomes apparent that the situation there is not improving, it is intimated in Berlin that the Algeeiras convention under the terms of which France and Spain are acting in Morocco, pre scribes certain limitations, and that France is approaching the bounds be yond which she should not go without first obtaining the special permission of the powers.

Foreign Minister Pichon announce that a note has been sent to the powers informing them that the Moroccan min ister of war, Mohammed Cabas, upon being asked if he could guarantee the lives of the European instructors to the proposed police force, according to the terms of the Algeciras convention, had replied in the negative. It would therefore probably be necessary to organize a police force with Frenchmen and Spaniards. This is taken to mean that France and Spain may shortly to land detachments of troops at the Moroccan seaports.

The situation at Mazagan is reported to be growing worse, and the exodus of Europeans from Tangier continues Premier Clemenceau, however, announces that there is reason to believe that neither Abd-El-Aziz, the reigning sultan, nor Mulai Hafig, his brother, who has been proclaimed sultan in the south, intend to make war against France. Native advices received from Tan gier declare that 20,000 hostile Moors have concentrated not far from Casablanca, and that 10,000 Kabyle tribesmen have mobilized near Alcabaza. Spain is preparing to send reinforcements of men and ships to Morocco One Spanish battleship, the Emperador Carlos V, arrived at Tangier yesterday

Will Prevent "Egyptianization" Berlin, Sept. 6 .- The development of events at Casablanca appears to be regarded with some distrust by the German government. Foreign Secretary Tschirsky has stated that Germany accepted fully the French assurances that the operations of the allied forces in Morocco would be within the terms of the Algeciras convention. Then Tschirsky added, in substance, that of course the Algeciras convention did not contemplate France and Spain undertaking to suppress a civil war in Mo

This reservation discloses the Ger man interpretation of the Algeciras convention, and shows that any exten sive military operations on the part of the allies must either arouse controversy or be preceded by the consent of the interested powers.

The German attitude at present is simply to await developments. The British government seems to be waiting to see what Germany will do and the latter power is determined to prevent the "Egyptianization of Morocco."

Reported Bombardment of Mazagan Paris, Sept. 6.—The Petit Republiqu publishes a dispatch from Tangier say ing that Jews there have received letters announcing that Mazagan has been bombarded and that only a few shops and houses in the centre of the town are left standing.

Receivership Proceedings Asked Bristol, Va., Sept. 6 .- There is now little hope of compromising the claims against the Union Iron and Steel cor poration, for which a receiver was appointed, and a number of additional creditors have joined in the receivership proceedings. Officials of the corpora tion refuse to make any statement for publication in connection with the present embarrassment.

HUB "COAL GRAFT" PROBE

City Paid Highest Prices For Fuel of Inferior Quality--Alderman Admits Selling Coal to City In Small Lots-Grilled by Investigators

Boston, Sept. 6.—Superintendent Michael J. Mitchell of the Boston city was appointed to office by Mayor Fitzgerald, last night sent in his resignation to Mayor Fitzgerald.

The resignation of the purchasing agent comes following an investigation into alleged "coal graft" on the part of city employes and officials by a finance commission, the developments of which in the testimony taken during the past few days have been extreme-

Mitchell was many hours on the stand and in the course of his testimony stated that he was but slightly familiar with the coal business, being an undertaker, and that he placed or ders for coal almost entirely at the mayor's direction, no bids being asked and the price determined without con petition. It was also claimed to hav the kind of coal ordered and paid for.

Mitchell in general stated that he dias the mayor ordered and for the res relied upon the honesty of the firm with whom he placed the orders, feel ing assured that the prices paid wer fair market prices.

Mitchell's communication to the may or explains that the purchasing agen believes he has been used unfairly, and as he doesn't wish to bring any dis credit upon the city and department which he represents he offers his resig mation. The resignation was given out from the mayor's office withou

If Maurice H. Klous, agent for the Boston Coal company and for the W K. Niver Coal company, and Charle Corr, agent for the Hatfield & Hilles Coal company, had been present at yes terday's session of the finance commis sion, they would have heard some very interesting testimony; but each of these men is on a vacation which has taken him far enough from Boston to make the serving of summonses an expensive and hopeless endeavor.

Through two unbiased and unpreju dieed witnesses, William T. Cobb, a coal dealer, and Theodore L. Keppler, representing the American Sugar Refining company, Mr. Sughrue, counsel to the commission, undertook to show specifically wherein the city of Boston, frauded out of a considerable sum of money through wilful misrepresentation by the W. K. Niver company. He also undertook to show that the Hatfield & Hilles concern, which had contracts for the delivery of 10,000 tons of coal to the city, went outside and bought small lots of New River coal, at a loss, and then palmed off the remainder of the 10,000 tons in cheap and inferior coal at stiff prices.

Incidentally Sughrue had Alderman Woods of Brighton on the witness stand for over half an hour, and managed to keep the alderman squirming during that time, only to dismiss him with the admonition to be within reach

Woods testified that he had been a retail coal dealer for the past five years. He had sold about 200 tons of coal a winter to the street and sewer depart ments. He sold about 100 tons in all, soft coal, last winter. He is president and manager of the Brighton Coal company, but the treasurer runs the bush

Woods said he had sold coal, hard and soft, to the city, but not in contract. He took small orders from the supply department through Mitchell generally 10 or 20 tons-in all three or four hundred tons of soft coal, at $5.50 and $5 a ton, to be delivered to the sewer department. Also had sold about two or three hundred tons of hard coal, generally at 25 cents a ton below the market price. He generally dealt with Mitchell.

contracts with the city of Boston, and the name of the Eastern Clay Goods company came out. The witness claimed that he was not a stockholder in this concern, but became superintendent in February, 1905, through arrangements in connection with his coal business. As superintendent of that company he dealt with William J. Shiels, then purchasing agent for the city, and sold the sewer department pipe, cement, etc. He is not superin tendent at present. For his sales he received 33 1-3 per cent commission. The city was the largest customer. He saw no reason to deny that he was chosen to act as superintendent because he stood well in the city government as an alderman. Will Accede to Raisuli's Terms Tangier, Sept. 6 .- It is understood here that the British legation is treat ing with Raisuli for the release of Marry MacLean, who has been his prisoner since early in July. Too many house-keepers make errors in buying furniture. They take too much stock in the yellow journal type of advertising used today by some of the largest and smallest stores. Then the bogus man who tells you he will sell at wholesale and deceives you, by marking his goods high and taking off

IN MEMORY OF M'KINLEY

Monument Erected by New York State Dedicated at Buffalo

Buffalo, Sept. 6 .- In a heavy downpour of rain and before a vast multitude of people, the McKinley monument was dedicated and formally turned over to the state of New York hrough Governor Hughes. The ceremonies were brief but impressive and were attended by two regiments of Canadian troops, in addition to the es cort of American regular infantry and New York state troops. A large body of Grand Army veterans also attended. Following a prayer, Edward F. Butler, chairman of the monument commission, introduced Mayor Adam, who was followed by State Commander Swift of the G. A. R., Past Commander Miller of the Spanish American war veterans and President McLean of the Daughters of the Revolution. Mrs. Truman C. Avery then pulled the cord which released the flag, revealing the gleaming white sides of the shaft. On account of the steadily continu ing rain other parts of the program were omitted. Chairman Butler turned the monument over to Governo Hughes, representing the state. The addresses were received in respectful silence. A ripple of applause swept over the multitude, however, when Governor Hughes stepped for ward to speak. He said that in memory of McKinley's martyrdom, in memory of a heroic death, in testimony to the futility of insensate envy and the lasting supremacy of law and order in memory of a worthy life crowned by its sad sacrifice, this monument has been erected. The exercises closed 538 Tremont Building, Boston. with an invocation by Bishop Colton. The monument was erected by the state of New York on a site provided by the city of Buffalo. The obelisk is a pure white marble shaft, 86 feet in height and rests upon a pedestal 14 feet high, the base of which is 12 feet above the street level. The whole is surrounded by a tassellated promenade embellished with ornate parapets and ballustrades and fountains. On four sides of the base of the column are appropriate inscriptions.

on Thursday that the navy department has decided to christen the 20,-000 ton battleship No. 29, a sister ship to the Delaware, the New York. This can be effected by changing the name of the armored cruiser of that name to the Saratoga. This is the mammoth battleship for which the Fore River Co., of Quincy has been awarded the contract.

FORE RIVER NOTES.

Louis Eckert of the drafting department has accepted a position three. with the Newport News Company, and leaves Monday for his new field.

The Fore River yards offer a fine chance for men to work, and learn kinds of ships. There are now under contract to be built a big battleship, four U. Then too there is an opporpriation for sub-mariner awaiting the decision of the Secretary of south of the Cape for another boat, the Navy as to its expenditure, which money, if the decision is as expected home waters to be a ghost to windwill all be spent here for building a number of those vessels.

The report of a serious outbreak of the bubonic plague at San Francisco will be regarded as another reason why men in eastern ship yards will look askance at recent efforts to get them to go there to by George G. Saville, who found her

Owners in the class, and impartial observers generally, have long believed what he observed.

Certainly no class in Massachusetts bay has been raced so consistently this season as the cape cats. Thus far 28 races have been sailed, in none of which less than five boats have started, while in the Wollaston Y. C. open race 12 of the class appeared at

It also shows that some of the yachts have done much better in the association races than in the Quincy club and other open races. The races counting toward the Kidd plate are the association open races. Corinthians yacht club midsummer series and Quincy club races.

Of 16 cats that have started during the season only six are credited with winning first places. The Iris landed at the top of the class 12 times. CHAMPION FOR DR. LONG.

Expert English Naturalist Defends "Yellow Journalist of Woods."

The Rev. Theodore Wood, vicar of St. Mary Magdalene's church at Wandsworth and perhaps the leading British naturalist, is on the side of Dr. W. J. Long in the natural history controversy between Dr. Long and Granite street, near School street. President Roosevelt, says a specia cablegram from London to the New York Times. The president's denun ciations in Everybody's Magazine of "the yellow journalism of the woods," and in particular his citation of an example of "their deliberate in vention" of the story of the wood chuck which made a kind of mud splint for its broken leg, are taken ex ception to by Mr. Wood, who recently wrote out the following statement: "President Roosevelt may be an ex tremely able man, but the fact that he is president of the United States hardly qualifies him for delivering ex cathedra pronouncements on questions of natural history. Notwithstanding the corn which he pours upon the asse tion, I think there can be little doubt that snipe, at any rate, understand the art of binding up a broken limb by means of a splint. Statements to that effect have been made by many naturalists and sportsmen, and M. Fatio's observations on the subject were brought some time back before the Physiological society at Geneva. It was stated that snipe had often been known to secure a broken limb by means of a stout ligature. On two occasions M. Fatio had seen snipe with interwoven feathers strapped on the seat of the fracture of one of the

"A most interesting case was that of a snipe, both of whose legs he had unfortunately broken by a misdirected shot. He only recovered the bird the following day, when he found that the poor creature had contrived to apply dressings and a sort of splint to both limbs. In carrying out this operation some feathers had become entangled around its beak, and, not being able to use its claws to get rid of them, the bird was almost dead from hunger when found.

"In a case recorded by M. Magnin a snipe which was seen to fly away with a broken leg was subsequently found to have forced the fragments into a parallel position, and they were secured there by means of a strong band of feathers and moss intermingled. The observers were particularly struck by the application of a ligature of a kind of flat leaved grass wound around the limb in spiral form and around the limb in spiral form and around the limb in spiral form and sp fixed by means of a gluelike substance.'

Met Psychic Response In His "AI" nity," but Her Psychic Energy Has Evidently Been Extinguished by Newspaper Notoriety

New York, Sept. 7.-Ferdinand P. Barle was too gloomy to amalgamate with his wife's sunny disposition. That is one of the explanations given by the free love artist of Orange county for sending away his legally wedded spouse in order to have a free course with his "affinity," Julia Kuttner. Earle said yesterday:

"I could lament that my blundering in the papers has extinguished the flame in the breast of my 'affinity' and that she soon sails for Italy, to end her days in a convent. Or I could discover that I had never met the real Julia, and that I have been duped by a bold adwenturess, who realizes that my supposed millions are but thousands and therefore threatens to desert me.

"But I wish to speak to the brave people who are anxious to get at the truth of this matter, the people who reserve their verdicts until the accused have had a chance to defend and vindicate their position.

"My wife was all song and sunshine until the gloom of my too posi tive personality left her life colorless and gray. And I was all intensity and work until some subconscious friction between us sapped all my mental and psychic energy. This state of affairs we both cheerfully believed would change, and for a long while we convinced even the friends initiated into the mystery that the horizon was bright with hope.

"Later we felt confident that the arrival of little Harold, our son, would chase away the ugly phantoms that haunted even our happiest moments. But the song and sunshine did not come back and the energy failed to revive; and thus two years passed. There had been talk of the necessity of a separation, but I could not rob Mrs. Earle of Harold and I could not bear to part with him, and she would mever have taken him away from me had not the coming into my life of an unsuspecting stranger awakened the latent and languishing energy and given me courage to part from my boy to whom I had given much care and

"I intimated as gradually and as kindly as possible to Mrs. Earle the new element in our relations, and as soon as she grasped the whole situation it was comforting, to say the least, to see the old smiles returning to her face and the old songs resurrected.

"We did not shrink from legal obstacles, for both wished to act honorably, kindly and openly.

"Neither Mrs. Earle nor I ever dreamed that the papers would take the slightest notice of our case, as there was nothing scandalous or unnatural to be revealed. We were preparing for a few of our friends for what was coming, when somehow the news slipped

"My wife met Miss Kuttner on the Holland-American line pier for the first time, but as they had corresponded, and as both were sure of the other's friendship, there was nothing felt but sympathy and love."

Neighbors and former friends of the bewhiskered idealist, the man who believes his eccentricities are born of genius, gathered at his home yesterday. But he was not there. He had been warned and stayed in New York. The house was deserted.

A man hurled a rock and it went crashing through a window. This was a signal for many rocks to be hurled. Window after window was smashed. and then with hoots and yells the crowd went back to Monroe.

President McCrea of the Pennsylvania railroad said, apropos of a false charge against a financial institution: This charge was more than refuted. The institution came out with flying colors. One day at dinner I noticed that the farmer's wife seemed rather out of sorts, and after dinner I wasn't surprised to hear her say: have forgotten that this is the anniversary of our wedding!"

What to Do With Surplus Milk.

A teacher was trying to impress on the young minds the various uses of milk. She wanted some bright genius to tell how the farmer fed the surplus milk to the pigs. Leading up to this, she asked this question, "Now, chil dren, after the farmer has made all the butter and cheese he needs and uses what milk he wants for his family, what does he do with the milk that still remains?" One little hand waved frantically. The teacher smiled and said, "Well, James?"

Boston Will Not Lose Historic Constitution Immediately

NO DATE FOR ITS TRANSFER

Certain, However, That Annapolis Will Eventually Get the Vessel-Laval Officer Declares That Bostonians Are Right In Contention

Washington, Sept. 7 .- Boston may rest easy for the present regarding the United States frigate Constitution. No date has been fixed by the navy department for the vessel's transfer to Anmapolis and the development of the Boston yard will proceed in accordance with the program already mapped

Members of the naval committee during their recent visit to Boston were quoted as minimizing the value of this vessel as an historic relic because the material of the numerous repairs made to her and the introduction of new material into her make-up.

The effort was not to preserve her as a junk pile and carefully save each splinter of the original vessel, but to restore the ship along its original lines, to equip her as she was equipped on her maiden cruise and to present her to the country as she appeared in the days of her active service. In this way it is believed the spirit of the ship is preserved far more effectively than if the government had permitted her to to $7400.

When the Constitution leaves Boston eventually she will be towed to Annapolis. The date for the transfer has not been fixed, and further discussion of the matter will probably lag for the time being. There is no disposition on the part of the department to act hastily. In the course of time, the hope is expressed that the people of Boston will come to realize the propriety of giving this historic vessel an anchorage in the harbor of the home of the cradle

Not In the Way at Boston

Boston, Sept. 7 .- Information has been received here to the effect that President Roosevelt is in favor of the plan for moving the Constitution to Annapolis and that some of the authori ties of the naval academy already have begun to prepare an anchorage for the frigate. The dispatch which brought this information also said that probably no final decision regarding the remova of the ship would be reached until the president returned to Washington.

ments of a well known naval officer are of interest. "If President Roosevelt favors the removal of the Constitution about the matter," said this officer, "I cannot see why the officials of the academy have taken it upon themselves to go ahead and prepare a place for the ship. She is not in the way at present and is not likely to be for two or three years. It is all nonsense for the president, Mr. Newberry or anyone else to say that the ship is taking un valuable room. Where she lies now she is fully as safe from fire as she would be at Annapolis and she is not

"I think," he continued, "that the true story of the situation is that the navy department has decided to take the ship to Annapolis purely to please the navy. I dislike to say so, but it seems to me that it is a most decidedly selfish view. Of course, it would be a nice thing to encourage the patriotism of the midshipmen, but there are only a thousand or so of them. Annapolis is not visited by any considerable number of people, whereas Boston is visited by thousands every year.

"Just to show you how interested are the people from other parts of the country in the Constitution it is necessary only to tell you that, as nearly as we can estimate, more than 100,000 people went on board the Constitution during the last year she was open before the restoration was begun, and since the restoration and the reopening of the ship the number of visitors per week has been much larger on the

"It seems to me that the real question is as to whether the navy department is to take the ship and put her at the naval academy simply to give the midshipmen something to think about or keep her here where hundreds of thousands of people-and they come from all over the world, too-will have a chance to go on board. It seems to me that nothing could be more patriotic than to keep the Constitution here, where she was built and in the city Which has done more than all the rest of the country to preserve her."

MRS. CARTER ACQUITTED

Jury Discredited Testimony of Self-Confessed Thief

New York, Sept. 7.-Mrs. Laura M. Carter, who has been on trial on a charge of receiving stolen money, was acquitted by a jury late yesterday. Mrs. Carter was accused of having received from Chester B. Runyan, the defaulting teller of the Windsor Trust company, $5000 of the amount he stole from the bank.

One of the jurors stated after the verdict had been returned that the jurors agreed that the testimony of Runyan, who was the principal witness against Mrs. Carter, should be entirely ignored as that of a self-confessed thief.

Mrs. Carter on the street and that he made an arrangement with her whereby she was to conceal him. He testified that he told her that he was then $15,000 short in his accounts and must hide for a while, and that on her advice he returned to the bank and secured; $82,000 in balls, all the money there was in his custody. He said he gave her $5000 at once and that a day or two later she demanded $10,000, saying that if she did not get it she would betray him. This sum he said he also gave her. He claimed an additional $10,000 had disappeared from his room while he was

Mrs. Carter admitted getting the $5000, but said that as soon as she knew it had been stolen she returned it to him and then betraved him to the police. She denied absolutely that she had ever advised him to steal or that she had demanded or received the additional $10,000 as Runyan testified.

Immediately following the verdict Mrs. Carter was released from custody. She said she had not decided whether she would demand the reward offered for Runyan's capture, which amounted

Indictments For Rebating

Jamestown, N. Y., Sept. 7 .- An investigation which was begun before the federal grand jury in this city early in July was concluded yesterday. The jury found four indictments, one each against the Standard Oil company, the New York Central company, the Pennsylvania Railway company and one against these two railroads jointly. The indictments charge a violation of the interstate commerce law, either in accepting or granting rebates on oil shipments. If convictions are made according to the indictments returned, the three companies named will be subject to total fines of $876,000.

Skilled Labor Wanted In Navy Yard

Washington, Sept. 7 .- The navy department finds itself much embarrassed by the failure of the commandant at Mare Island navy yard to secure enough skilled labor to carry forward the absolutely necessary work there. Notwithstanding the fact that advertisements have been inserted in most of the Pacific coast newspapers calling for shipwrights and other labor needed to build a large collier, it has not been practicable even to lay down the keel Work on the California and South Da almost suspended for the same reason

Taft Advocates Square Deal

Portland, Or., Sept. 7 .- Secretary of War Taft, in an address here, said he was firmly convinced that the time had come when the country was tired of the plethora of millionaires and of their influence, and it had been demonstrated that the business of the nation should be run on the principle of a square deal to every one and special privileges to none. That, he said, had been the principle of the present administration and it would be the same with Republican administrations to Omaha, Sept. 7.—Three men who had picked the pockets of a number of Rock Island passengers at the station in Lincoln and attempted to continue their thieving on the train fought with Conductor Duval near Alvos station. After standing off the conductor with a knife the men leaped from the mowing train and escaped. Duval's attempts to capture the thieves led to reports that the train had been held up.

Robbers Got $8000 From Bank Frankfort, S. D., Sept. 7 .- The James River bank of Frankfort was dynamited and looted of $8000. Persons aroused by the explosion were prevented from interfering by robber guards, one man who sought to break through the guards being wounded. Many shots were fired to hold citizens at bay while the robbers went from the bank, broke into a section house, stole a handcar and escaped.

Purpose of the Persistent Attacks Upon Senator Lodge

DEMOCRATIC CONTEST IS HOT

Whitney and Bartlett Both Waging Energetic Campaign For the Nomination--Fitzgerald In Tight Place

It has long been a favorite trick with the Democracy to undertake the depreciation and villification of leading Republican statesmen, in order to create dissatisfaction with their leaders in the rank and file of the party. It has not always succeeded in this effort, but there have usually been a few Republicans taken in by this method of campaigning, and made to believe things which would not appeal to voters awake to such methods.

For several years the chief assaults of the Democratic party in Massachusetts have been upon Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, entirely owing to the fact that Mr. Lodge is the most conspicuous figure in that party in Massachusetts today. Democratic newspapers and Democratic orators have, for a long time, singled out Mr. Lodge as the object upon which to pour the vials of | With many Democrats as to whether the their abuse and have not hesitated to call him a boss, a dictator and a scheming politician.

Mr. Lodge is being assailed, not because he is Senator Lodge, and not because he is a boss, but for the sole and only reason that he is the leading political figure in the Republican party in Massachusetts at the present time Were Senator Crane or some other gentleman occupying the leading position in the party, then he, instead of Mr. Lodge, would be the victim of this guerilla style of campaigning and the attempt made to create discontent and dissension in the Republican ranks.

No Bossism In Massachusetts

In no state in the Union is there less bossism. A great many Republicans have declared that if the party organization in Massachusetts were more rigidly maintained, it would be much better for the party. In that case, there might perhaps be some justification for charging a party leader with being a boss. As the case stands today, however, there is no such justification and nobody who has real knowledge of the situation thinks there is.

No man holding so prominent a place in the Republican party as Senator Lodge has done for a number of years, and having such high official position, can possibly please everybody, even if he were gifted with the wisdom of Solomon and the patience of Job. It is recognized at Washington, in the United States senate, that Mr. Lodge is one of the ablest United States senators in the upper branch of congress, if not the very ablest of them all. If Massachusetts, knowing him so well, can be deceived by the noisy clamor of Democratic spellbinders and decadent newspapers, then it is a different Massachusetts from what its history would imply. No man who has ever represented the state of Massachusetts in the United States senate has labored more zeal ously, more persistently, or more courageously to promote the highest material and moral prosperity of the old Bay State than has Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Nahant. All his great abilities and unflagging energies have been consecrated to her service in the past, as they will be in the future. It has been a labor of love from the beginning. Mr. Lodge is proud of the commonwealth which he represents. He is proud of her history, of her achieve ments and of her possibilities. It is his ambition to see her reach greater heights of glory and prosperity than she has ever yet attained. There has not been one act or word uttered during his career in the senate which would indicate any other thing. The Wonder of It

That such a man should be maligned, misrepresented and villified by a political opposition which has neither great moral purpose, permanent political principles, nor party coherency, is perhaps not remarkable, but that such villification and attack should be seri ously entertained or accepted as just or correct in such a state as Massachusetts is incomprehensible. If Mr. Lodge is not appreciated in his home commonwealth, there is certainly the highest appreciation and respect for him in the other states of the Union. The late Thomas B. Reed of Maine who was one of the most astute philosophers the country has ever produced, once declared that statesmen were dead politicians. Probably no statesman who ever lived was acknowledged man ever will be so accepted by those who oppose him politically. Things Are Hot Here as such by his political opponents, and until the millenium comes, no states

The political situation on the Democratic side is fast reaching the stage known as "red hot." The intensity of feeling between the Whitney and the Bartlett wings of the Democracy is apparent to everybody. If Mr. Whitney is nominated, it is apparent already that he will lack some Democratic support. and in case Mr. Bartlett is nominated it is quite clear that some of the factions in the party will give him but nominal support. So bitter has become the contest that there is a general feeling of despair among Democrats of ac-

The attack upon Mr. Whitney in connection with his maniputation of leg-Islatures, and especially his relation to as follows: Subject to change without notic pipe line legislation, made by Thomas W. Lawson, is probably an indication of what Mr. Whitney may expect in case he secures the nomination for governor. The question would then seem to be whether a man accused of using methods for securing legislation which incurred the sharp censure of a legislative committee of investigation, should be chosen governor of the commonwealth as an endorsement of such methods.

Both Whitney and Bartlett are traveling about the commonwealth, meeting Democrats in every locality they visit. It must be admitted that General Bartlett has plenty of pluck and determination, and his friends believe that when the caucuses are held, he will be shown to have a majority of the delegates to the state convention. A great deal of active, quiet work is being done to promote his candidacy. His headquarters, in the Compton building, is a very lively place, and there are daily visitors from all parts of the state, who call to make reports of progress, and to receive news of the campaign from the rest of the state.

The Whitney men seem to assume that the battle, while it is warm, is yet going very favorably for their candidate. They base their estimates upon personal reports being received from every corner of the state, and if they are correct, Mr. Whitney will have a very strong following. It is an extremely expensive campaign for Mr. Whitney, and it seems to be a question nomination is really worth the powder which is being burned to secure it.

Escaped Notice and Deportation by Landing In America In a Barrel. Hyman Mosowvitch, a Russian Jew who fled to America from the outrages In his country, has had the unique experience of landing on the shores of America nailed in a light barrel, says a Waterbury (Conn.) special dispatch to the New York Times. Mosowvitch left his country rather suddenly and while on his way to the United States met with an accident in which he lost an eve. He was informed that he would be deported. Mosowvitch called his friends together, and a sum of money was made up and offered to one of the petty officers of the crew to land the man. GOOD AFTERNOON.

When the Secretary of Agriculture recturned to Washington from his western trip, he brought word of "bumper crops" and "unparalleled prosperity." It is most trying for the Wall Street calamity howlers to Lave a cabinet officer so oblivious to their calamitous predictions.

Lovers of nature should visit the Blue Hill reservation this month. The leaves have already commenced two turn, and in a few weeks they will have assumed their beautiful autumn tints. Starting in from Adams or Copeland street it is a poretty walk over the boulevard to the reservation. Then if an unsurmassed view is desired "The Crags" should be climbed. This is just grough enough to make it exhilerating. For a visit to Big Blue take electrics to Mattapan and then to the base of the hill.

There is need of a "national" edizion of the patriotic songs of this nastion, and it is proposed that the Grand Army of the Republic join Zaands with the National Educational Association and secure the publicagion of such work. At present our mational songs, such for instance, as "Star Spangled Banner," are issued in various forms, both as to words and music, in accordance with the theory or whim of each publisher, and the difficulties of training large charuses to sing these songs, with which every American citizens should Lie familiar, is seriously enhanced. No more fitting organization could unedertake this patriotic work than the Grand Army of the Republic, and it is to be hoped that the suggestion will bt seized upon with avidity.

The present prosjerity of the savings banks is regarded by the management of the Masachusetts Savings Insurance League as being particu-Larly auspicious for the inauguration of departments of industrial life inssurance which will be permitted on cor after November 1 of this year. The savings institutions are rapidly get-Fing back to paying four per cent edividends on deposits. Meantime it is generally understood that several Massachusetts savings banks stand prepared to take the step permitted by the legislation of last June and to open savings insurance departments These new trusts, it is argued, will wend still further to increase the popularity and usefulness of the depositories of the plain peoples' znoney. No date has been announced ras yet for the first meeting of the Trustees of the General Insurance Guaranty Fund, recently appointed by Governor Guild.

Houghs Neck Dogs In Quarantine

The State reports that the black sapaniel dog which bit the little girl at Houghs Neck, had the rabies. He is soupposed to have come from Somerville, as that was the address on the collar. I t is told that the rabid dog got down a post hole and could not get up. A sumwher resident from Boston mistook it f or her own dog and helped it from the mole, when it immediately bit her dog who had just arrived on the spot. Dr. Abele has been at Houghs Neck for two days guarantining bitten dogs.

Too many house-keepers make errors in buying furniture. They take too much stock in the yellow journal type of advertising used today by some of the largest and smallest stores. Marshall Field claimed his success in life was due to buying right, and he proved to the world that he knew what he was talking about. Just how much we have saved the public in their buying of furniture will never be known, but we stick to the same principles today that we did when we started in business 15 years ago. It is worthy of every thinking buyers consideration.

New Schoolhouse At Atlantic An Ornament To the City

When the Committee on Public Buildings of the City Council visited the new school building at Atlantic this afternoon they saw what is probably the best building in the city. It is a handsome building in every way school there next Tuesday will appreciate the building and its perfect arrangements.

The carpenters will complete their part of the contract tonight and all that remains is to complete the setting up of the furnishings. There has been some unavoidable delay in this work. The furnishings arrived on time, but the stormy weather this week prevented their being transported form the freight car to the building It will be a case of hustle to get them ready by Tuesday but the men at work promise that they will be.

Now the professor is past sixty, perhaps a little older than his present distinguished patient, Secretary Root, who is sixty-two and a half. Yet Muldoon still looks as pretty as the bloomy side of an Elberta peach, and he can punch the bag, box, wrestle, ride, walk or work to the limit of endurance for any one of his patients, even the youngest and strongest of them.

Genesis of Muldooning.

In his early manhood Muldoon was a cavalry officer. He served during the TUESDAY, September 10, 1907. civil war and in the regular army after the war. It is said that he conceived his theory of building up rundown humanity in the service on the plains, when gangs of recruits were sent to him to be made into troopers. Many of the men who enlisted in those days just after the war were sorry specimens of humanity. Most of the good ablebodied fellows had had too much of war. It was difficult to get recruits. But when a man was starving he was willing to enlist, and Muldoon got many of that sort. He put them through a regular course of training-in eating, sleeping and working. They made new soldiers. That gave Muldoon his idea, which he put into Those who go to Muldoon's place go

That night Mr. Patient excused himself shortly after supper and retired. He slept soundly until the professor rapped on his door next morning at 6.

Medicine Ball Drill.

Mr. Muldoon has invented one form of exercise which looks amusing to the outsider, but it is said to be the most efficacious of all. It is the medicine ball drill. The professor conceived the idea of making some balls ranging from six to thirty inches in diameter. The men at the farm divide into sides every morning and proceed to pass the medicine balls. Any system that trains the body and neglects the mind, according to Muldoon, is false to the first principles of physical culture. The ability to see, think and act at one and the same time is the secret of success in athletics as well as in life, says this master muldooner of men.

When Secretary Root went to Muldoon's some weeks ago he was in a condition which gave his friends much alarm. He had been working too hard. The secretaryship of state is no sinecure. Mr. Root was run down. For Do You Want a Nice Home? ing to Muldoon's, and his friends ad-

AN ASTONISHING ADMISSION

Head of Clay Goods Company Made Payments For Influence In Sales at City Hall--Mayor Says He Is Astonished at the Evidence

Boston, Sept. 7 .- In a dramatic scene at the hearing of the finance commission late yesterday afternoon, Attorney Sighrue forced C. N. Palmer, manager of the Eastern Clay Goods company, to admit that he paid onethird of his net profits for influence in sales at city hall. He admitted that one-third of the profits of the Brighton sales were paid to a man named Lane as a "rake-off."

When these admissions had been secured Sughrue thundered at the witness: "Then one-third of the net profits are in reality for Alderman Woods, don't you think so?"

"If you asked me my opinion I would say yes," Palmer, who was extremely nervous, answered. "I would not make that statement positively."

"As a matter of fact that is what you intend shall be done with it, is it not?" "I expect some or all of it will go to Mr. Woods, but I don't know it posi-

It marked the close of one of the most persistent cross-examinations that members of the finance commission had ever seen. Attorney Sughrue was determined to get an answer to his question. He secured the admission that when Woods, who had said that "Fitz took care of his friends and I was one of his friends," was elected to the board of aldermen he did not want his name connected with the concern.

The man who was hired to take his place was paid $25 a week and onethird the profit of the net sales, but he would not have received the profit if it were not for the influence of Woods, Palmer finally acknowledged.

Previous to the coming of Palmer on the witness stand, Superintendent of Streets Doyle had been compelled to admit that coal he bought had been reported bad, that he had taken no tests of it and made no effort to obtain rebates when he found it was of such quality that the engineers objected to

F. C. Dowd, a coal dealer, told 'the commission that it was a matter of common knowledge among wholesalers that the city was paying for a quality of coal they never received. A resume of the week's proceedings sel and inquisitor, Michael J. Sughrue. was presented to that body last night and the specific conclusion was: "The only possible result of this abandonment of honest competition has been shown by the evidence to be in difference, gross negfigence and fraud. In regard to the contracts for coal for the city placed by the superintendent of supplies Sughrue said: "The city was defrauded in the exact manner against which the mayor and superin tendent of supplies had been warned. and added: "The award of the con tract-by the superintendent of supplies and the approval by the mayor were not inadvertent acts, but were done de liberately, after a warning." He further claimed that the substitution of inferior coal "was due to or rendered possible by the indifference or connivance of the city officials."

A statement was issued last evening alleged coal graft in city departments. Fitzgerald says: "In common with our citizens gen erally I am astonished at the evidence apparently conclusive, of bare-faced frauds perpetrated by certain coal dealers upon the city. I confess my surprise at fearning that any coal dealer should have been bold enough to make out false bills of lading as a means of defrauding the city treasury."

The mayor declares that sufficient testimony has been brought out to warrant the institution of suits by the city to recover the over-payments which have been made for coal, falsely billed and inferior, and that he has instructed the law department to enter such suits as soon as possible.

The blame for the situation is due to the methods handed down from preceding administrations, which will at once be changed, states the mayor. He proposes in the future, he says, to adopt methods of testing the quality of coal in all the departments of the city. Defenders Win Sham Battle

Salisbury, Eng., Sept. 7 .- The army maneuvers, which began last Monday came to an end yesterday with victory for the defenders of the specified territory. The invaders were neither overwhelmed nor captured, but were compelled to flee hastily to their ships in an imaginary ocean and steam away to their own country.

Telegraphers' Union Sued Chicago, Sept. 7 .- The Postal Telegraph company has begun suit against the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America on the ground that the latter had contracted a debt for the transment had been made thereon.

A Little Wad of Common Sense.

A New Aid Fable.

This is not a George Ade fable, though it may sling some slang. It is a Home Aid fable.

Once there was a Geezer, who sat around and cut Kindling too small for Cook Stove purposes. He Whittled against Time and Flabbergasted against his Town. The town was No Good, he said-strictly on the Blink. Yes, it was N. G. Why, hadn't he lived Here since '84 and found that the Place was Punky? Sure. Mike!

Look at that town over in the next County. Grown like Jonah's Gourd. Must be a Jonah here. We've grown some, but I don't see that we're knocking any particularly Big Persimmons. That's the way this Gazaboo knocked his town. One day a Sarcastic Stranger floated into the Town that was Knocked from the burg that had Blossomed like Jonah's Gourd. He Heard some Flabbergasting and Dropped to the situation.

"Look here, you," he remarked to the citizen who was Handing Out the Knocks. "What do you do for this town? Are you doing your part to put this Burg on the Upgrade? What's that hefty Bunch of literature sticking out of your Clothes?"

"That's a Mail Order Catalogue from Chi-cago—a town that is a town," replied the Geezer.
"So I thought," said
the Impertinent Arrival. "Now let me hand you out a nice little Wad of common sense. For the past ten years you have been sending your money to the Chicago Mail Order houses instead of spending it among your home mer-chants. What would have happened to Chi-cago fifty years ago if all the First Settlers had shipped their Loose Coin to New York on catalogue inducements? Why, you'd have to use a sand dredger now to find the Original Site of Chicago. Now, in the Burg from which I have just Blown in we got over all this Burn Business years ago. We passed Resolutions that we would trade at home and help our own town to Spread out so that you could Sight it on the map without using Opera Glasses. But you and a Bunch of other folks in this town have wasted your Substance in Riotous Expenditures in Chicago by mail and let the sheriff hang out the 'Nothing Doing' sign in front of some of your own town's mercantile Emporiums. Look at our Town and then look at yours. What makes the Differ-

Whereupon the Whittling Gazaboo threw a few well chosen Thoughts into his mental makeup and went down to the village store to Annex a linen collar in place of the Paper Circles which he had bought from Chicago at Two Bits a Box.

Bessie Seeback also did a riding act and worked with Tony in the double trapeze, besides doing a musical act for the concert. If you meet three or four men all of whom happen to be studying engineering or law or medicine, the conversation is likely to smack so strongly of the lecture hall that a lavman can scarcely follow the drift of the talk. But with divinity students it is different. Very frequently I am brought into contact with small groups of young fellows who are preparing for the ministry, and I find that only on rare occasions do they bore outsiders by lugging in class room topics. This cannot mean that they are not interested in their profession or that they was one of the dame are ashamed to uphold their faith at all times; neither does it necessarily imply greater consideration for the uninitiated public. BOSTON AMUSEMENTS. TREMONT THEATRE.

The inauguration of advanced audeville by Klaw & Erlanger at the Fremont Theatre, Boston, on Labor Day, was certainly an event of the greatest importance in the theatrical world. The opening bill, comprising as it did, artists and acts from different sections of the world, was an excellent indication of the resource and taste of this leading firm of producers. Its reputation for many years is a guarantee of keeping fait. with patrons of the theatre, and the aim will be to constantly improve. A very popular scale of prices has been arranged, especially for the matinees and with fts superb entertainments its new seats, new carpets and everything else in exquisite order, the Tre mont Theatre should prove a delightful place to pass a few hours in sane recreation. Performances are at 2 street.

BOSTON THEATRE.

The very auspicious opening of the new Boston theatre stock company's season under the direction of Manager Lindsay Morison, has already given conclusive evidence of the admirable character of this organization, and the merit of its individual members. The wisdom shown by Manager Morison in leciding to make new favorites with the play going public, farther than to build his success upon reputations already gained apepars to be shown in the acting of "The Pit." Next week the new company will make a production of "The Christian," the great play which added so much to Hall Caine's reputation as a dramatic writer. It is announced that "The Christian" will be presented in a fashion never before attempted by a stock company house, all is its stage settings having been made in strict conformity with the designs for the original production.

THE ORPHEUM.

For the second week at the Orpheum another big bill of head liners is pro-QUINCY, vided, one that promises to be even more interesting than the bill with which this Boston link of 150 leading theatres bounded into instant popularity last week. Every act is a head liner, from "Motoring," the great English burlesque on the automobile craze, to Elizabeth Murray, the most pleasing of all woman story tellers and singers. Then, there is Tacianu, the female impersonator. who has just returned after a season of unprecedented success in Lon-

A special feature will be Bert Levy, Quincy, Mass. graph of New York, who draws pictures of familiar subjects in direct view of the audience, and by an apparatus of his own invention they are enlarged 800 times on a sheet on the

KEITH'S THEATRE.

The fall and winter season opened very auspiciously at Keith's last Monday with one of the best vaudeville bills ever seen in the theatre. Paul Conchas, "The Military Hercules," the greatest heavyweight jug-gler the stage has known, has returned to America this season under ontract to play the Keith circuit. Fred Walton and his company are o present the pantomimic classic, 'Cissy's Dream," one of the gems of vaudeville. Bessie Wynn is to return with some new songs.

"Stop, Look and Listen" is the title of the sketch to be played by May Tully and company. It is a very clever bit of dramatic work from the pen of Matthew White, Jr.

PARK THEATRE.

The Park theatre opened its season with an attraction that has created little less than a sensation. Mr. David Kessler, for years considered he greatest of Yiddish actors appeared for the first time in English. His success was phenomenal. One of the papers claimed that he had the irresistable force Salvine and the apealing fathers of Warfield. Another ntimated that he was the man to fill the place left vacant by Mansfield's death. All the rest, too, enthused over the actor, and spoke well of his play, "The Spell." Mr. Kessler's company is headed by Miss Ida Conquest well known to Boston theatre goers, and includes such famous players as Charles Dickson, Emily Rigl, Walter D. Greene, and George Staley

Finn Sentenced For Three Years For Depredations At Cemetery

John Ojalla, a Finn, aged 34 years, vas arrested late Saturday afternoo he had sold matches of that kind. on suspicion that he was the man who oppled over and damaged a large number of memorials at St. Mary's emetery the night before. He was ound at his boarding house at 17 Hillside street, and when arrested vas in bed. When the officers called the boarding mistress said that he was not at home, but they found fountain and found some matches. him there nevertheless.

When questioned as to his where bouts the night before he could no vas, or what he did. First he said said that he did not remember. Th what time he came home, and his roommate Edward Ojalla does no know what time he came home.

He talked incoherently to a Finn nterpreter at the police station, and about all that could be got out of him was that nine years ago some thing told him to do a similar job and that whenever he was thus told Quincy depot. At 2.45 Saturda a thing there was no way he could stop himself.

Ojalla is 5 feet, 8 inches tall. He weighs about 160 pounds and is a him up. Ojala acted queerly and powerful man. He was very nervous Saturday night and shook like a eaf. Evidently he is a bit insane. John Dinneen a fireman and Russel a man they saw Friday night hich tallies with the man under ar rest. The man they saw was near the boulevard entrance to the cemetery and was acting queerly. In the cemetery the police found two cigarettes such as Finn's smoke, a box of tricolored matches, such as are used in lieu of poker chips, and a bottle marked beef, iron and wine.

Articles of the same kind were purchased Friday night at a Copeland street drug store by a man answer ing Ojalla's description, and others saw a Finn of the same description coming from the direction of the cemetery. A white handled knife also found in the cemetery by Inspector McKay, was identified by Ojallas boarding boss as similar to one carried by him.

The cemetery was thronged with visitors all day Saturday and Sunday, many coming to see if their memorial had been disturbed. Some of these were moved to tear when they say the destruction that had been wrought. It did not seem as though any person in their right mind could have done such a thing, for the cemetery looked for all the world as though struck by a cyclone.

The work was evidently that of a strong man, for it must have required considerable strength to topple over some of the memorials. In some cases it had been necessary for the man to climb to the top of a monument to get at the cross or urn that surmounted it. There was no system to the work of destruction, showing that the person had only one thing in mind and that was to displace every monument possible and t was only when his strength was exhausted that he stopped.

Even some of the G. A. R. markers were destroyed, and a celtic cross that had been riveted to a post was torn up as though by the hand of a man of giant strength.

Had the work of destruction been done by a sane man, and that man had fallen into the hands of the angry and indignant lot owners, it would have fared hard with him. Ojalla was locked up on the charge of wilfully mutilating and ruining tombstones and monuments of the charge of many tombstones and monuments of the charge of naturalization of the charge of naturalization of the charge of many that he has been assessed a poll tax as a resident of the city on the first day of May and Wawenock of the Wollaston club are tied for first honors in Class S.

Street Railway Orders Before City Council

The first regular meeting of the City Council since the summer vacation will be held tonight. Four hearings on the acceptance of new streets have been advertised to be held, as well as a hearing on pole locations. Then there is a veto of Mayor Thompson on several orders passed last July granting common victual lers' licenses.

The most important matters, how ever, are the two street railway orders that are in the calendar. One of these grants approval of the street railway operating a trolley freight on Randolph avenue, and the other grants them a location for a of the Busy Bee, G. H. Midnight Alarms In South Quincy

Sunday morning was for a fire in the corner of Franklin and Water streets owned by J. B. Sutherland. The fire started from some unknown cause in a pile of rubbish in the rear of the buildings. When the department arrived the fire was working beneath the buildings, but was put out before it had worked into the buildings any. The smoke worked up through however, and did considerable damage to the stock in Cumming's bakery, Tinney's dry good store, Mulfords butter and egg store, and an Italian fruit store.

Depot Break At Montclair

The depot at Montclair was entered by burglars early Sunday evening. The break was discovered by the crew of the 10.16 train branch train, who reported the break to the officer on duty at the Atlantic station. Owing to the absence of the station agent Sunday night it could not be learned what was taken. This morning, however, it was learned that some small change was the only thing missing.

Mayor Comments on Disclosures In Coal Graft Probe

TESTS OF FUEL HEREAFTER

Evil Practices Extended Over Period of Twenty-Five Years--City's Coal Purchases to Be Safeguarded and Householders to Get Money's Worth

Boston, Sept. 9 .- In a communica tion sent to the finance commision Mayor Fitzgerald takes exception to statements made by Attorney Sugh rue, counsel for the commision, in summing up the results of the recent hearings at the closing sessions of the coal inquiry, and points out what he says are inaccuracies not borne out by the facts.

The mayor assures the commission however, that the city will surely profit by the disclosures made at the hear ings and explains plans for future tests, incidently giving the state quiet rap for not being up-to-date in all its departments in this respect.

Simultaneously with the forwarding of the letter to the finance commis sion, was one sent by the mayor to the heads of departments, calling their at tention to the evidence brought out at the hearings of the finance com mission, outlining the new plans for the testing of coal and instructing the chiefs to get in touch with city engineer Jackson, who will in the future have full supervision of all such

At a garden party on the ground of St. Margaret's church, Dorchester Mayor Fitzgerald spoke concerning the finance commission's coal purchase inquiry, saying in part:

"Some of the things that have comto the surface are not pleasant to read, but it is a condition and not a theory that confronts us. The dis closures that have come to the surface in the past five years, notably the in surance scandals, the rebates given by railroads to favored shippers, the Standard Oil disclosures, the beet packing plant scandals, the Bethlehen steam plant dealings, have shown the itmost necessity for eternal vigilence in order that the ordinary citizen may get his just rights.

"The coal dealers are now added to the category of business men who must be watched. In view of the disclosures which have come to light in the past half dozen years of the do ings of the so-called honorable busines men, I wonder what kind of a busines man's administration we would have son of Spokane, Wash., as their recent in Boston if the so-called busines men were given the opportunity of conducting the city's affairs? High school building at Syracuse, N. from the city in the coal dealings were Y., sent by Charles F. Harper show a men of supposedly high integrity in large and grand building three stories business circles. Their wealth mount high with a basement almost wholly ed to the millions and their standing in the business world was of the best yet the investigation has shown that they falsified bills of lading and acted with the city dishonestly every chance > they found. "It is regrettable that these pracices, which have admittedly extended over a period of more than 25 years in the city of Boston, have not been rem edied before the present time.

> "I am glad to say here that in the future the city of Boston will receive a dollar's worth of coal for every 100 ents spent in a coal transaction. It s the intention of the present administration to inaugurate a system in every department which will properly protect the city's interests.

"In this matter, as well as in oth rs, the city will lead the state, and think you will find that in a very few days the state and cities surrounding Boston, taking advantage of the knowledge disclosed before the finance comission, will follow the example of he city of Boton in instituting proper safeguards as regards purchases.

"It is my intention also to protect the individual householder in this city, and I am going to urge upon the next legislature the enactment of legis ation which will protect every house holder in the quality and quantity of coal purchased, as well as of all other articles entering into the living of the citizens of this city."

Plague at San Francisco

San Francisco, Sept. 9 .- One additional case of bubonic plague has been charted by the board of health, and four more suspected cases have been isolated and are under observation. The board has authorized the estimate of a temporary hospital camp at Ingleside. Thence the 750 inmates of the city and county hospital will be taken and the hospital buildings, old frame structures, will probably be burned. The board adopted a report of the lague situation prepared by Health Officer Watkins. It says:

"The first case of bubonic plague appeared on May 27 at the United States marine hospital in a Finnish sailor taken from the tug Wizard. Thereafter no cases appeared in the city until Aug. 12, when two cases were reported from the North Beach district. Immediately after the officials of all hospitals and dispensaries were warned to be on the lookout for similar cases, with the result that today, 18 authentic cases in all have been reported. Of these nine are still living in a fair way to recovery. "There exists today no doubt of the causes of the so-called bubonic plague, nor of the means by which it may be eradicated. Wherever international commerce exists and in proportion to the volume of that commerce, the rat and the diseases of the rat, one of which is plague, are bound to appear. There are said to be some five varieties of rat flea, of which two will bite men. The plague bacillus is transmitted by the flea of these two varieties to men. Other modes of infection exist, but are very much less fre

Soldiers Dispersed by Police Junction City, Kan., Sept. 9.-Fifty oldiers from Fort Riley came to Junction City early Sunday morning to release a comrade from the county jail. Many Buildings Are Crowded Including New One at Atlantic

All of the public schools of the city with the exception of the Coddington reopened their doors for the fall term, this morning. It is probable, however, that but little routine work will be done today, for it will take nearly the whole day to get settled. By tomorrow, however, regular work will be commenced in earnest.

The new building at Atlantic was pened but it was only by working late last night that the building wa made ready. People who saw the rooms Monday thought it would be mpossible to get it ready for opening The pupils assembled at the old building and one grade at a time was sent o the new building.

Although the building was de signed to accommodate 600 pupils it will be none too large, for fully that number of children are expected to eport before the week is out.

The buildings in the Lincoln and John Hancock districts are very crowded, as is also the Willard and Adams schools and it will be neces sary to do some shifting about to ccommodate all of the children.

At the Washington school at Quiney Point the situation is about as bad as any this year, and it may be necessary to send some of the children who should go to that building

The Coddington building is not ready and it is doubtful if it will be before the last of the month. Even then it will be necessary to send some of the children to the Cranch building, for there will be one less room than there was before the building was moved, and then it was crowded. There will be no crowding at the High school, for the new building will be plenty large enough to acommodate those who desire to attend. It is thought, however, before the end of the week nearly seven hundred pupils will be enrolled.

Just what the attendance at the everal buildings is, as well as what changes will have to be made, cannot be ascertained until this after noon when the masters report to Superintendent Parlin.

There will be some crowding at the Massachusetts Fields and Wollaston schools but not enough but what they can all be taken care of.

It is expected that the total enrollment of the day will not be far from

Second of Fleet Of Colliers For New England Gas Company

The steamer Malden, the second of fleet of three colliers built by the Fore River Shipbuilding Co. for the New England Gas and Coke Co., was uccessfully launched at the works of he company this noon. Unlike most of the launchings there was no public demonstration. The yards were closed to all but the officials of the New England Co., the officials of the Fore River Co., and a corps of newspaper reporters.

There is an unabated interest in launchings, however, and the shores of Weymouth Fore River were lined with interesting spectators, who watched the launch from a distance, and they were just as free with their cheers as though the launching stand about the bow of the vessel contained the usual gay throng.

Workmen commenced knocking out the blocks and shores shortly after 11 o'clock and the vessel was soon ready for her maiden plunge. All that now remained to hold the vessel from sliding down the greased ways was the two soul pieces. When all was ready President Bowles gave the signal to saw these through. China Is Sending Envoys to England and Germany

JAPAN ALSO TO BE VISITED

Constitutional Systems of the Countries Will Be Reported to Central Government, Which Begins to Give Evidence of Reform

missioners with instructions to separately visit Japan, Great Britain and Germany for the purpose of examining and reporting on the constitutiona systems of those countries.

The appointment of three imperial commissioners to study constitutiona systems abroad is a direct outcome of the labors of Yuan Shi Kai. This statesman recently and without re serve condemned as superficial and worthless the findings of the Manchu commissioners, Tuan Fang and Prince Tsaitze, after their tour of the world for purposes of investigation, which came to an end last November.

The appointments made yesterday of two Chinamen to visit the two most important constitutional monarchies of the world, and a Manchu, Tashou, to go to Japan, is a further concession to the Chinese race in this empire. Yuan Shi Kai, it will be noted, has thus embarked upon a most important step before the arrival in Pekin of his powerful conservative colleague, Chang Chi Tung. This official was expected here some days ago and his mysterious detention at Wu Chang long after the summons of the dowager empress reached him has been excused on the ground that he was turning over to his successor the administration of the most complex provincial government in China. For years past, Chang Chi Tung has been practically viceroy of the province, and he was regarded as an immovable fixture. The reception into the central government, and especially into the grand council, of two of the foremost vice roys, Yuan Shi Kai and Chang Chi Tung, is, up to the present time, the only evidence of any reform in the administration of the central author ity of China. The positions given the two viceroys are of unlimited power with responsibility to no one. But the aggressive reform decided upon yesterday, the appointment of the three im perial commissioners, tends to show that the grand council is to become something like the council of elder statesmen in Japan.

The foreign legation here regards the appointments of yesterday as a direct result of the bringing grand council of Yuan Shi Kai and Chang Chi Tung. They consider the measure as tentative only, but be lieve it will be confirmed by other drastic administrative and reform measures. The opinion is held also that the erratic interference of the throne, which has been part of the history of past years, will not be discontinued.

To be Propounded To Members of Quincy Citizens' Association

How far shall the Citizens' Association go into politics? This was the question which caused the most discussion at the meeting of the association on Tuesday evening, but it was not the only subject of interest. Consolidation with the Board of Trade was discussed at length, and there was a report relative to water meters which really drew out the large attendance. President Kincaide was in the chair.

N. G. Nickerson and A. L. Bake for the committee on metering apartment houses reported as follows o the association:

The Committee held one conference vith the Mayor, at which meeting the water tax on apartment houses was thoroughly discussed.

The result being-July 1st, the Mayor ordered the installation of meters in apartment houses at a ninimum rate of eighteen dollars ($18); thus doing away with an unjust water tax to owners of apartment houses.

engthy and explanatory one made the directors of the association inder date of June 29, which reads

The Special Committee appointed t the regular meeting of the Assocition, on May 14, to look into the question of water rates for two and three flat houses, and to the re-adustment thereof, beg leave to report, hat a conference was had with the were discussed as far as the limited ession of the Mayor permitted. The Mayor seemed inclined to believe from the facts presented by your committee, that there was reasonabl ground for complaint, particularly s to two and three-flat houses, and ne assured us that he would look nto the subject and give us an answer by July 1st, although no changes, if any, could be made until after the next commitment, July 1st. During the interview, two instances were particularly pointed out showing the unreasonableness of charges against flat houses for example, a three-flat house has to pay a minimum rate of $54.00, while the Hancock House in the centre of the City with its numerous lodgers and eight or nine stores, has one meter, for which it pays a minimum rate of $50.00 a year. It was also pointed out that there are boarding Advertising by us is Reliable Advertising houses in the Point District, because ney are of the one family type, are harged a minimum rate of $18.00 and there is absolutely no question but that more water is used in one of these houses than would be consumed in the ordinary two or three flat house. The Mayor still feels that because the water plant is not self supporting, that no changes should be made until the income can ake care of the expenses, but in view of the past showing, this time seems ery remote, and we feel that the > now existing, may well be remedied without any diminution of income. The question of the cost of installing water meters was touched or lightly, the Commissioner of Public Works not being present, but the Mayor informed us that installing meters in some of the granite plants was very expensive, some times running up to $10.00 or $12.00, but the Nice Yellow Sweet Potatoes, 7 lbs. 25c cost of installing the ordinary house meter was $2.50. In view of the assurance that the Mayor gave us that Dried Beef, glass jars, he would investigate and report what changes could be made, if any, your committee feel that they should take no further action at present, but would suggest that unless some proper re-adjustment is made in the immediate future, that the matter should be brought before the City Council, and steps taken to obtain he desired results.

The membership of the association was reported at 140, and the sum in the treasury, $435.32.

Decevare King brought up the question of uniting the Citizens' Association and the Board of Trade. Both were in good standing and prospering, but the natural and proper thing to do seemed to be to unite, and become more of a power. Mr. King favored a permanent secretary at a salary of $1,000, and thought the two associations united could well afford to pay that sum. Further at least ten subscriptions of $25 each could easily be secured to place the consolidated association on a good financial basis, and he already had some pledges. He moved a committee of seven for a conference with the directors of the Board of Trade.

Ex-City Solicitor Blackmur thought it the healthiest funeral he had ever attended, in view of the large membership and large sum in the treas ary. The Citizens' Association had accomplished much and there is need of it. We have also enthused the Board of Trade. Saw no reason for consolidation. was lost by vote of 12 to 23. President Kincaide thought words of commendation due H. M. Faxon for improvements of approaches to Quincy depot. The city should now give attention to the deplorable fence between City Hall and the Hancoca cemetery.

W. T. Babcock favored resolutions endorsing the good work of Mrs. N V. Titus in securing an appropriation for the Constitution, but his letter was laid on the table.

CITY AFFAIRS.

F. B. Rice said it was the shortcomings of the city government and City Council that accounted for the growth of this association. The city's development is to be great in the next few years, and comprehensive plans should be outlined relative to public service franchises, street widening and other improvements. As now constituted the City Council never will undertake it.

President Kincaide said this association wanted enthusiasm and cooperation. All members should express their views.

R. D. Chase thought that in the while E. H. Angier and Fred B. Rice Citizens' Association there was a suggestion and a hope. It was more than commercial. Certain things in of the Citizens' Association by their the city were not going right and monthly meetings had given much ought to be remedied. Ex-Mayor R. A. Sears moved that the following question be submitte to the members of the association:

"Are you in favor of the Citizens' Association interesting itself in the government of this city by recommendation of suitable municipal officers or otherwise?"

E. H. Angier also submitted the Wollaston 45 38 40 45 52 49 35 42 ollowing question:

"Are you in favor of the Citizens' Association putting a complete independent ticket in the field at the coming city election if the exigencies of the case require it?

These questions precipitated considerable discussion in which P. R. Blackmur, H. F. McIntyre, W. S. Pinkham, Dr. Welch, E. W. Sheppard and Messrs. Sears and Angier took part. Both were finally adopted.

BULLETIN.

H. G. Smith, F. B. Rice and others favored a monthly bulletin, and it was referred to the directors and Frank F. Prescott as a committee. Mr. Prescott suggested as an alternative that the Citizens' Association have a department in the Daily Ledger of one, two or three columns to contain letters written by members of the association over their signatures, which would be published without pay. In these letters city affairs could be discussed.

Weekly meetings were favored until after the City election, and it was voted to adjourn until Tuesday even-

Between 500 and 600 Children Begin Their School Life

When the returns of the first day f school were in Tuesday night, it was found that on that day the total attendance at the public schools of the city was 5124. This does not include the Coddington school, which did not open, nor the Woodward which is not a public school.

In addition to this there are over one hundred Jewish children who did not attend the opening day on account of New Year celebration. They, however, will come in this week, and with the opening of the Coddington the enrollment will be over 6000. The total number of new pupils without the Coddington was

The enrollment at the High school vas 724, but as the building will accommodate 1000 there is no crowdng. The new class numbers 288.

In the grades below the High it has been found necessary to transfer pupils from one building to another, for some of the rooms are very crowded. For instance at the new Quincy at Atlantic there were 69 in the seventh grade to be looked after in a room seating 50.

The Washington school at Quincy Point is crowded, as is the Cranch by eason of transfers to that building from other schools.

As pupils have all the present week o enter the complete enrollment will not be known until next week. The number by rooms in each building follows:

Wedding of Interest To Odd Fellows

A wedding of interest was solemsized at, the residence of Rev. E. N. Hardy, Foster street, Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Jennie L. Crowell, a well known young lady of West Quincy, and Mr. James Moorhead, Jr., a well known clerk of the Granite Shoe store were united in marriage. They were attended by Mrs. Lottle Barron, sister of the bride and Geo. Moorhead, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's sister on Orchard place, only the two families being present. The happy couple, after being driven through several of the principal streets, (much against their wishes) n a hack decorated with flags, pans, pells and rags with a sign attached o the back, in large black letters, 'Moorhead just married,-left the Quincy station for Boston amid a shower of rice and confetti, at 5 P. M. They will enjoy their honey-noon in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead are prominent in Odd Fellows circles, the groom being Noble grand of Mt. Wollaston lodge last term and an officer in Manet encampment, and the oride an officer of George L. Gill Rebekah lodge

Drew---Miller

Among the earliest of the weddings that September is famed for, was that of Mr. Hawthorne Drew and Miss Grace Miller, which took place at the Wollaston Baptist church last Saturday evening, Sept. 7. Mr. Drew is a son of Dr. Drew of Lowell, and the bride is the daughter of our well-known citizen, Mr. John L. Miller of Franklin street, South Quincy.

Precisely at 6 oclock the bride, eaning upon the arm of her eldest brother, Mr. Henry Miller, and attended by her life-long friend, Miss Nellie Spargo, as bridesmaid, advanced to the altar, where the groom attended by Mr. Byron Miller already awaited her. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edmund D. Webber, the pastor of the church, and was followed by a reception held in the chapel adjoining.

The bride's three brothers Messrs. Henry, Tupper and George Miller acted as ushers. Between seventy and eighty guests from Quincy, Braintree, Lowell and Boston were present to offer their congratulations to the young couple.

Simple but effective floral decorations beautified both church and chapel, and the appropriate organ music, so admirably rendered by Mrs. Alma Faunce Smith, completed the setting for the occasion. Caterer 465 472 478 469 Strachan of Allston furnished choice refreshments. The newly married couple will make their home in Boston where Mr. Drew is engaged in business.

Quincy Daily Ledger. RELATIVE OF MAYOR

Said to Have Got $140,000 Worth of Coal Contracts

FOUND BY BOSTON PROBERS

One Contract Alleged to Have Been Made Without Competition, on the Authority of Mayor Fitzgerald Himself--Fresh Sensation Expected

Boston, Sept. 11.-A new sensation was added to the startling revelations made by the investigation of the finance commission, when the fact became public that since Mayor Fitzgerald took office, 20 months ago, Daniel Doherty, a cousin by marriage, has sold coal to the city aggregating a value of about $140,000

When this news reached the city hall its effect was noticeable in the buzz of undertone conversation of little coteries of men in the corridors. The contracts given to Doherty have been directly traced to the orders of the mayor, it is claimed. They were awarded for the most part without competition. The mayor then ap-

BOOST IN PRICE OF MILK

Consumers In Greater Boston May have to Pay Ten Cents a Quart Boston, Sept. 11.—That the retai price of milk in Boston and vicinity will be 9 cents a quart at least, and possibly 10 cents, was the apparent conviction of a delegation of farmers and contractors who held a preliminary onference in Boston for a discussio of the milk situation.

It was announced that the farmers had demanded a higher price from the contractors, having voted to demand 40 cents a can for milk, for which 28 eents is now paid. The higher prices paid for grain, the drought which had killed off cattle and the higher prices charged by retailers for milk, were the arguments presented by the farmers for the raise of 12 cents a can de-

The contractors were inclined to resent any attempt to jump the retail price of milk from 8 cents to 10 cents and desired to compromise with the farmers and pay 34 cents a can for milk and make the retail price 9 cents a quart. It was contended that at 40 cents a can it would be necessary to charge 10 cents a quart and 6 cents a pint for milk and it was believed the falling off in milk consumption would make such a raise undesirable.

It was represented, however, that the farmers were firm in their demands and that if the 12 cents raise was not granted many of the farmers would go out of business. The meeting was adjourned to Thursday, when the prices will be formally taken up and determined for the coming season.

BOND IS STIRRED UP

New Fishery Agreement a "Disgrace to British Diplomacy"

MADE PROTEST AT LONDON

Otherwise an "Infinitely Worse Compact" Would Have Been Made With America-Will Continue to Strongly Resist the New Modus Vivendi

St. Johns, Sept. 11.-In in statement published in the form of an interview here, Sir Robert Bond, premier of Newfoundland, declared that the modus vivendi recently agreed ipon by the British and American governments is "a disgrace to British diplomacy and a shameful sacrifice of the interests of the people of the colony." The new agreement, which is to be in force for one year, pending the settlement of the whole fisheries question by The Hague tribunal, is virtually identical with that of last rear, according to the premier.

Sir Robert asserts that only his strong protest during the London negotiations, after the conference of colonial premiers in that city, prevented the British cabinet from concluding an infinitely worse compact with America. Had this agreement been carried through, Bond says that t would have contained a clause un dertaking to prevent the serving of legal processes by the Newfoundland authorities upon British subjects or board American vessels in the terri torial waters of the colony. Under the colonial laws a Newfoundland fisherman is liable to prosecution for being employed on an American ves sel without first obtaining a license from the government.

The premier expresses the hope that his correspondence with the im perial cabinet on this subject will be produced in the British parliament He says that his ministry unwaveringly protested against the modus vivendi hroughout the negotiations. He avers that he first suggested the referring of all disputes arising over the treaty of 1818 to The Hague tribunal.

When the British and American cabinets agreed to so refer the case Bond offered, if the terms of reference were promptly settled, to allow colonial fishermen to sell herring to Americans in treaty waters as heretofore. The Americans refused to accept this arrangement, prefering the greater privileges conveyed by the modus vivendi. The modus allows American captains to hire Newfoundland fishermen on board the

In conclusion Bond states that the colonial government will continue to esist the modus vivendi by ever constitutional means and will uphold the sovereignity of the laws. He says that the imperial cabinet has admitted that it must be clearly under stood that the modus confers no im munity on Newfoundland fishermen or protects them in disobeying the colonial laws.

Oil Company Gets Big Contract Washington, Sept. 11.-The navy department has concluded the award of contracts for supplying oil for the navy for the next year by giving the contract under classes 42, 43 and 44all lubricating oils—to the Vacuum Oil company of New York, the effect of which is to bestow upon that company the business of furnishing all the dynamo and lubricating oils required by the navy.

Activity of Aleutian Volcano Seattle, Sept. 11.-Advices from an officer of the revenue cutter Rush, lying at Dutch Harbor, says that on Sept. 1 and 2, a volcano in the Aleutian islands erupted, sending tons of ashes and cinders over a score or more of native villages. A hurricane accompanied the phenomenon and wild fowl of all kinds were driven far to sea. No lives were reported lost.

ATTACK UPON SIKHS

Washington Hears Nothing Of ficial About Bellingham Trouble

ENGLAND MUST BE MODERATE

Will Be Hard Pushed to Find Suitable Language In Which to Frame Protest--Vancouver Riots Regarded as of the Gravest Significance

Washington, Sept. 11.-Not a word has been heard from any official source at the state department relative to the reported attack upon the Sikhs at Bellingham, Wash., last

It is believed that the British gov ernment, through its consular agent at Seattle, is making an investigation of the affair. It is surmised here that in this case the British government will find it politic to move very cautiously in making representations to America, because those representations might readily be adopted by the Japanese government as the basis for similar demands upon the British government in connection with the attack upon Japanese in Vancouver.

It is pointed out that the British government may be disposed to extreme moderation in the Bellingham case by reason of its knowledge of the general animosity felt toward East Indian coolies by Anglo-Saxons in every part of the world where the two classes come in contact. In all South Africa, according to officials here, only Natal affords anything like fair treatment to the East Indian, and the other states of the confederation have practically driven them out of the country. In Australia also, the same treatment is meted out to the undesirable East Indian, the British government itself having fallen into a tacit recognition of the impossibility of forcing these coolies into competition with white labor in its own colonies. According to the view here Great Britain would probably be very much embarrassed in finding suitable language in which to frame a protest to America.

It is impossible to obtain any expression from the state department regarding the sensational riots against the Japanese and other Orientals in British Columbia, but here, where the effect of smaller riots of a similar character in San Francisco occupied diplomatic attention for nearly a year, the news is regarded as of the gravest sig-

An amusing feature is that it was the British press and British public opinion that held up its hands in mock horror the outrage in San Fr. did everything possible to make the work of President Roosevelt difficult in bringing the Japanese and the authorities of the Pacific metropolis to an understanding. British influence was at work to strengthen the hands of "our ally," which is the term applied by all Englishmen to Japan, and to thrust apart American and Japanese friendship in order that Great Britain

It is recalled here that the London Times sent a correspondent clear across the continent to write up the situation in California and dwell on the grave possibilities of war, and all the London papers took the side of Japan and decried the United States government for not overaweing the Californians with AFTERNOONS. the army and navy.

Now, it is pointed out, Great Britain has a situation of the same sort on her hands, only the injury to the Japanese is much greater and the defiance to claims for damages and suggestions of indemnity are much more emphatic.

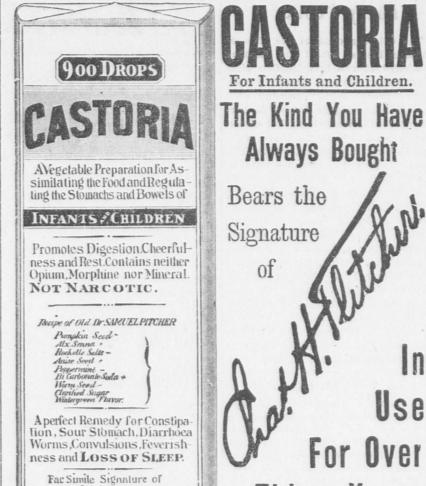

Placing Blame Upon Americans London, Sept. 11.-The Times this morning, in an editorial article, says it is convinced that there is now full and ample confirmation of the belief that the anti-Oriental riots at Vancouver were actually organized by American labor agitators, "the men whose intrigues brought San Francisco under the domination of Ruef and Schmitz."

Continuing, the paper says it believes "this shameful riot upon British soil was gotten up by officials of American labor organizations for the purpose of conveying to Mr. Ishii, the distin guished member of the commercial department of the Japanese foreign office who is now at Vancouver, the feelings of the labor element of the Pacific

ENGLAND'S MILITARY AIRSHIP

frial Trip Shows but One Defect Which Can Be Easily Remedied Farnborough, Eng., Sept. 11 .- The first military dirigible balloon built in this country made two trial trips yesterday and, with the exception of a slight hitch caused by the breaking of a belt in the machinery that drove the cooling fan, the airship appears to have answered all the expectations of its designers. The recent successes of French and

German army airships have awakened a very great degree of interest in England on the subject of aerostatics. Reports of the trials leaked out and the military authorities, who have steadily been trying to mystify the public, found themselves obliged to carry out the trials in the presence of several hundred people. The English airship proved capable of being easily handled, able to travel with and against the wind, and most important of all, capable of being steered. After making a semicircle of about two miles around Farnborough and Cove Common, an accident occurred to the engines and in spite of the throwing out by the aeronauts of ballast, of which the airship carried 800 pounds, the balloon settled down near some trees.

At the second trial the machinery worked with perfect smoothness. Various evolutions were performed and the ship completed a three mile circle at an altitude of about half a mile. She then descended not far from her shed.

This new airship is a sausage-shaped balloon about 100 feet long by 30 feet in diameter. It has a lifting capacity of about one ton. The car is shaped like a boat and built of aluminum and canvass. The petroleum for the motors is carried in two tor pedo-shaped cylinders above the car The engines are so constructed that the exhaust vapor is turned into gas and carried up into the balloon above by means of a tube.

Citizens Miss Chinese Domestics Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 11.-Everything is quiet in and about the Orien tal quarter and there has been no further attempt to renew the anti-Asiatic rioting. No Japanese have re turned to the lumber mills, which are closed down. The strike of the Chinese cooks bids fair to last longer. Restaurants are closed and hotels, clubs and private families are without cooks. Vancouver citizens are receiving an object lesson in their dependence on Chinese domestics.

Peace Congress Thanks Roosevelt Munich, Sept. 11.-The 16th universal peace congress, which was inaugurated here in the presence of 250 delegates from all the nations of the world, sent a cablegram to President Roosevelt, thanking him for his initiative in calling the second Hague conference. The results obtained at The Hague were discussed and all the speakers agreed that substantial progress had been made.

Taylor Will Take No Chances Indianapolis, Sept. 11.-Former Governor Taylor has been informed that Circuit Judge Stout at Frankfort has entered an order suspending the warrant for his arrest and promising immunity from arrest if he will return to Kentucky. He is inclined to be skeptical. He said: "The suspension of the warrant could be revoked at any time. It would afford no real immunity."

A car which was descending a steep grade Real Estate, got beyond the control of the motorman and, jumping the tracks at a sharp curve, turned turtle, crushing John D. Owens to death and seriously injuring five others.

$10,000 Stake Goes to Highball Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 11.- At the grand circuit races at the state fair the feature was the Empire State stake, worth $10,000, which was won in commanding style by Ed Geers with Highball. Sonoma Girl was in the race, but she seemed "soft" and leg weary after her recent rest.

Father and Son Murdered Pittsburg, Sept. 11.-Two Italians,

John Rizzo and his son, were murdered last night at McKeesport, following a quarrel over a recent Black Hand murder. The Italian section of McKeesport is greatly wrought up over the murders and extra police were summoned Quincy, Mass. to prevent a riot.

Talk on Hawaii.

There was a good attendance of members and their ladies at the Squantum yacht club house Tuesday evening in spite of the rather inclement weather. The cause of the gathering was a special entertainment given by the Quincy Point. Telephone connection. house committee. The program of the evening took the form of a talk on the Hawaiian Islands, Samoa and New Zeeland by William H. Bain. Mr. Bain has travelled extensively in these countries, and his talk was an extremely interesting one. He told of the characteristics of the inhabitants and their customs. His talk was iliustrated with many beautiful views shown with a powerful stereopticon, and for the moment his hearers could almost imagine that they were with the speaker in his travels.

AN IMPORTANT ISSUE

England Awakes to Importance of the Asiatic Outlook

APPREHENSION IS SERIOUS

Sudden Rise of Japanese to Position of First Rate Power Reveals a Grave Problem -- How Newspap, rs View the Vancouver Riots

London, Sept. 10.-If the long and, in the main, highly serious comment by most of the morning papers on the Vancouver incident and the news space devoted to it may be taken as a criterion, the British public have at last awakened to the importance of the Asiatic question and the fact that it is one of the greatest issues confronting their most important colonies.

It is true that efforts are made to picture the industry, patience and other good qualities of the Japanese, and to make much of the fact that such incidents of racial prejudice are rare under the British flag; that they have never before occurred in British Columbia, and that the trouble will be settled amicably on just lines. Some papers also endeavor to attribute it to the influence of the San Francisco labor union. The apprenension with which the rioting is regarded, however, will not down and makes itself manifest without the trouble of reading between the lines. For instance, the Telegraph, in a ponderous, loose-jointed editorial, unnecessarily recalls and emphasizes the disgrace of the riot at San Francisco and Bellingham, but admits that "the inflamed passions on both sides of the Canadian American border spring

Attention is called to the determination of the San Franciscoan and British Columbian, the Australian, Cape Colonist and resident citizens of the Transvaal, to restrict Asiatic emigration, the paper significantly add-

LAWSON LIBELLED.

Seven-masted schooner T. W. Lawson, built by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company and the only fore-and-after of its kind in the world, has been libelled in the sum of $269,000 by the Sun Oil Company, and is now tied up at New York awaiting the outcome. The Lawson was chartered by the Sun Company in May of last year to carry oil from Texas and Northern ports, and although removed from local coastwise trade during the intervening months, the schooner still retains considerable local interest.

Last month the chartering company ordered the schooner South from New York for a fresh cargo of oil and the captain declined to go until an additional steel structure and an expensive chamber had been installed, on the ground that they were essential to safety. The outcome of the captain's refusal to go is the present

The Texas Coast Country.

In its annual trade edition of Sept. 1. The Galveston News has made a special feature of the Texas coast country showing the wonderful resources of that section and the many advantages offered both to the capitalist and homeseeker. Many of the industries in the Texas coast country are elaborately discussed. Among them are articles on lumber, cotton, rice, sugar cane and truck. The tonnage of poultry handled by one railroad alone amounted to 1,250,000 pounds, while four railroads hauled over 2,782 cars of truck. In fifty-five ommunities in coast country there were reported 87,145 bearing fig trees with additional plantings last spring of 70,270 trees, 640,950 bearing peach rees, with 160,285 trees planted last spring, 17,695 acres in cane and 8,042 acres in onions. From the coast country counties covered in The News' edition there were shipped luring the year over 38,000 hogs and 97,405 turkeys. The cotton yield in the coast country amounted to 1.311. 396 bales, against 879,975 the year ear previous—an increase of 50 per cent. The yield of rice was 8,428,536 oushels, against 6,649,190 bushels for the year before.

The intercoastal canal, the project now under way connecting the inland waters of the coast county of Texas and Louisiana with the rivers in this ection, is treated fully in the edition. The enormous output of the coast country of Texas as shown by the edition proves the great necessity of nastening the completion of the canal.

Galveston ranks second among the ports of the United States in the value of foreign exports. The total alue of foreign exports for the past $150. fiscal year was $237,894,721, compared with a value of $166,239,884 for the preceding year. Observer Comments On Financial Condition Of the City

Editors of the Ledger:

Despite the Mayor's preachment of conomy and his caution to retrenchment it does not seem from our $1.10 increase in tax rate that any step has been made toward the desired end. It seems to be the same old story: preaching economy in the inaugural address and immediately reversing the preaching in practice. But as this year we reach the limit of indebtedness and with an extremely high tax rate, it might not be out of place to call attention to the city's financial condition as it is disclosed o one not having any other interest to serve except that he would like to see some effort made to redeem the city from its present mismanagement. Herewith is a financial statement of the city for 1907.

Cash on hand Jan. 1, 1907, Estimated receipts of City except 1907 taxes, 1906 taxes uncollected 1905 taxes uncollected, Notes payable,

From this statement and analysis t will be seen that an $18 rate would carry the city to end of 1907, and still have a small balance in right side. This statement and view of the city inances is probably a little more ambitious, and aims to do with the resources at hand much more than will be attempted by our present government to start 1908 with no open ac-

In the matter of temporary loans or instance, with our $500,000 lialesirable thing to wipe it out enirely, thus starting the new year irely, thus starting the new year without this dead weight and its large interest charge—this year $15,-000 being appropriated for this purpose. The aim and intention of the privilege of temporary loans has been much perverted in the last few years in Quincy-the aim of the statute is simply to give means of revenue until bonafide receipts are available and such loans are supposed to be paid back within a year- and this means of getting money has been used to cover all kinds of short comings and mismanagement. Thus at the outset of this year $283,000 was borrowed for this purpose and we were still owing $217,000 on the 1906 loan. The interest charges on the total city debt are large enough-$3.23 on your tax bill this year-and this means to fill a temporary void in the city exchequer should not be by subterfuge used to cover failure to meet calls for which sufficient means have een provided.

Quincy has come to the parting of the ways; if we continue in our present path the inevitable result will be excessive taxation with the inevitable depreciation of property values and then-stagnation. If more enlightened management can get control of affairs it may be possible to reclaim some of the lost ground, a little saving here and there where the appearances at this time indicate that we are not getting even a passing equivalent for the money spent, and little more liberality and justice where it seems to be painfully lacking-increased compensation to the hardest worked and poorest paid employees of the city, the teachers in the public schools.

In closing it may not be deemed impertinent to suggest that the financial officers of the city arrange some plan whereby their respective statements may have some semblance of agreement. In the July report the auditor spent on the 1906 account some six thousand dollars more than the treasurer and even the 1907 expenditures do not all tally.

Just another point because it leads us to a practice that in quite prevalent. By the original intent of the charter the City Solicitor was expected to attend to all the ordinary legal affairs of the city, and this service was for whatever compensation the authorities should allot. In the past year, however, the city aided some of our barristers in a pecuniary way, and while an outsider has no means of knowing just what these gentlemen did in the way of service, it is not clear on the other hand that the Solicitor could not do the work and save the city this apparently needless expense. It is these small—they may be thought trivialapses that make the formidable aggregate that gets into your tax billsome years to the extent of a $1.19

A Luncheon.

Miss Margaret Barnes of Wollaston gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Helen Sayward's engagement. Covers were laid for eight. The table was elaborately decorated with hearts. The guest 894,479.53 of honor was charmingly attired in white. She received the homage extended her by her young companions very gracefully. After a game of hearts 411,000.00 and other attractive amusements Miss Sayward was presented with a beautiful bouquet of asters. The occasion was a most enjoyable affair.

Put Up by White With Bid For $40,000.000 New York Bonds

Original "Postage Stamp Bidder" Therefore Lost Bonds Awarded to Him--How He Was Awarded $1, 500,000 United States Bonds on Outlay of Forty-Seven Cents

New York, Sept. 12.—Abraham White, the original "Postage Stamp Bidder." failed to get any of the New York City bonds just sold, although he bid for the entire $40,000,000 offered for the $800,000 required by law to accompany the bid.

Between $15,000,000 and $18,000,000 in bonds were at first awarded to the Abraham White Bond company, but when Comptroller Metz presented the draft for payment yesterday afternoon the money was not forthcoming and the bid thrown out. The draft was drawn by the Abraham White Bond company on the Greater New York Security company and was accepted by that institution. White is president of both institutions.

White first sprang into prominence when he was awarded United States bonds valued at $1,500,000 when John G. Carlisle was secretary of the treas ury. The law did not require a deposit with the bids, and when the bonds were awarded him, White interested Russell Sage in the deal and from him secured the money to make the required payments. His only outlay was 47 cents in postage stamps in sending his bid to the treasury department, and he is said to have made $100,000 on the

VERY UNCOMPLIMENTARY

Expert's Report on Hub's Street Cleaning and Watering Departments Boston, Sept. 12 .- A report upon the street cleaning and watering departments of the city of Boston by Richard T. Fox, an expert brought here to make an investigation by a committee of citizens, was issued last night and covers many pages of details upon the conduct and efficiency of these departments.

The report finds in general that the general methods of management are quite inadequate to insure thorough and economical service to the public. Discipline is lax in the exareme and supervision poor, loafing and general killing of time are prevalent to a remarkable degree, amounting in many cases to one quarter of the time. Operation methods are wasteful, both in labor and executive services. Civil service regulations are circumveinted. One-fourth the money expended to push cart patrol labor is wasted. IMPROVED METHODS

To Be Used In Bay State In Dealing With Inebriates

AN OVERTURN AT FOXBORO

Governor Makes Reorganization by Accepting Resignation of Old Trus-Result of Probe by Council

Boston, Sept. 12.-A complete over turn in the management of the Foxbore state hospital for inebriates was announced by Governor Guild after a meeting of the executive council. Every member of the former board of trustees has resigned and a new board of seven is named, with Robert A Woods of Boston as chairman.

The governor's reason for making the change are stated in the following letter, which was sent to each member of the old board of trustees after the council meeting.

"My Dear --: I am gratified that your board appreciates the necessity of a complete reorganization of the Fox boro hospital.

"Your letter of resignation is hand. I accept the resignation in the spirit in which it is offered and be to thank you most heartily. The hos pital at Foxboro is and has been an experiment that Massachusetts is, a a pioneer in reform, trying out for the benefit of the entire country. It has not yet succeeded, but I, for one, an not willing to admit that Massachusetts cannot succeed in attacking drunkenness as a disease.

"There is not a member of the board of trustees who has not devotedly and generously given their services to the commonwealth, whose unselfishness and honesty of purpose can be fairly questioned. The board, however, as a matter of fact, contains no professional sociologist, no authority on penalogy, no trained attorney.

"Furthermore, new legislation is necessary under which the Foxboro hospital shall no longer be an isolated institution to which any intemperate person, from the casual tramp to the hopeless sot, may be sent as any one of some seventy odd separate courts may in their individual discretion de-

"Drunkenness must be treated under ew legislation which must be recomnended to the next general court according to a logical, graded and conerent system in which age and number of convictions must be given consideration. The present haphazard system of commitment is unscientific and inhumane. The various state institutions, including Foxboro, should first be rearranged in progressive order. The offender should either be released, placed on probation or committed to one of these, according to his condition. Uniform and clearly defined classification must take the place of the mere dumping of victims of strong drink into this or that institution in the absence of any limitation on the varying opinions of the different authorities controlling commitment. "As the first step towards this organization of the treatment of drunkenness, with the object of its prevention and cure, rather than its punishment alone, I have asked one of our most successful social reformers to be the head of a new board of trustees. Naturally he must be given a free hand if he is to succeed at Foxboro. "I thank you that you have frankly and generously placed the future of the institution above any mere question of personal satisfaction and have made it possible for me to give him not merely worthy helpers, for you yourself should be so classed, but the particular kind of helpers he wishes and needs.'

This overturn is the direct result of conditions revealed last winter and spring when a committee of the governor's council probed the affairs of the Foxboro state hospital.

This investigation was instituted because of complaints about abusive treatment of the inmates. As shown in the majority report, the gravest charges were not proved, but the system followed at the hospital was shown to be unscientific and ineffective, and that as a treatment for inebriety it was a failure.

It was found that the institution was a house of restraint rather than a hospital. Robert A. Woods, who has been selected to head the new board, took no part in the investigation proper, but at the close of the probe he was among those who were called before the committee as experts to give their opinions on the general subject of treating dipsomaniacs and inebriates. Increase For Mineworkers

Mahanoy, Pa., Sept. 12.—Umpire Neill of the anthracite strike award commission has announced the average price of coal at tide-water during August as $4.67. Washington Officials Think They Are Not In Good Taste

AMERICA WAS VERY LENIENT

Surrendered Extreme Points Claimed by It For Sake of Peace--Bond Claimed Honor For Arbitration Which Belonged to Root

Washington, Sept. 12.—Being under the impression that Sir Robert Bond had secured about everything of importance that he wished included in the modus vivendi relative to the Newfoundland fisheries, the state department officials here were considerably surprised to read the bitter denunciation that the premier has heaped upon the imperial government concluding the arrangement which was concluding the arrangement which was tions.

They were disposed to draw a parallel between the attitude of the New. lel between the attitude of the Newfoundlanders and the Californians in this matter, each, according to the view of the Washington government, showing a lack of appreciation of the impropriety of attacking treaty rights by local legislation.

The statement is made that, with the single exception of asserting the right of American vessels to ship Newfoundlanders as fishermen the American government has for the sake of peace surrendered all of the extreme points claimed by it. And sake of peace surrendered all of the this right of shipping fishermen is to be exercised in a manner least likely to offend Newfoundland pride, for the men are to be taken aboard well off shore, and not within the territorial waters of the colony, although the Americans have always insisted that they had the right under treaty to take the men off the docks if they care to ship there.

The further discussion of the subject is regarded by officials here as purely academic, as the modus is now a completed instrument. If the Newfoundland premier carries out his announced purpose of executing the colonial laws, even where they conflict with the American treaty rights, it will be the duty of the British government to deal with the case, and not the concern of the state department.

Praise Due Root, Not Bond

London, Sept. 12.-While the London papers are devoting considerable space to the Newfoundland question not one of them gives credit to the United States for purposing to sumbit The Newfoundland premier, Sir Robret Bond, is quoted in interviews published here as claiming credit for the proposal. The fact is that Secre tary Root, through Ambassador Reid, first offered this solution of the difficulty in a letter to the foreign office three months ago, and it took considerabel urging to get Bond to agree to it. Nevertheless, in the mind of the British public the impression prevails that Bond and the British government the Newfoundland dispute to The Do You Want a Nice Home?

The last report from the Lusitania shows that the 24 hours ending at noon yesterday, the run of the ship was 570 knots, an Everage of 23 3-4 knots an hour.

No Interminging of Races Washington, Sept. 12.- The national Baptist (negro) convention opened here with a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the country. Rev. Dr. L. C. Morris, president of the convention, said that despite a few agitators, who would advocate social intermingling, all intelligent, thoughtful negroes are unalterably opposed to any such doctrine, and are rather for the absolute separation of the races on social lines.

Mr. Carlander completed his education at the Swedish M. E. university at Evanstown, Ill., and was ordained to the ministry by Bishop Peck, Sept. 10, 1882. Sughrue and Farley Return From New York and Philadelphia, Where They Are Believed to Have Gleaned Important Evidence

Boston, Sept. 13.-Various items in the passage of which through the city was indicted by the grand jury on charges of bribery, occupied a large share of the attention of the Boston fiance commission yesterday.

Two items in particular interested the commission so much that the body sent a letter to Mayor Fitzgerald Gudger presided. protesting against the purchase of any land for the enlargement of Evergreen cemetery in Brighton, and another discouraging the purchase of land to enlarge Mt. Hope cemetery unless it can for concessions of forests, mines, land be obtained at a reasonable price. The commission believes the city is paying about twice as much the land is worth in both cases.

With the return of Attorney Sughrue and Secretary Farley of the commission from New York and Philadelphia yesterday the investigation into the affairs of the city took on new life and

As to the movements of Willis H. Towne, general manager for that concern, who went to New York after a summons to appear before the com mission had been served on him Sughrue professed to be ignorant. Amalgamated Company to Shut Down Mines Because of Deadlock Over Selling Price of Metal--Will Throw Five Thousand Out of Employment

New York, Sept. 13 .- A crisis in the largest producer of copper in this country, will soon shut down its mines in and about Butte, Mont. News of the intended suspension of operations there was made known yesterday by an interest closely identified with the Amalgamated stock fell over 4 points in the Stock Exchange when the news became known and the shares of the company sold down to $60.25, which is 61 points under the high record price of the year. It is said the suspension at the Butte mines will throw 5000 men out of work. The Amalgamated company has had difficulty in obtaining adequate supplies of fuel at Butte and this is said to be a contributing cause for the shut-

The Amalgamated Copper company, along with other copper companies, has been piling up a large surplus of copper for several months, and it is authoritatively stated that there is a surplus of 250,000,000 pounds of refined copper in the United States.

The present situation has developed from the seeming inability of the producer and consumer to reach a price for the metal that would prove satisfactory. The selling price of copper has been steadily reduced in the copper markets of the world, but the consumer has steadfastly declined to purchase except when needs were press

The official price for copper has been lowered from 25 cents to 18 cents a pound by the United Metals selling company. Copper producers on the metal exchange, in their efforts to tempt the buyer, have gradually cut the price of copper to 15 3-4 for electrolictic, which figure was reached yesterday. As a consequence of this acute situation copper stocks have accumu lated rapidly.

The production of refined copper in September, it is stated, will be 6,000, 000 pounds less than last month There are reports in the financial dis trict that certain banks have declined to carry any more copper metal in

How long it will take to dispose of this vast surplus of copper is problematical and cannot be determined until a price for the metal has been reached which will cause heavy buying. When work at the mines is resumed there may be a readjustment of the wage scale which was put into effect som time ago, when copper was selling at over 20 cents a pound. The miners agreed that if the price of copper fell below 20 cents they would accept a reduction in wages.

Henry H. Rogers, president of the Amalgamated Copper company, is now ill at his summer home in Fair Haven Mass. J. W. Beck, counsel for Rogers. announced in court yesterday in Boston, that Rogers has been ill since July and that he would not be able to ap pear in court for at least three months. London has been a heavy seller of copper stocks for some time. Prices of the metal in England have been steadily reduced. Copper stocks in Boston are also under heavy pressure. Negro Troops In New York

Washington, Sept. 13.—Acting Secretary of War Oliver has issued an order that will probably cause a commotion in New York, his home state. It pro vides for the relief of a number of regiments that have been serving in the Philippines for more than the full alloted term of two years, therein included being a negro regiment, the 24th infantry, which will take station at Madison barracks, near Watertown, and Fort Ontario, near Oswego.

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-

Winners of The Brooms And the Quick Records Made

The announcement of another field day for the Fire department on Saturday recalled the interesting exhibition of last year which was held Oct. 13. At that time there was a race against time to City Square, a parade and contests similar to those announced for this year. The Daily Ledger reported the exhibition in part as follows:

LADDER DRILLS.

Then came the drills. The first was raising 45-foot ladders by Combination H. & L. 1 and 2. No. 2 had the first trial. At the sound of a whistle the ladder was pulled from the truck and raised on the First church and top round. The time was 42 1-2

At the the sound of the whistle the cumbersome ladder was pulled to the ground. As soon as it was placed in an upright position John J Joyce sprang up the ladder like a cat. By the time the extension had been drawn up in position he was near the top. The ladder was then of long distance playing. n a upright position not having been placed against the church. Joyce was then nearly to the top, and the now top heavy ladder began to sway back and forth and there were some who expected to see him dashed to the ground. A skilled crew were handling it, however, and it went against the church. The next inthe crowd cheered. The trick had been done in 59 seconds.

Combination 3 was also a little unfortunate from the fact that the water was sent through the second line of hose before the nozzle had been coupled on.

The best time at this trial was made by Driver Faircloth and the members of Combination 1. They gave a fine exhibition. He had hardly turned his team about after laying the first line to make the run laying the second line, when water was going through the first line.

All of the drivers showed remarkable skill in handling their horses, a noble looking set of animals, who showed that they were well cared for. The time made by the several companies at this trial was as follows: Combination 1, 54 seconds.

Coddington Situation

ing the delay.

Supt. Parlin does not dare to announce that the building will open next week, but requests the Daily Ledger to state that the three upper grades and all the teachers will assemble at the building next Monday morning Sept. 16, at o'clock.

If three rooms are ready then the school will be opened. If not ready other plans may be necessary. Notice will be given for the assembling of the other grades.

Several children who live in the Coddington district have been fortunate in being admitted to the Cranch building for the winter, but the capacity of that building has now been reached, about 400 pupils being enrolled. This is over 100 more than three years ago, and more than the Wollaston, Massachusetts Fields, John Hancock, or Gridley Bryant.

The Coddington school building does not look today as though it would be ready for occupancy next Monday. Commissioner Burke however says that it will be ready.

A visit to the building shows that the water pipes have been connected up, and the sewer pipe laid from the main building to Woodward avenue. The front part of the basement has been partitioned off for the sanitaries. A gang of men are at work installing the sanitaries, but unless they work faster than plumbers usually do it does not seem possible that they can be made ready for use on Monday. No entrance steps or platforms have as yet been built, so that the pupils may enter the buildings. Carpenters are at work on these, however, and without doubt will be able to get steps in position by Saturday night.

Things are still at sixes and sevens in the rooms on the first floor so that the janitor has been unable to do anything here in the way of cleaning the rooms. It will take some time to get these rooms cleared of the debris and cleaned

And their pleasures have passed, now to work and save for next year, and the good housewife must take up again the duties of home.

Now we would like to say a few things that we know will benefit those who will stop to consider the present situation. You all know the sharp advance in prices of all food stuff, and how careful we must be to meet these advances on our present incomes.

Right here we wish to state that we feel WE CAN HELP YOU, because, with our large new store, and increased room, we are able to purchase our stock in larger quantities, and by so doing take advantage of all cash discounts, which enables us to put our goods on sale at practically no advance in prices. We all know there is NO MONEY SAVED IN BUYING CHEAP GOODS; and you know from past experiences that THE BEST IS WHAT PAYS, besides our families thrive better, if they have the PUR-EST AND BEST food stuff to eat; and that means a great deal to you.

LARGEST AND FINEST STOCK IN TOWN

and our word can be depended upon, when we say that you will hardly notice the increase in the cost of living if you deal with us. Think about this and you will find by trial that WE MEAN JUST WHAT WE SAY, that THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST in the end.

Our fall goods have commenced to arrive, and we are opening them up for inspection; and, although weather conditions have made a short crop of some goods, we have on the whole as fine a line as we ever offered for trade. Food stuff is high, but our prices are right and our saving is your saving, so don't forget where we are.

COAL DEALER'S STATEMENT

Backed Up When Certain Bil's Which Were In Dispute Were Examined --City Officials Think Investigators' Fund Nearly Eaten Up

Boston, Sept. 14.—An air of mystery permeated city hall yesterday because at divers times the scene of investigation was transferred to that place from the headquarters of the commission in the Tremont building. The office of city auditor was the objective point of all the investigators. The first to call at the hall was Attorney Sughrue, who was desirous of looking at certain bills that will figure in the con- Schreck. Called on account of darktinuation of the coal investigation. He was with the city auditor a comparatively short time.

Former City Treasurer Crocker, who represents the clearing house committee on the commission, next called or Mitchell. The two were in conference for some time, but neither was incline to say much about the visit of Crocker

The climax in the excitement came when Attorney McCarthy, Sughrue' assistant, accompanied by Daniel Do herty, the Dorchester coal dealer reached city hall. Immediately al sorts of stories were afloat, and they were increased to a considerable ex tent when the two entered the private entrance to the city auditing depart ment.

Mr. Doherty has been undergoing a searching examination at the hands er and Kleinow. of Sughrue and the commissioners as to his dealings with the city, and certain bills have been under consideration. Yesterday Doherty and his examiners got into a dispute regarding certain bills in connection with coal having on board Secretary of War furnished the house of correction which comes under the jurisdiction of the penal institutions department. It was decided that the best way to settle the matter was by an adjournment to the city auditor's office, and Mc-Carthy was selected to accompany the coal dealer.

The two looked at the bills together and although all of the parties concerned were not inclined to discuss the matter, there is reason for believing that Doherty won his point: in other words that the bills in question backed up certain statements made by the coal dealer.

above-named to city hall, there have been three employes of the commission nature having reached the board of at work in the rear of the auditing health in regard to the bubonic plague department's office copying certain it is hereby declared that there exists ly figure in subsequent proceedings by

As far as the commission knows. through its counsel, nothing has been heard from Maurice H. Klous, the agent for the W. K. Niver Coal Company, who has been in New York ever since the public hearings began. As far as Corporation Counsel Babson is concerned, that official had never heard of Klous until he read about him in connection with the present investigation. Neither Klous nor any person representing him has approached the city's law department to ascertain what the rights of Klous would be in case he finally consented to present himself before the commission.

A matter that is giving the members of the city government and heads of departments much interest is the question of expenditures by the finance commission. Upon the recommendation of Mayor Fitzgerald the two branches of the city council appropriated $50,001, which was supposed to last the commission up to the time of its final report at the close of 1908. Now it is figured that if the commis sion continues in the manner in which it is going the $50,001 will not last a year. If this should be true, it is said that the commission would have difficulty in getting another city council to vote an additional appropriation. The odd dollar to the appropriation was the result of the original order for $50,000 being defeated by the city government. When the matter came up a second time it was necessary to change the original amount.

There is a general belief that the original appropriation for the expenses of the commission is being pretty well eaten up. Those about city hall say it is doubtful if a second appropriation can be secured for the work, and that is up to the commission to do the best it can on the money now at its disposal.

Rottenness In Boston City Hall Slowly Being Uncovered

STARTLING DISCLOSURES

of Canada--Gerry Brown Is on the

The sensational disclosures brought out by the finance commision which is investigating the department affairs of the city of Boston have astonished a good many people, although those on long known that there was a state of absolute rottenness existing at Boston

Those who have watched the course of events at the hall for a good many years and have seen the grafting right and left, have been astounded at the openness with which this kind of business was being conducted under the present administration, although they have doubted if the finance commission would be able to uncover much of it. It has been generally understood by those conversant with proceedings at city hall the past two years that under no previous administration had there ever been such wholesale plundering of the city as during the present term of office.

When Fitzgerald was elected mayor he gave his solemn pledge publicly, on many occasions, that he would protect the city and safeguard her interests in every quarter and under all circumstances. During his campaign for nomination and election, he reiterated over and over again, his unswerving purpose to conduct the affairs of the city on a business basis, and save the taxpayers in every possible way. He pledged himself to be a credit, not only to the city but to his supporters and friends. From his attitude and utterances, one who did not know him might have been the people first, last and all the time." special to the New York World.

Boston's Dire Need Now

The finance commission evidently has arrived at the conclusion that the only thing against which the city needs to be protected is Fitzgerald himself. Every department so far investigated by the finance commission has been proven guilty of grafting, and the end is not yet. In the coal purchases made for the city, experts figure that more up than the purchasing agent? These platform. are questions which interest the tax Green reaches his garden by means

Those who look forward to the time when city hall methods will be rampant at the state house do so with many forebodings for the future of the commonwealth.

In connection with the coal scandal, uncovered by the finance commission. the sudden resignation of Michael J. Mitchell as superintendent of supplies is extremely significant. Mr. Mitchell purchased the coal at the instance of the mayor, as he testified, and could not tell whether the kind of coal contracted for was delivered or not. While he realizes that it is only a political bluff on the part of these eminent gentlemen, he is amused by this Toronto expedition and the attempt to make it appear that Mr. Whitney as a gubernatorial candidate, or even as governor, would have the slightest influence upon the question of reciprocity with Canada, or the framing of a reciprocal treaty with our northern neighbor.

Elbridge Gerry Brown of Brockton, the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor last year, and the anxious aspirant for that honor this year, may possibly have trouble securing the Independence League nomination, and is pretty sure of losing the Democratic the inside as to political matters have nomination. Present indications point to the nomination of George A. Schofield of Ipswich for lieutenant governor by the Democratic state convention. Mr. Schofield is certainly a popular Democrat in his part of the state and has been elected to the legislature in a Republican district several times. Whether he would be as strong all over the state remains to be demonstrated.

The Independence League is feeling rather chilly toward Gerry Brown at present. Since he came out in favor of the merger of the Boston and Maine with the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad he has been receiving very cool greetings from the Independence League officials. It is said that the league is now considering the availability of Representative Charles A. Dean of Wakefield as the candidate of that party for the lieutenant governorship. Mr. Dean was against the merger, and he has always maintained a good standing in the legislature.

In the meantime Gerry is on the anxious seat, waiting to know his fate.

Dow-Burditt Wedding

The Outlook, Middleton, Nova Scotia prints the following notice of the marriage of Miss Burditt, formerly of Atlantic, and Mr. Eugene M. Dow of Boston:

The Baptist church was the scene Copy for changes of advertisements of a fashionable wedding Thursday morning which brought out a large attendance in which the ladies were predominant. The decorations were pretty and elaborate. With the exception of the potted plants upon the platform, they were composed of wild flowers.

Rev. A. T. Dykeman officiated and Miss Sadie Dykeman played Wagner's march from Lohengrin. The groom was supported by his college friend, Mr. E. M. Goodhue, Professor of economics at Colgate university. The bride was preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Fred and Tom Burditt, E. S. Spurr and M. R. Elliott and by the bridesmaid, Miss Charlotte Layton of Truro, and was led to the altar by her mother, Mrs. John F. Burditt.

"The bride was beautifully gowned in cream messaline trimmed with baby Irish lace. Her veil, which was of rich hand work, having been worn by the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. T. H. Burditt of England. The bridesmaid's dress was of organ dy trimmed with lace.

"After receiving the congratulations of their friends, the bridal couple were driven to the bride's home where the wedding repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Dow left on a trip which will include the leading cities of eastern Canada. Upon their return they will reside in Boston.

"Miss Burditt graduated last June her talent to the assistance of every worthy object. Her place in religious, musical and literary circles will be very hard to fill. A host of friends

Officer Larkin who arrested the two men Sunday Aug. 25 testified to seeing Murphy in City Square between 1.10 and 1.50 P. M., and to seeing him in company with two companions going among the crowds abut City Square. When a car came in they would mingle with the crowd. After watching him for a time he placed him under arrest.

James H. Grace, a Brockton police inspector, testified to seeing Murphy at Brockton. June 8, when he gave his name as Daniel Reiley, and at Taunton June 29, when he gave his name as Daniel Maguire.

J. W. McAnarney, Esp., counsel for Murphy, moved for his discharge as the government had not met the requirements of the statutes to show that Murphy was a vagabond.

City Solicitor Thomas who represented the government desired the court to withhold judgment until after the trial of Stone.

McAnarney argued strenuously against this, and wanted the case settled then and there. The court, however, reserved its decision until after the other case. In the Stone case, Officer Larkin testified to seeing Stone with Murphy and another man. He watched them and saw Stone place his hand under a man's coat. He then grabbed him and turned him over to a conductor while he grabbed Murphy. The Massachusetts Society of the Stone protested against his arrest the police station and searched Took watch and money from him.

Hokey Pokey Man Victim Of Two Clever Swindlers

Vincezo Di Scuillo of 9 Phipps street was buncoed out of $500 of his hard earnings on Friday by two slick countrymen.

Di Scuillo who runs a hokey-pokey cart was approached by a well dressed stranger near City Hall early in the morning.

The stranger asked if he was an Italian, and upon receiving an affirmative reply, the stranger said that he had just been left a lot of money that he had sent his trunk to Quincy and was looking for the Star hotel. Di Scuillo said there was no such hotel in Quincy. Congressman Weeks' well deserved

On the trip money matters were talked, and Di Scuillo said that he had money and would prove it. He then went home and got his bank book and drew $500 from the Savings bank. Then he went to the rendezvous near the Insurance office where the two men were waiting, and after showing them his roll placed it in his side coat pocket.

The three then walked toward the Savings bank, Di Scullio being in the middle. When the Savings Bank was reached. Di Scullio said he was going in to put his money back. They tried to persuade him not to hurry without avail, and in he went, leaving his two companions on the outside.

He went to the window and placing his hand in his pocket drew out a roll of paper that had been substituted for his roll.

Di Scuillo, nearly crazy, rushed nto the street to find his companions, but they had gone. M. and under the competent leadership of Mrs. Albert E. Avery, regent of the Abigail Smith Chapter, who planned the trip, started for the quaint, township of Marblehead by train. Dinner was served at the Marblehead Inn.

All felt the spell of the crooked streets, the crags the steep slopes and the bright, beautiful flowers growing with luxuriance in every farm house yard and by every fisherman's hut. The visit to Burial hill was of interest and the stop at the historic spring where Agnes Surrage, met Sir Harry Frankland, as she scrubbed the floor of the Old Inn (long since vanished). The fort was next visited. Electric cars were then taken through the main village to the

Then all were ready to start home ward and having purchased the famous old Gibraltar candies (made after the ancient receipt) they took train for Boston.

Gov. Guild As Guest of Elks

Plans for the Elks carnival are beginning to assume definite shape and the affair promises to be the finest thing in that line ever seen in this city. The scenery and other accessories which will be used to transform the interior of the Coliseum into a fairyland scene have arrived and it is safe to say that nothing like it has ever been seen in this section.

The officers of Quincy lodge have received assurances from Gov. Guild that he will come to Quincy on the night of Oct. 14 and personally open the carnival. Mayor Thompson and other officials have also been invited and the night promises to be one of more than ordinary interest.

The music committee has made arrangements for a fine treat in the musical line, the famous Salem Cadet band and Rockett's augmented orchestra of Boston having been engaged. These concerts of high class music will alone be worth the price of admission. On Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee for the children and nothing will be left undone by the members of Quincy lodge to make the affair one of genuine pleasure for both young and Development of Western Arid Lands Makes Lively Markets For All Kinds of Eastern Products - Import of Desert Agriculture to Stock Raising and Mining Interests.

By MARK BENNITT.

In view of the fifteenth national irrigation congress to be held in Sacramento, Cal., on Sept. 2-7, inclusive, the following article is of timely interest: One phase of the development in the west, under irrigation, has been but little touched upon in the press. I refer to the lively market which the new communities make for all sorts 100,000 acres of land to settlement celebration by national rejoicing, because it opens an opportunity for thouand old, to make a new start in life. The opportunities for making money in mercantile lines are second only to those in agriculture and horticulture. There is work for men in all the buildment in new towns. Many new towns spring up, and the prosperity extends to all the inhabitants. Then, by a mining interests in which millions of wider application of the rule, the pros- eastern capital are invested are directperity of the west helps materially to ly benefited by the improved agriculsustain the prosperity of the east.

These things are bought not by carloads alone, but by trainloads, and are almost unaware of the changes

Perhaps the reason for over the equivalent of his entire stock this noiselessness of procedure is due QUINCY. every sixty days. Where business is so active the profits are good and the sales are for cash. Everybody has money in a newly irrigated region. Employment is al- taken the entire tract. ways at hand for those who come without money, and all cash is kept in rapid circulation. Besides the usual retail stores for general merchandise, furniture, hardware, drugs and groceries, the new communities soon de mand a steam laundry or two, livery stables, hotels and boarding houses, barber shops, lumber yards, banks, churches, a telephone exchange, real estate and insurance offices, law offices, newspaper and printing offices and all else that goes to make complete towns. Brickyards often start in and do a profitable business. Yards for the manufacture of cement building blocks are new and profitable enterprises. When harvest time comes the buyers and shippers of grain and other farm products have business to

The opening of 100,000 acres under irrigation warrants the platting of four or five villages. Each one will grow in a few years to be a thriving place. In fact, thrift comes early to a new town amid such surroundings, for no country is so rich in its possibilities as a reclaimed section of the desert. The railroad business done in one of these towns where irrigation has called the people together in a new social organization is astonishing to any one with such progress. It is well illustrated in the towns of the Arkansas valley from Pueblo eastward into Kanwhole region which, having a good water right, can be bought for less than $200 an acre. Much of it is held at $300 and over. The towns of Rocky Ford, La Junta, Las Animas, Lamar, Granada, Holly and Garden City are all thriving centers of trade, most of them having large factories for the manufacture of beet sugar. It is only a question of time when the same conditions must prevail in the newer re- talion at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., has the same figures.

derive from each newborn center of trade and culture. Eastern money pays for most of the large irrigating systems and then receives tribute ger erously in two ways-first by the re turn of the principal and interest, the by the profits on millions of dollar worth of merchandise sold to the grow ng communities through periods o many years. The advantage becom a reciprocal one, the irrigated regio producing foodstuffs and exchanging them for the manufactured products of the eastern centers. Successful agri culture makes a prosperous nation, and this progress here noted in reclaimin the desert lands is of vital importance to the whole people importance of desert agriculture to the stock raising interests. The stock grower has had to give up portions of the public range to the irrigator, but he receives a substantial return. One of the most profitable of easily grown crops under irrigation is alfalfa, which makes an exceedingly nutritious forage for cattle and sheep. To have the western markets well supplied with hay enables the stock grower frequently to tide over seasons of scant feed or of unusual severity without loss. It has happened in the past that of eastern products. The opening of thousands of cattle have died on the ranges during prolonged storms, either under irrigation is an event worthy of from exposure or want of feed or from exposure because they were poorly fed and in a weakened condition. A supsands of people, young, middle aged ply of alfalfa, available in cases of necessity, will in the future greatly reduce the winter losses among range herds both of sheep and cattle. As the meat supply of the east comes largely from these western ranges, here again ing trades that ordinarily find employ- the welfare of the east is affected by this development in the desert. Railway to Top Of Blue Hill

The Hyde Park Gazette says the beautiful Blue Hill reservation has been thronged all the past summer, taxed to its capacity to accomodate the crowd of visitors to the well favored spot. The state has done much to make the reservation attractive, especially about the entrance to the top of Blue Hill, on which is located the observatory, and it is at this point that the visitors to the public grunds revote their attention. A stroll about the beautiful intervale of green at the foot of the hill is always most restthe cry of half a hundred boys in city ful, but the long walk to the top destroys much of the pleasure of an otherwise enjoyable outing.

If here could be a railroad to the top of the hill from some convenient point there would be great rejoicing, and the pleasure of a visit to this beautiful place would be greatly enseeking. Numerous suggestions for a round-trip ticket to and from the top of Blue Hill.

It is a round about and expensive way the monk made an early trip to to go via Milton and Mattapan, or by er Mills and Mattapan, or to Dudley street and Mattapan.

There should be a line of electrics through the reservation on a right of way built by the street railway, from West street at West Quincy to His owner tried to call him and Randolph avenue and thence to Houghtons pond and Big Blue.

The reservation is for the masses volunteered their assistance and it to the people like electric car lines making it accessible.

Quincy Firemen Raised Ladders And Laid Hose In Remarkable Time

The second annual field day, parade and trial of skill of the Quincy Fire Department was held Saturday afternoon in City Square. The day was an ideal one for the event and the square was thronged with thousands who applauded the good work of the department. The next on the program was raising ladders. Exceptionally good time was made, but it can not well be compared with last year for the reason that last year time was taken with the ladders on the trucks and this year the ladders were placed in position in front of the First church, before the signal was given.

VACATIONS

And their pleasures have passed, now to work and save for next year, and the good housewife must take up again the duties of home.

Now we would like to say a few things that we know will benefit those who will stop to consider the present situation. You all know the sharp advance in prices of all food stuff, and how careful we must be to meet these advances on our present incomes.

Right here we wish to state that we feel WE CAN HELP YOU, because, with our large new store, and increased room, we are able to purchase our stock in larger quantities, and by so doing take advantage of all cash discounts, which enables us to put our goods on sale at practically no advance in prices.

We all know there is NO MONEY SAVED IN BUYING CHEAP GOODS; and you know from past experiences that THE BEST IS WHAT PAYS, besides our families thrive better, if they have the PUR-EST AND BEST food stuff to eat; and that means a great deal to you.

LARGEST AND FINEST STOCK IN TOWN

and our word can be depended upon, when we say that you will hardly notice the increase in the cost of living if you deal with us. Think about this and you will find by trial that WE MEAN JUST WHAT WE SAY. that THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST in the end.

Our fall goods have commenced to arrive, and we are opening them up for inspection; and, although weather conditions have made a short crop of some goods, we have on the whole as fine a line as we ever offered for trade. Food stuff is high, but our prices are right and our saving is your saving, so don't forget where we are.

ONE CAR IS TELESCOPED

Was Crowded With Passengers, Few of Whom Escaped Death or Injury -Operators of Long Service Muddled Telegraphed Statement of Position of Trains

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 16 .-A head-on collision between a southbound Quebec express and a northbound freight train on the Concord division of the Boston and Maine road occurred four miles north of Canaan, N. H., early Sunday, due to a mistake in train dispatchers' orders, and from a demolished passenger coach there were taken out 24 dead and dying and 27 other passengers more or less wounded, one of whom has since died.

Nearly all those who were in the fatal car were returning from a fair at Sherbrooke, Que., 160 miles north. The conductor of the freight train was given to understand that he had plenty of time to reach a siding by the night operator at Canaan station, receiving, according to the superintendent of the division, a copy of a telegraph order from the train dispatcher at Concord which confused the train numbers 30 and 34.

The wreck occurred just after the express had rounded into a straight stretch of track, but owing to the early morning mist neither engineer saw the other's headlight until it was too late. The south-bound train originated at Sherbrooke Saturday evening, where it picked up two sleepers from Quebec and two more on the way down. It consisted of the baggage car, passenger coach and smoking car in that order, with the sleepers in the rear.

The train left White River Junction at 3:50 a. m. Sunday. 40 minutes late, the Montreal express, over the Central Vermont railroad. The Quebec train is known as No. 30, and the Montreal train as No. 34.

In the meantime a north-bound freight train known as No. 267 had arrived at Canaan, 18 miles down the road, at 4:10 a.m., on time. According to Division Superintendent Ray, J. W. Crowley, the night train dispatcher at Concord, sent a dispatch to John Greeley, the night operator at Canaan, Lawrence, believing that he had suffi- intention. elent time in the 70 minutes to reach

The freight train was on a straight piece of track, about a mile in length, and the Quebec express had rounded a curve into this stretch when the two engineers saw the headlights of the opposite train burst out of the fog.

The baggage car was hurled back into the passenger coach like a great ram and tore it asunder from end to end. As it did so the rear end of the car rose up so that when it stopped at the forward end of the smoker, which was behind the passenger coach, it was well inclined. A few windows were broken in the smoking car, and all the Pullmans were uninjured.

But in the ill-fated passenger coach death stalked from end to end. This car was filled with more than 50 people. One of those who escaped said that as the train was rounding a curve someone in the front of the car began to sing, so that nearly every one was awake when the crash came.

Those who were in the other cars and recovered their dazed senses jumped out to the side of the track and hurwhere groans, cries and shricks were rending the air. Fortunately, with the engines off to one side, the wreckage did not take fire and add further horror to the already dreadful scene.

The train hands, seconded by the passengers from the sleeping cars, groped their way among the ruins and began the work of rescue. The bodies of the dead were laid beside the track. while the rescuers turned their attention to those who needed aid. Great beams were lifted, pieces of joists were thrown aside and the bleeding and mangled forms were dragged out. Wounds were hastily bound up and deep cuts staunched by bedding from the sleepers. easily aroused and lent every aid to the work of succor. In the meantime the word had been dispatched to this place and to Concord and Hanover, and within an hour a large force of physicians were hurrying to the scene.

heroes, and one of these was Frank Ryan, a brakeman on the express. Ryan was caught in the wreck and had an artery severed. He was unconscious for nearly 15 minutes and when he regained his senses his first thought was of the Montreal express, which he knew was thundering down on the wreck with no brakeman in the rear to wave a warning signal. In a few husky words Ryan told of the approaching danger and the Montreal express was stopped only a quarter of a mile from the rear of the wrecked train.

The passengers on the Montreal express also assisted in the work of res cue and care of the wounded. Among the West Canaan farmers was Benja min Briggs, who was one of the first at the scene, and two hours later he drew out the body of a woman. On turning up the face Briggs looked into that of his mother and almost collapsed from grief. Mrs. Briggs had been visiting friends in the north and was on her way to Boston.

The sun, which rose about the time the first doctors reached the scene, disclosed to them the full extent of the disaster. The sides of the passenger coach lay on either side of the track A little farther on was a tangled mass of iron and steel from which the steam was still rising and which had once been two locomotives. Off to one side was a crowd of people hurrying from one writhing form to another in a vain attempt to ease the pain and stop the flow of blood. On the other side of the track all were silent, as one by one the bodies of the dead were laid in an ever increasing row.

As soon as practicable the more se ciously injured were taken to a train and conveyed back to this place and then up the river to Hanover, N. H. where they were given treatment at the Margaret Hitchcock hospital at Dartmouth college.

The railroad officials were notified very soon after the accident. Conductor Brown of the express called Superintendent Ray on the telephone, and that official, with several others and a force of doctors from Concord, arrived at the scene at 7:30.

Superintendent Ray quickly began an investigation of the cause and yes terday afternoon gave out the following statement:

"The accident was due to a misun derstanding between J. A. Crowley, the night dispatcher at Concord, who has been in the service seven years, and John Greeley, the night operator at Canaan, who has seen 23 years' service, in transmitting a train order. One of these two men made the fatal error of taking a cipher for a four.

"The train order which Conductor Lawrence of the freight signed for at that No. 34 was 70 minutes late. Mr. and Mrs. Loud are among the best known people in Quincy, having passed their fifty years of wedded bliss in the house on Washington street which they now occupy.

Mr. Loud was born in Weymouth Sept. 15, 1832, and was the son of Reuben and Theda Loud. His early life he passed in his native town receiving his education in its public schools. He then learned the trade of a boot maker, the popular trade in those days, and worked at it for a number of years, or until 1857, when he moved to Quincy and opened a variety store which he conducted mander J. D. Williams in behalf of until the Civil war broke out. In the Post presented a sealed package common with other young men he bewhich contained about $15. He then entered the employ o Chickering & Sons piano manufacturers, by whom he was employed for 15 years. He then returned to his old trade of a boot maker and was employed in Weymouth, Holbrook and Quincy. During the palmy days of the Belknap brass band, Mr. Loud was an active member and was also a member of an orchestra that furnished music for many of the dances held in the town and other towns. In 1890 when the carrier system was established in Quincy, he gave up boot making and became one of

Taken Into Consideration In Contested Nominations

The Board of Registrars, with the City Solicitor, held a meeting Monday night to consider objections to certain nomination papers from Wards 2 and 3, for delegates to the Demo cratic state convention. The first hour at which the papers could be filed, according to the date printed on the papers themselves by agreement with the committee, was ' o'clock P. M., Sept. 10, but according to the committee's advertisement in the Ledger the date was given as o'clock. This caused some confusor and two papers were filed with the secretary of the committee before o'clock and two at or after 7.

After hearing the parties concerned the board decided that both sets should be placed on the ballots, but that the papers filed at or after ? o'clock should be given first place. This decision takes into consider ation that voters should not be deprived of their rights in the Democratic caucus by any blunder of the party officials.

VACATIONS

And their pleasures have passed, now to work and save for next year, and the good housewife must take up again the duties of home.

Now we would like to say a few things that we know will benefit those who will stop to consider the present situation. You all know the sharp advance in prices of all food stuff, and how careful we must be to meet these advances on our present incomes.

Right here we wish to state that we feel WE CAN HELP YOU, because, with our large new store, and increased room, we are able to purchase our stock in larger quantities, and by so doing take advantage of all cash discounts, which enables us to put our goods on sale at practically no advance in prices.

We all know there is NO MONEY SAVED IN BUYING CHEAP GOODS; and you know from past experiences that THE BEST IS WHAT PAYS, besides our families thrive better, if they have the PUR-EST AND BEST food stuff to eat; and that means a great deal to you.

LARGEST AND FINEST STOCK IN TOWN

and our word can be depended upon, when we say that you will hardly notice the increase in the cost of living if you deal with us. Think about this and you will find by trial that WE MEAN JUST WHAT WE SAY, that THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST in the end

Our fall goods have commenced to arrive, and we are opening them up for inspection; and, although weather conditions have made a short crop of some goods, we have on the whole as fine a line as we ever offered for trade. Food stuff is high, but our prices are right and our saving is your saving, so don't forget where we are.

New York, Sept. 17.—An investigation into the alleged irregularities in the report to the health authorities of the death of Dr. A. W. Shepard of Brooklyn, who left an estate of $4,-000,000, disclosed that the physician had died of morphine, self-administered. Three months ago Shepard, who was 66 years of age, married his housekeeper. Coroner's Physician Hartung says that Mrs. Shepard told him that her husband had taken an overdose of morphine while suffering from neuralgia and died. A death certificate was sent to the health department that Negroes Discussed Brownsville Affair Washington, Sept. 17.—Despite the efforts to keep out of its discussions all matters political, the national negro Baptists' convention hotly debated the Brownsville affair. A committee had refused to eliminate from its report al reference to the question and had prepared resolutions severely criticising President Roosevelt, and it was only through fear of disrupting the convention that a milder set of resolutions was accepted. They praised Senator Foraker and others "who secured for the soldiers the right to be heard in their own defense.'

City Wants Cables Underground New York, Sept. 17 .- Commissioner O'Brien of the department of water upply, gas and electricity, has decided that the overhead electric cables used by the New York Central Railroad company to convey the electricity used for running its electric trains in and out of the Grand Central station must be removed, as a menace to life. Legal steps will be taken to have them put underground. The company will fight the decision in the courts.

Woman and Child Killed Union, S. C., Sept. 17 .- The home of Isabella Gist was completely destroyed by fire and she and her 11-year-old niece were burned to death. The bones of the woman and girl were found beneath a bedspring instead of on top of it, and it is thought that the woman and child may have been killed and the fire set to hide the crime. A young negro is under arrest on suspicion.

Election Day In Oklahoma Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 17 .- Today the people are voting on the ratification of the constitution, a prohibition clause, and for state and county officers. The heavy registration and the intense partisan feeling leaves the result in doubt. Chairmen of both parties predict a great victory.

STEEL MAGNATE GIVES VIEWS

Public Will Have Unusual Chance In Near Future to Pick Up Good Securities and Companies Will Be Enabled to Raise Needed Funds

chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation, took an optimistic view of the business outlook in an interview. He declared that a general quickening of business will follow the sale of $7,000,000,000 worth of crops, which he expects to take place in a few weeks if the weather remains favorable. In the near future, he added, the public will realize that not in 10 years has it had such a chance to pick up good securities. When that time comes, he said, companies will be enabled to raise funds for renewals, improvements and extensions. Gary said:

"Before leaving for Europe in July I expressed the opinion that the orders for the last half of the year would not equal those of 1906. It looked then, as I stated, that the falling off in new business would be not less than 20 percent. The figures show 25 percent and the decline was caused largely by the railroads.

"Until the committee of railroad officials and steel experts make their report on what rail should be adopted as a standard to meet the requirements of heavy traffic and modern locomotives, no orders for rails will be placed. That report will be made in the near future. "To me the general situation is this The country was in need of be tween $500,000,000 and $1,000,000,-000 additional capital, and could not get it. Ban Is Off Milukoff

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.-The official lists of electors for the next duma contain the name of Professor Milukoff, Constitutional Democrat. The candidacy of Milukoff, who is the foremost leader of his party, was not allowed at the two previous elections, the government having each time succeeded in excluding him on technicalities. In each duma, however, he directed operations from the press gallery, to which he was admitted as editor of The Rech, the party organ.

Tumble In Cotton Prices

New York, Sept. 17 .- A sensational decline in the price of cotton took place amid excited trading on the New York Cotton Exchange yesterday. As a result the October option sold under 11 cents a pound for the first time since last June, when prices were advanced on a bad crop report. Declines in the trading reached 52 and 55 points, or about $2.50 per bale lower than the closing prices of Saturday night and $7.50 a bale below the high level of

Senator Lodge Tells of Evils In Public Opinion Bill

FAVORS THE UNSCRUPULOUS

Professional Politicians and Those Seeking Legislation For Own Profit Could Easily Outwit the People at Large and Serve Own Purposes

peared before the Central Labor union of Boston last night and delivered an address of considerable length upon the public opinion bill which was defeated by the house in the last Massachusetts legislature. Mr. Lodge explained that his address sented it because he did not think the gravity of the measure and its farreaching effect were fully appreciated by the people generally. He said:

Boston, Sept. 16.—Senator Lodge ap-

"The bill would mean nothing less energy and ingenuity into the plan- representative principles in our political

"Those who supported the bill apmade for the obvious improvement of more likely to get questions placed up on the ballot than any one else. "I have seen it asserted that this system would break the power of the 'boss' and the lobbyist. On the contrary, it would give to those who make a business of politics and who seek legislation for their own profit an unalways prepared; they would have their 5000 signatures always ready: they would shut out by dummy questions all questions they did not like and place upon the ballot artfully drawn ques tions to serve their own purposes.

"Where organization, money and perfect readiness are all that are required, the professional with a persona or pecuniary interest at stake and un troubled by scruples will defeat and outwit the amateur and outsider nine times in ten. To compel the people to legislate in a manner practically imsible for any large body of voters is to do an injustice to the people themselves.

"There could be no greater travesty on popular government than a system which would permit a majority of state any law they chose."

The public opinion bill provided that on request of 1000 voters for the submission of any question for an expression of opinion the state ballot law commission should frame the question and upon 5000 voters signing applica the ballot at election.

Lusitania's Performance Criticised Hamburg, Sept. 16 .- The first voy age of the steamship Lusitania to New York is regarded in German shipping circles as a disappointment. It had been expected that she would break all records, but her average rate of speed has been exceeded by the Kaiser Wilhelm II and the Deutschland. It is added that the Lusitania had been on trial trips for more than a month, had made a voyage to Gibra!tar and return voters, for each of the conventions, and had sailed approximately 3000 miles before she started for New York. Another disappointment, it is further claimed here, was that there was excessive vibration on the Lusitania.

VACATIONS

And their pleasures have passed, now to work and save for next year, and the good housewife must take up again the duties of home.

Now we would like to say a few things that we know will benefit those who will stop to consider the present situation. You all know the sharp advance in prices of all food stuff, and how careful we must be to meet these advances on our present incomes.

Right here we wish to state that we feel WE CAN HELP YOU, because, with our large new store, and increased room, we are able to purchase our stock in larger quantities, and by so doing take advantage of all cash discounts, which enables us to put our goods on sale at practically no advance in prices.

We all know there is NO MONEY SAVED IN BUYING CHEAP GOODS; and you know from past experiences that THE BEST IS WHAT PAYS, besides our families thrive better, if they have the PUR-EST AND BEST food stuff to eat; and that means a great deal to you. We have the

and our word can be depended upon, when we say that you will hardly notice the increase in the cost of living if you deal with us. Think about this and you will find by trial that WE MEAN JUST WHAT WE SAY, that THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST in the end.

Our fall goods have commenced to arrive, and we are opening them up for inspection; and, although weather conditions have made a short crop of some goods, we have on the whole as fine a line as we ever offered for trade. Food stuff is high, but our prices are right and our saving is your saving, so don't forget where we are.

Members of The Citizens Association Answer Yes

Secretary Burgess reported to the Citizens' Association on Tuesday evening that he had received 57 answers to the two questions below propounded to members by mail:

"Are you in favor of the Citizens' Association interesting itself in the government of this city by recommendation of 'suitable municipal officers or otherwise?"

"Are you in favor of the Citizens' Association putting a complete independent ticket in the field at the coming city election if the exigencies of the case require it?

About 46 answered the first quesion in the affirmative and 11 in the negative, while thirty-seven answered the second question in the affirmative and 20 in the negative. Thirty-seven answered both questions in the affirmative, while only 9 and swered both in the negative. Nine said yes to the first, and no to the second, while the others qualified their answers.

As the membership of the associaion is about 140, it was decided to make an attempt to hear from the Coddington School Building, silent majority, the secretary being requested to send out another batch

Different members of the associa tion called attention to affairs at the Quincy depot, one to the flying dust when trains passed, another to the difficulty in getting trunks checked, enother to the fact that the ticket office was closed too much, another to absence of gutter on depot shed, another to sparrow nuisance, and another to poorly lighted cars.

Makes World's Record for $10,000 Purse At Columbus

The Sonoma Girl owned by Mis Crabtree of Quincy has now struck a winning gait, and promises to win the $10,000 stake at the grand circuit races at Columbus, Ohio.

The Globe says in a Tuesday dispatch: Miss Lotta's $26,000 Sonoma Girl won the only heat decided in the $10,000 Hoster-Columbus purse this afternoon, trotting the fastes competitive mile of the season, 2:05

Before the second round could be called, rain made the track a young ake, much to the disappointment of a crowd which numbered up into five figures, and whether the Quincy ass can repeat her surprise is some hing the morrow holds.

Highball was at the mare's wheel when she finished, but he was tired and unable to respond to Geers' call McHenry had taken the Girl off in ront and she was not headed. Kasona chased her to the half in 1:03. Then Highball went into second place eing almost at McHenry's side a he three-quarters in 1:34. The brush home was a killing one, or the track was getting heavy from he rain then falling. Sonoma Girl neld Highball safe all the way through the stretch, both being "all n" at the finish. The start was a very poor one,

Highball, who drew ninth place, on the outside, going away so wide that ne had to trot the mile in 2:04 1-4, a full second faster than the winner, Margaret O, who was also in the ront tier, in the draw was sent off oorly, and a mile in 2:04 1-4 landed er only a fair third.

Highball acted badly twice in coring, and Sonoma Girl once. When the word was given, Sonoma Girl, who had second position, was on even erms with May Earl, the pole mare, and a flying. Before the turn was eached she was out in front. Going away Clatty Latis made a break, lropped back to last place, then troted like a runaway and finished

High ball had to cover consideraole ground to get around the field n the first quarter, but swung into he back-stretch in fourth place. rom there on he had clear sailing, ut not enough speed to overhaul and ass the Girl.

Tonight it seems hard to believe hat Sonoma Girl's feat in finishing ahead of Highball was not just what was expected, for it is hard to find a man who did not know she could do it. Frank W. Smith, manager of the Crabtree stables, is being congratuated upon all sides.

Sonoma Girl is the bright star of the turf now. Her misbehavior of a ew weeks back has all been forgotten. Once again she is an idol, and her praises are being sung in all quarters. Men who this morning would not bet 10 to 1 that she would win better than second money are willing now to wager even money that she can defeat any trotter living. All this because the Girl has demonstrated that she is really a great troter. There is no doubt of this fact, and the men who said she was a "gold brick' are not pleased when they ecall their expressed judgment. Any trotter who can race in 2.05 -4 is entitled to be called great, and if the daughter of Lynwood W never wins another heat Miss Lotta can find nappiness in the fact that she has wned one of the turf's best.

Highball is in disgrace again, with carcely a friend more than he had after losing the M. and M. to his rival. The public sees only one thing the winner, and despite the fact that the Memphis speed marvel trotted his beaten mile in 2.04 1-4, he is passed up as a second rater. His was racing luck, and he does not deserve the mean things that are being said of him tonight.

The Marriage Of Neighbors

Mr. Wright said that the San Francisco school incident was the only thing that had disturbed the Japanese at home, and that the action of the American government in that matter had quieted all feeling which had developed.

As to the visit of the battleship fleet to the Pacific, Wright announced that, recognizing the entire right and advantage to the United States in doing as it pleased with its navy, Japan felt no resentment, nor, in his opinion, would the cruise be made the basis of the development of any unpleasant feeling between the two countries. Americans were invading Japan, he said, rather than Japan invading the United States. More American travelers had visited Japan during the past winter than ever before, and their treatment, Wright said, had been not only devoid of unpleasantness, but cordial on the part of the Japanese.

Statement Regarding Records of Train Dispatcher's Order

INOUIRY ON CANAAN WRECK

Railroad Officials Find That Trainmen Acted In Accordance With Authorized Orders--Fatal Blunder Not Yet Satisfactorily Explained

Concord, N. H., Sept. 18 .- A statement that the records at the station offices at Concord, White River Junction and Canaan show a discrepancy in the reading of the order sent out by the train dispatcher at Concord on Sunday morning last regarding the movements of the Quebec express, which was wrecked at West Canaan with a loss of 25 lives, was made by General Manager Barr of the Boston and Maine railroad in this city. Barr added that the reason for the discrepancy "is not satisfactorily explained, either by the records or other evidence thus far secured." The statement does not place the blame for the disaster upon any individual.

The investigation begun by the raiload officials Monday was completed in this city yesterday. In the course of the two days' investigation the officials examined the train crews of the two wrecked trains, together with Train Dispatcher Browley of Concord and Operator Greeley of Canaan. Barr's statement was given out late yesterday and was as follows:

"A careful investigation of all the facts in connection with the accident at West Canaan has been made by the general and division operating officials f the Boston and Maine railroad. Statements have been made by the train crews of colliding trains Nos. 30 and 267, showing that train No. 30 held an order that they were to run 40 minutes late. Train No. 267 held an order that train No. 30 would run 70 minutes

"Endorsements on each of these orders show that they were handled in the regulation way and in accordance with well known and perfectly plain rules, they bearing the authorized signature of the division superintendent, the train dispatcher and the operators. It is manifest, therefore, that so far as the trainmen of these two trains were concerned they were acting entirely in accordance with their authorized or-

"The system of train dispatching in use on the Boston and Maine railroad and other railroads of the country, known as the double order system, requires that all trains affected by an order must have a duplicate of that given to each. This system has been sed for more than 20 years on nearly all of the American railways and has been approved by the American Railway association, representing at least 85 percent of all the railroads in this

"Train orders are issued by the train lispatcher over the signature of the division superintendent, which he is authorized to use, together with his own initials. They are transmitted to the operators at the stations where the trains affected are to receive them. Immediately on receipt of an order, the operator at each of the receiving stations repeats the order to the train dispatcher and the first repetition is copied In what is known as 'the train order book' in the train dispatcher's office. Each subsequent repetition is carefully checked word by word by the dispatcher underlining each word in the first copy O. K., and the time this repetition is received is communicated to each operator and by him endorsed on the order. "The conductor and engineer of each train affected is required to sign his name on the order. These signatures are then sent to the train dispatcher, who says 'complete' and gives the time and signs initials of the division superintendent. This is endorsed on the order by the operator and a copy delivered to the conductor and the engineer of each of the trains affected, one copy being retained by the operator. No or-

'complete,' the time, and the initials of the division superintendent are endorsed on it. "It is found by the records in the train dispatcher's office at Concord that order No. 4 was sent to train 34 at White River Junction and to No. 267 at Canaan, reading: 'Number (34) thirtyfour will run one (1) hour and ten (10) minutes late West Lebanon to East Andover.' This is properly checked and all rules in regard to the transmission of train orders seem to have been observed by the dispatcher at Concord. The copy of order No. 4 at White River Junction office reads: 'Number thirtyfour (34) will run one (1) hour and ten (10) minutes late,' while the copy of order No. 4 at Canaan reads: 'Number thirty (30) will run one (1) hour and ten (10) minutes late.'

der can be acted upon until the word

"The reason why this order reads differently at these two points is not satisfactorily explained either by the records or other evidence thus far secured."

Big Apple Crop In Washington

(Special to the Daily Ledger.) Spokane, Wash., Sept. 9.-Apple having the time of their lives. The and the trees are heavily laden and wages bigger than ever before in the history of the industry. As a rule pickers and packers are paid by the day, the wage scale ranging from $2.25 to $3 a day, though in some instances the pickers are paid by the box or the entire orchard, which contain from 80 to 108 trees the acre. The average cost of picking and backage to the grower is 25 cents, out it is not unusual for shippers or commission men to buy the products of the orchard on the trees, paying frm $1 t $1.25 a box, and doing all the work.

F. A. Huntley, state fruit commissioner, has an experienced horticulturist as inspector in each of the big apple districts. The legislature at its last session also enacted several laws to insure better fruit, among the provisions being the fol-

"All boxes, crates, baskets or packiges containing fruit offered or ported for sale within this state shall be marked with the name of the variety (or if the variety is unknown the said box, crate, basket or package shall be marked 'variety unknown,) and with the name of the actual locality or district where grown, and no such box, crate, basket or package shall bear the name of any other locality, place or disrict other than that in which said ruit was actually grown."

It is not in apples alone that Washington has come to the front as a fruit producing state. Reports compiled by State Fruit Commissioner Huntley and submitted to Gov. Albert E. Mead, show that in addition to almost four full townships of apple trees, the state had at the beginning of last year, 949,299 plum and prune trees, 764,956 peach trees, 500,633 pear trees, 243,459 cherry trees, 30,689 apricot trees, 23,862 A natural pure food cleanser an English Walnut trees, 15,185 almond trees and 6,988 quince trees, and that thousands of trees have been planted since the statistics were gathered DYSPEPSIA and CONSTIPATION for the foregoing statement.

was very satisfactory on Wednesday. The Globe's dispatch from Columbus says: The Puritan whirlwind, Sonoma Girl, again demonstrated her superiority over the Membhis speed marvel, Highball, and royally earned the major portion of the $10,000 Hoster-Columbus purse. The victory which Miss Lotta's great trotter scored over her rival today was clean-cut and decisive; she had the Racing at top speed in the mud took the life out of Sonoma Girl and Highball, so that in the third mile Margaret O was able to beat them both and thus secure a generous share of the purse.

There was no disgrace for either in being behind the daughter of Onward in 2:09 3-4; the wonder is that either was able to carry the terrible clip through the sticky going as far

Geers then eased away and made no effort to gather in the small amount of money which went to third horse. McHenry tried to rally Sonoma Girl, but she had given her all, and the Onward mare won the $1400 handily.

Pennsylvania Capitol Scandal Takes on a Serious Phase

PROMINENT MEN INVOLVED

Conspiracy to Cheat and Defraud State, and Obtaining Money by False Pretences Are the Charges--Action Based on Report by Probers

Harrisburg, Sept. 19 .- The long expected arrest of those held to be responsible for the frauds committed in the furnishing and decorating of Pennsylvania's $13,000,000 capitol have been made, Attorney General Todd causing warrants to be issued for 14 of the 18 persons and firms named by the captol investigation commission as being involved in the scandal. Those for whom warrants were issued are: Joseph M. Huston, architect, and his ctive assistant, Stanford B. Lewis. John H. Sanderson, chief contractor for furnishings. Congressman H. B. Cassel, treasurer nd executive officer of the Pennsyl-

Frank Irvine, auditor in the auditor general's office, who audited the ac counts of the contractors.

The warrants were sworn out before Harrisburg aldermen and nearly all the defendants, who had been notified by the attorney general of the action he had taken, appeared during yesterday waived a hearing and entered bail for their appearance in the Dauphin county court. Several were unable to ap pear because of illness and will make their appearance later. The principadefendants were held in $60,000 bail which was furnished in every instance by surety companies.

All the defendants are charged with conspiracy to cheat and defraud the state by making false invoices, which were approved by Huston and Shu maker. Charges of obtaining money by false pretenses were also entered against Sanderson, Cassel, Payne and Wetter, it being alleged they furnished fictitious bills for a greater amount than they were entitled to receive under their same faithful attention to work.

The prosecutions are the outcome of he political upheaval in Philadelphia in 1905, when Mayor Weaver quarreled with the Republican organization. The independent movement against the Re publicans in Philadelphia that year spread throughout the state and led to the election as state treasurer of William H. Berry, a Democrat, on the fusion ticket. Berry took office in the year 1906, being the first Democrat to occupy that position in 25 years.

In the fall campaign of last year, Berry startled the state by charging that, according to the state treasury books, the building and furnishings of the state capitol had cost $13,000,000. and not $5,000,000, as had been generally believed, and that $9,000,000 of the money went to furnish the building. He charged that $5,000,000 of the $9,-000,000 was pure "graft."

officials and the contractors denied the charges, but the agitation for an investigation, which immediately began continued until the last legislature appointed a commission to investigate the whole affair.

Much sensational testimony was brought out during the hearings, which covered'a period of about six months The commission made a report to Governor Stuart, who turned it over to Attorney General Todd. The latter thought the evidence of fraud was so strong that he at once decided to bring criminal and civil suits against those held to be responsible for the frauds.

Now we would like to say a few things that we know will benefit those who will stop to consider the present situation. You all know the sharp advance in prices of all food stuff, and how careful we must be to stock in larger quantities, and by so doing take advantage of all cash discounts, which enables us to put our goods on sale at practically no advance in prices.

Two inspectors from the district 9ttorney's office paid a visit to the Amer ican house, where the conference was being held, and it is understood they were after information to be used by the district attorney. Moran refused to say whether or not his inspectors had summoned the contractors or producers before him as witnesses as preliminary to any action he might take. The conference resulted in no solution being reached as far as the price of milk went. The producers would not modify their demand for 40 cents a can and the contractors refused to offer over 37 cents a can.

It is apparent from the proceedings thus far that the price of milk the coming winter must surely be 9 cents a quart to the consumer, and may reach 10 cents a quart.

THE PEOPLE'S VOICE

Against Commutation of Sentence of Paris Child Murderer

PARIS HAS DEMONSTRATIONS

Women Join In Parades Manifesting In Sparing Life of Soleillant -- Papers Say It Places Premium on Crime

Paris, Sept. 16 .- The increasing indignation of the masses against the escape from the guillotine of Soeillant, murderer," whose sentence to death for the atrocious murder of a girl 12 years old was commuted last week by President Fallieres to life imprisonment, was expressed Sunday in a series of the most curious public manifestations that have occurred in France for a long

The demonstration, despite the fact that several arrests were made, was entirely an orderly one. Many women participated. It was organized not so much against Soleillant as to express the voice of the populace against the wave of unspeakable crimes committed on little girls which lately has increased to an alarming degree, and which it is feared the commutation of the sentence of Soleillar will only stimulate.

Several thousand persons were engaged in demonstrations at various points of the city, and especially large was the crowd in the Place St. Ambroise, near which lived Marthe Erberding, the victim of Soleillant.

The rage of the women in this district has been great since Fallieres showed clemency to Soleillant. They assembled yesterday afternoon with their husbands and others of their sympathizers and were augmented in numpers by crowds of curious persons. Their orderly cries for justice were quickly changed to cries of "Death to the foot of the column will be two No less than 5,415 joined lodges of Soleillant" and "Down with Fallieres," carried a little girl on her shoulders with the purpose of indicating the object of the manifestation, moved toward the Place de la Republique.

Soon the streets were choked by a vast mob, and the police reserves were called out to disperse it. The parade, however, assembled again and several of the more violent demonstrants were arrested. Meantime other parades had been organized in different quarters of the city, one in the Place Vendome, at the ministry of justice. This also was led by a woman with a babe on her shoulders. The crowd shouted "Death to violators." At nightfall this parade was dispersed by the police, who feared that with darkness disorder would break out. Smaller processions aversed the grand boulevards of the great space to the Soleillant case. Many of them loudly condemn the failure of Fallieres to permit the law to take its course, and all of them agree that the commutation of this sentence signifies the passing forever of the guillotine from France. Some of the journals express the opinion that the escape of Soleillant from the guillotine only places a premium on crime. The entire question of crime will be taken up at the approaching session of parliament, especially as Paris and other large cities are becoming alarmingly infested with another type of criminal, known as "the apaches," who, in the secluded sections, almost daily maim and rob and sometimes murder their victims. Their weapon always is the knife and, gathering in bands, they often wantonly stab pedestrians and frequently policemen, merely for the sake of stabbing.

Director Touny of the Paris police declares that his force is entirely insufficient to cope with the situation. He recommends the adoption of corporai punishment for lawbreakers as an offset to comfortable and inviting prisons.

Failed In Sixth Attempt at Suicide Pittsburg, Sept. 16.—The sixth attempt of George Protzman to end his life failed. Protzman, who was locked up on a minor charge, was found hanging to the bars of his cell by his suspenders. He was hurried to the hospital, where it was discovered his windpipe had been injured, preventing him from breathing. The physicians rushed him to the operating room and cut his throat, inserting a silver tube through the windpipe. Protzman will recover.

By the use of machinery the ninety-seven and 53-100 (97.53) feet warmed air is continually drawn out on the West by Newton Street sixt and replaced by the cold air, the circulation being continuous.

By this method a carload of fruit can in two or three hours be reduced to the temperature in which the spores of decay will not grow and which under former conditions it might not reach for a week after starting on its journey in a refrigerator car. The expense is said not to exceed 2 or 3 of deed within ten days from sale. cents a crate. The fruit can therefore be allowed to get ripe enough to acquire its distinctive flavor and still reach its destination in far better condition than formerly, with correspondingly better prices to growers.

When the shipments from a station are not large enough to justify the installation of a plant the cars can be cooled at the first cooling station on the journey. It is evident that within two or three years the cooling plants will be generally installed, and it is believed that the invention will be found one of the most profitable improvements in the art of handling fresh fruits yet made.

Massachusetts Is Now Third In Value Of Product

The Boston Transcript comments editorially as follows on Bay State shipbuilding, which is really the Fore

River shipyard at Quincy: A bulletin made public today on shipbuilding in the Federal Census for Manufactures discloses that the Bay State is regaining its ancient rank among American States in this historic industry. A single great shipyard, the new steel plant at Fore River, has brought Massachusetts up to fourth place in the value of shipbuilding product in the census year 1905, with Pennsylvania, California and Virginia leading in order. Massachusetts is ahead New York in shipbuilding and is ahead of Maine. Indeed, ours is now actually the third place, for shipbuilding of a high class has virtually been abandoned at San Francisco.

This advance of Massachusetts in an art in which our ancestors excelled is cause for congratulation. Yet it must in all honesty be remembered that in Massachusetts, as throughout the country, when we speak of shipbuilding we now mean the construction of men-of-war and coastwise craft. This census bulletin declares that American shipbuilding now em ploys a total capital of $121,000,000. consumes material costing $37,000,000 and produces tonnage value at $82,-000,000. This through the services of 50,000 wage earners. But all this tonnage is for the navy or for use at home, and it is thus in vivid contrast with the bolder, more significant shipbuilding of our fathers.

Here is a fact which the Federal census takers do not emphasize as they should, though they do say, somewhat obscurely that only 5.02 per cent of the tonnage under construction in 1905 was destined for overseas trade. The present tonnage situation in 1907, which the census enumeration does not note, is that there is not now a single vessel, steam, or sail, in hand for the foreign trade in any shipyard on the entire seaboard of America.

Massachusetts, therefore, will not subscribe to the declaration of the census takers that their figures show a "remarkable progress" in this industry. The coast, lake and river trade, from which foreigners are and always have been excluded, is highly progressive and thoroughly prosperous. It boasts a tonnage of almost six millions. But to the Massachusetts comprehension more than coal schooners, towboats, lime and lumber barges and passenger steamboats are required to constitute a merchant marine. The New Englander who scans this new census report for any sign of renewed life in the building of great, stalwart ships for overseas carrying will not find it.

It is an impressive statement, superficially at least, that there are gratification which this large figure 1097 shipyards in America. But the may arouse oozes away rapidly in the face of the succeeding fact that no fewer than 1043 of these are engaged in wood construction, and only 54 in iron and steel. Among these 1043 wooden shipyards are perhaps a dozen really large establishments of which the best examples are found at Bath. The others are small concerns chiefly in repair work or in building craft of types ranging between rowboats and barges.

As late as 1890 American shipyards used more wood than iron or steel. But the proportion is now reversed, and wood materials had a value in 1905 much less than half of that of steel and iron. In the value of the finished product the comparison is even more striking. For of the vessels built in this country in 1905 those of iron and steel construction represented $43,395,000, and those of wood, $9,724,000.

The United States was tardy in the adoption of iron and steel as the materials for shipbuilding, and it Quincy, Sept. 17 still employs more wood than any other maritime nation. Our country still contains much excellent shipyard timber, and wooden vessels are especially adapted to certain conditions of our coastwise trade. These census figures suggest, however, that Editors of the Daily Ledger: except for small craft for local service, the end of wooden building is at FOREIGN NAVIES.

It is reported that the Russian admiralty has ordered a battleship of 22,300 tons from the Baltic shipbuilding works. This vessel when completed will be by far the largest warship afloat. The plans for the British admiralty for a new and larger vessel of the Dreadnought class have been received at the construction department at Portsmouth, accompanied by orders to begin building the warship immediately. The displacement of the new vessel will be 19,300 tons, 800 tons greater than the Belleroppon and Temeraire, which were launched July 27 and Aug. 24, respectively. The ship will be launched before the one to be built at Devonport, orders for the construction of which were announced Sept. 16. The Devonport ship will have the same displacement of 19,-300 tons, not 20,000, as at first reported.

John F. Wentworth, recently in the government employ at the Fore River shipyard, and an expert on oil engines, had an interesting twocolumn article in Wednesday's Transhe Lucania and the Lustania, and estimated that it will cost the Cunard Company $150,000 more per year for fuel to run the later, which increases the speed from 22.01 to 23.08 knots. He says the limit of speed with steam engines has almost been reached, but that 30 knots are possible with oil engines. He thinks alcohol engines may be the power of the future and tells why.

The Platform of Ex-Mayor Hall

In reply to many citizens who have expressed the desire that I be a candidate for Mayor at the next election, it seems to me to be my duty to say that I shall be a candidate for that office at the approaching municipal caucus, and I earnestly hope to receive the active support of all citizens who, irrespective of party, desire the welfare of our city and who wish to see her take her place among the cities of the Commonwealth as a well governed city. I believe the next Mayor of the city should be a man who thoroughly understands the system of Municipal finance so that he may be able to prevent any juggling with various appropriations of the government.

I believe that the question of water rates is in a very unsatisfactory and unfair condition, and should be radically changed, and that the management of the sewer system might be improved for the benefit of the city.

I believe that the equalization of taxes should receive careful consideration to see if some improvement cannot be made in the interest of

I believe that the practice of exceeding appropriations is a very serious matter and should be condemned n the strongest terms as something which if not stopped will lead to the most disastrous consequences.

I believe that only competent and experienced men should be appointed for the keel of the big battleship No. as heads of departments and that the present just criticism of certain officials require that there should be radical changes in the list.

I believe it to be the duty of the The steamship Herman Winter of next Mayor of the city to make sure that the citizens get fair value for the money expended, and that he should take great care that all appropriations shall conform to the spirit as well as the letter of the laws governing municipal finance.

Should I secure the endorsement of my fellow citizens, I shall endeavor to conduct the affairs of the office script, on "The ocean liner of the in the interest of the citizens and future." He reviewed the work of shall appoint such men to office as confidence of my fellow citizens. Respectfully,

John O. Hall.

The Makaria Fraternity, some fifty of them, met Thursday night with Delcevare King of Adams street, for the first frolic of the season, and the annual election of officers.

The porch was decorated with lighted Japanese lanterns, and after various puzzles and "stunts" had been tried, and two fellows had been in itiated into the mysteries of "Bobby Jim Bobbed" the business meeting was held.

Announcements were made of the final base ball game for Saturday, of a probable visitation on Sunday of two members of the Pilgrim Fraternity, and of special singing for the Sunday meeting.

Then Mr. C. O. S. Howard chairnan of the nominating committee, reported and after other nominations were made from the floor, ballots were passed and the following officers were elected, and were received with much enthusiasm.

President,-Gilbert M. Miller. Vice President,-Charles W. Laing. Secretary,- Archibald J. Grassick. Treasurer,-George Thomas.

Executive Committee,-Stanley I Duncan, George D. Forsyth, Richard ones, Walter A. Mitchell, and Mathew S. Nicoll. A hearty and rising vote of thanks vas given to the retiring officers Miss Parker of Milton whistled eautifully a number of selections and was presented with a bouquet in behalf of the fraternity by President elect Miller.

Merry Contest Among Four Candidates in Sixth Norfolk

With Messrs. Langelier, Pinkham, Poland and Sandberg in the field for the Republican nomination for Representative in the Sixth Norfolk district, there is much speculation as to which one will pull off the plum. Mr. Sandberg, the present Representative is the only candidate from Ward Four and last year he carried the ward by 138 majority over Mr. Poland. In Mr. Poland's own ward he also won by 11 majority. In Ward Five he received his largest vote, but fell 53 behind Mr. Poland. The total vote in the district was: 445 for Sandberg, 349 for Poland, with 78 blanks, a plurality of 96, but a majority of only 18.

Both Mr. Langelier and Mr. Poland are residents of Ward Six and the former will undoubtedly carry the ward, but it is a small ward without many votes to divide up, so the majority cannot be large.

Councilman Pinkham is the only candidate in the Wollaston ward and is a gentleman worthy of the honor. He should carry his ward by a large majority, but all the other candidates expect to get some votes in that ward. It is the fighting ground of contest, and will decide who shall be the candidate. Last year 570 votes were cast in Ward Five for Governor Guild at the State election.

The vote last year at the caucuses in

		Sandberg	Poland	Blanks

In the other Quincy district, the Fifth Norfolk the situation is much different, and Representative Hultman will have a walkover as last year. As there are no contests in Wards One, Two and Three, the vote at the Republican caucuses will probably be

445 349 78

CAUSE AND CURE OF APPENDICITIS

THE SIMPLE REMEDY THAT EFFECTS THE CURE

Professor Blanchard of the French Academy of Medicine has spent a great amount of time studying that dread disease—Appendicitis. In company with Professor Metchnikoff, he has carefully examined numerous cases, and both have reached the conclusion that the cure is not the knife. In more than forty cases the symptoms of Appendicitis disappeared after the patients had been treated for worms.

There are, no doubt, many persons suffering from worms who are erroneously attributing their trouble to some other cause. A few dose of Dr. True's Elixir are sufficient in most cases for the complete expulsion of the worms. The presence of these parasites is easily recognized by the following symptoms:—Indigestion; foul tongue; offensive breath; variable appetite; hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel; heavy, dull eyes; itching of the nose; short dry cough; grinding of the teeth; starting during sleep; slow and frequent worms, but will build up the whole system as

Light Thrown on the Curious Life of Bertha Goodwin

IS AN ALLEGED EMBEZZLER

Presents Heaped Upon Woman Com. panion of "Man-Woman," but They Quarreled-- A Second Companion, Becoming Jealous, Tells Secrets

Newburyport, Mass., Sept. 20.-Rivalling the weirdest dreams of fiction is the life story of Bertha A. Goodwin, the "man-woman" lawyer, held here to await the arrival of the Pittsburg police to bring her back to that city on the alleged charge of embezzlement.

Each day brings out more startling and sensational revelations in the woman's life that only serve more and more to stamp her as one of the strangest individuals who has ever fallen into the hands of the police of any state.

When she was arrested by the local police the charge against her was believed to be really a minor one. But as time has gone on the amount instead of being a paltry hundred, has grown until she now stands accused of being involved in peculations amounting to at least $20,000, and the end does not

Eleven years ago she first came to With her was a woman named Miss Lutz of Steubenville, O. When she purchased a house in Oakland, and, with Miss Lutz, took up a residence there, the neighbors raised their eyebrows questioningly. Miss Goodwin heaped presents lavishly upon Miss Lutz, and through her generosity came to grief. While the price of milk was yesterday advanced to 10 cents a quart by several small dealers in Dorchester, the three leading milk contractors of Boston, who, together with Brigham of Cambridge, supply 75 percent of the milk consumed in the Hub, stated that they would never agree to the advance to 10 cents a quart, or in other words, to place the retail price of an 81/2-quart can at 51 cents.

The present retail price for which the contractors sell the milk is 41 cents, the highest summer price ever paid in Boston. These figures have remained in force since last winter, a most unusual proceeding, due, the contractors allege, to the representations of the producers that the cost of production had greatly increased.

UNDER A NEW NAME

Standard Oil Company May Be Operating In Texas

ROCKEFELLER'S BIG PROFITS

Shown to Have Owned One Fourth of Standard Oil Certificates, Which Yielded him Personal Profits During Eight Years of $125,000,000

New York, Sept. 20 .- That the Standard Oil company is operating under the name of the Corsicana Refining company in the state of Texas, which has forbidden the oil combine to oper ate within the state, was indicated when Wesley H. Tilford, treasurer of the Standard Oil company, under examination in the government's suit against the company, testified that H. C. Folger and C. M. Payne, who, Frank B. Kellogg, the attorney for the government, states, control the Corsicana company, are prominent in the conduct of affairs of the Standard Oil company. Mr. Kellogg sought to draw from the witness the information that the Corsi cana company was really a Standard Oil company and was operating in Texas because the anti-trust laws of that state would not permit the combine to operate there. Tilford replied that as ar as he knew the Standard Oil company had no interests in Texas. He said that Folger and Payne were both officers of the Standard Oil company out he was not aware that they owned the Corsicana company.

Another interesting development was he official statement, made public for the first time, of John D. Rockefeller's personal holdings in the Standard Oil ompany. Just to what extent the reuted head was individually interested in the great concern has long been a matter of speculation. It was brought out yesterday that Rockefeller owned 256,854 shares, or more than one fourth of the total 972,500 certificates of the Standard Oil company.

Based on the earnings of the com pany, as placed on record Tuesday, it s computed that Rockefeller's personal profits during the past eight years have aggregated almost $125,000,000. At Tuesday's hearing it was testified that in the years from 1899 to 1906, incluive, the Standard Oil company had earned total profits of $490,315,934.

Mr. Kellogg spent a busy day tracing the various changes in development of Standard Oil from the time of its inception in 1882, when the trust agreement was signed, until the trust was dissolved in 1899 and the Standard Oil company of New Jersey was formed. Kellogg developed many of his questions from the trust agreement of 1882, which was contained in the bill of complaint filed in St. Louis last December, when the present action was commenced. This trust agreement, which was entered into by John D. Rockefeller and 45 other oil interests, provided that the Standard Oil company should be formed in Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and in other states whenever the trustees deemed advis-

All the properties and assets of the embraced corporations and companies were to be turned over to the several Standard Oil companies, which, in turn, issued their own stock in exchange. Under the terms of this trust agreement all stock was to be delivered to nine trustees, who issued to the depositing stockholders trust certificates equal at par value to the par value of the several Standard Oil companies.

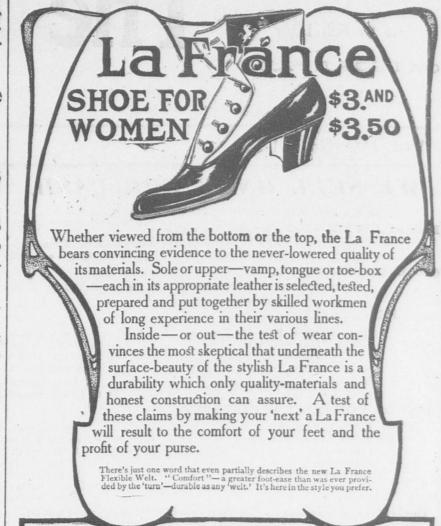

The nine trustees, under the original agreement, were John D. Rockefeller, O. H. Payne, William Rockefeller, J. A. Bostwick, H. M. Flagler, W. G. Warden, Charles Pratt, Benjamin Brewster and John Archbold. The trustees had absolute power in the control of the companies. They could purchase with the trust funds the stocks and bonds of other oil companies stocks and bonds of other oil companies FURNITURE and PIANO MOVER, Do You Want a Nice Home? able and could dispose of them whenever they considered it necessary.

The trustees, who were elected to hold office three years, were ballotted for by owners of trust certificates. The agreement further provided that the trust should continue during the lives of survivors of the trustees named in the agreement and for 21 years thereafter.

Mr. Tilford was questioned at length on the trust period between 1882 and 1892 and the period of trust liquidation from 1892 to 1899. Tilford, as secretary of the company, could give the government's counsel little information about these periods of the Standard Oil trust, though he was a liquidating trustee. Kellogg finally asked Tilford if during the period of liquidation there was any real change in the management of the Tickets on sale August 26th to September 27th companies and the witness replied there was not.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

LIVER TROUBLE.

A dull, sluggish liver always brings a dull, sluggish feeling to the entire body.

When the liver works properly the blood courses through the body in a bright red stream. When the liver is inactive the blood becomes dull and muddy, and it is full of poisonous matter.

MICHAEL SILK.

A great many people try to get a ine, clear, pink and white complexion by rubbing things on their faces. They might rub a life time and the same yellow complexion would remain---for the liver causes it. Only bright, red blood brings fine complexions. Blood loaded with impurities from the liver sends the impurities out through the pores of the skin and turns the skin a

To get rid of the dull, heavy feeling and muddy, yellow complexion get the liver to working again. Two bottles of Cooper's New Discovery will do this nine times out of ten though sometimes it takes four or five bottles.

Here's what a man who tried it says: "My health had been poorly for several years. My face was yellow and covered with pimples, I was bothered constantly with chronic constipation, had little or no appetite and could not sleep well at night. I became weak and lost all ambition. I tried many different medicines but nothing seemed to help me until I began taking Cooper's New Discovery. It seemed to help me at once. Now, after I have taken several bottles I feel entirely well. My face is clear, I sleep well, have a good appetite and am quite myself again.' 'I am deeply grateful for my restored health." Michael Silk, 24 Kentucky Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

AN IMPROVED LATCH.

Simple Door Fastening That Overcomes Some Common Defects.

A very useful improvement in latches of the button type, used in fastening cupboard and closet doors, has just been invented by F. W. Merriweather the invention is to provide a simple construction which will hold the door tightly closed and prevent any shake or looseness between the door and Meyer Rosenfeld denies that there is latch when the latter is applied.

The invention also provides for the convenient adjustment of the tension common defect of the usual wooden buttons to work loose and swing clear of the door of their own gravity. This er's invention. The illustration clearly shows how this is accomplished.

A knob or handle of any desired form is rigidly attached to a shank which passes through an opening in the door. The projecting inner end of the shank is angular in cross section and is provided with ratchet teeth cut in one of adapted to slidably engage with the shank.

A tongue cut from the upper arm is bent upwardly to engage with the ratchet teeth when the button is applied to the shank. It is obvious from this construction that on forcing the spring arms together the force with which the knob and button are pressed against opposite faces of the door may be varied as desired, thus en-Rev. REMARKABLE BEETLE.

Luminous Brazilian Insect Emits Light of Two Colors.

At a recent meeting of the London Zoological society C. J. Gahan exhibited a specimen of a remarkable lumi-Baptist church, Mr. Antonia Catarina But- nous beetle from Brazil. As in the case under arrest. According to the contura of New York City, to Miss Adriano of the familiar glowworm, which is ductor the men were under the inalso a beetle, the female is grublike extremities of the insect there shines a strong red light, while green rays proceed from a row of points on each side. Those who consider that the lamp of the female glowworm is to guide the male as to her whereabouts will be inclined to think that the combination of red and green light is to enable the male of the Brazilian beetle to distinguish his mate from other luminous insects. The specimen exhibited to the members of the Zoological society is thought to be the first living specimen ever brought to Great Britain. It has been pointed out that the light of glowworms and fireflies is the model for the ideal light-that is to say, in these insects the maximum amount of light Local Committee will entertain dele-Apply to THOMAS FENNO, 538 is produced with the minimum amount of energy.

Three Degrees of Illumination.

It is possible that the incandescent electric lamp will soon be susceptible to the same amount of regulation as gas, for there is now on the market a Sunday School Association, under lamp operated by a chain which is whose auspices the convention is capable of three degrees of illumination. One point sheds an illumination of 80 per cent of its total capacity, which in the case of the sixteen can dlepower lamp is barely sufficient to indicate the location of the lamp to one entering the room and who may want to reach the light in order to turn it up higher. This tiny glow does away with the necessity of groping around in the dark in the search for FRANK J. CHENEY.

To Measure Flow of a Well. To calculate the rate of flow of an artesian well a simple plan is to lower a bottle of aniline fluid to a depth of say 500 feet and then electrically explode a cap to burst the bottle. The time required for the fluid to appear at the surface gives an accurate gauge as to the velocity of flow. It is claimed that this method gives results as accurate as a weir. The diameter of the pipe being known, the rate of flow readily follows.

A New Winter Barley. An innovation in grain crops is the discovery by Professor Gordon True of the University of Nevada of a winter barley which will thrive on the deserts and ripen through the moisture of the winter rains. The discovery cannot be otherwise than of vast importance to the desert regions and may make possible two crops per year of barley in some parts of the southwest.

Saved the Anchor.

Oscar Sandberg and a party of friends had quite an experience while yachting on Thursday evening. They landed for a while on the west side of Peddocks island, and when they returned to their yacht they were un able to raise their anchor; it was caught among the rocks. It was a problem for awhile what to do. One suggested to cut the rope, but Mr Sandberg decided to investigate personally. He stripped and went overboard. He followed the rope down and when it was slackened a little he succeeded in freeing it, and saved the anchor.

Questions for Ex-Mayor Hall

Editors of Daily Ledger:

Readers of your interesting paper, which is now indispensable, have had the opportunity to read two communications from ex-Mayor Hall, but have heard of only one voter, an ex-official, who takes his candidacy

Mr. Hall told us in the first communication whom he might appoint for Commissioner of Public Works, but he did not tell us whom he would appoint to the other positions. Many are asking, would he remove City Clerk Keith and reappoint Edgar G. Cleaves? Would he remove City Treasurer Fay and reappoint H. Walter Gray? Would he remove Chief Engineer Litchfield and reappoint Peter J. Williams? Would he emove Chief of Police Burrell and reappoint Joseph W. Hayden? Would ne remove City Solicitor Thomas and reappoint Russell A. Sears? Would he remove Tax Collector Cunningham and reappoint A. L. Baker? Would he make changes in the Overseer of Poor, City Physician, City Engineer, Board of Assessors and other positions?

He might if he had the opportunity, out perhaps he has not forgotten how some of the ex-officials treated him in the fall of 1901.

Turning to the second letter, the platform is very amusing. But voters perfer to judge a former Mayor by his record in office rather than by his "beliefs" of today. Probably Mr. Hall's financial ideas have not undergone any very marked changes, and he might not be able to carry them out any more successfully than in

Woman Allowed Parhamites to Treat Her For Disease

POSSESSED BY EVIL SPIRITS

Five Arrests at Zion City on Charge of Manslaughter--Son of Victim Glynn, Bebee and Hostetter. Tells of Efforts to Drive Out "Dei mons and the Devils"

Chicago, Sept. 21 .-- Five persons, members of the sect of Parhamites, are under arrest in Zion City accused of torturing to death Mrs. Letitia Greenhaulgh, 64 years old, to show their belief in the religion they profess. Those under arrest are Walter and Jennie Greenhaulgh, the son and daughter of the woman; Harold Mitchell, Mrs. Harold Mitchell and a Mrs. Smith. All of them are accused of manslaughter.

Mrs. Greenhaulgh had been for 20 years suffering from paralysis and rheumatism. The Parhamites believe in diabolical possession of the body by evil spirits. The condition of Mrs. Greenhaulgh convinced those under arrest that she must be possessed of the devil and they determined to exorcise the evil spirit. The five worked over the victim until she died. After that, according to Greenhaulgh, Mrs. Smith became the leader in a "resurrection scene," in an attempt to restore the woman to life.

The head of the Greenhaulgh famfly, husband of the dead woman, is not a Parharmite. According to the story told before the coroner's jury by the younger Greenhaulgh it was necessary to get the elder Greenhaulgh out of the way before the exorcism could take place. Wednesday morning the hasband was called out of the house on a pretext and then the five exorcisers entered the room where Mrs. Greenhaulgh was lying helpless.

"Mitchell took her by the hands," the son testified, "and pulled her arm away from her body. She screamed. Oh, she screamed terribly. I jumped forward Mitchell held me back and put his hand over my mother's mouth and stopped her cries. He said: 'Of course I shall not hurt her. Those cries are not her cries. That is the screaming of the known, no human being has ever made demons and the devils as they leave her.

Greenhaulgh told of movements like those of a hypnotist that Mitchell made above the prostrate woman, and continued: "Mitchell and his wife again drew near my mother. They took her arms and drew them out straight. There was a crackling sound. I found are shot in the canebrakes. out afterwards that they broke the bones. They did the same with her legs. Greenhaulgh sobbed as he told the story. After more of the torture, Greenhaulgh said, Mitchell told him to pray, and that his mother was sleep-

Vatican Was Strongly Guarded Rome, Sept. 21.—Armed men in the service of the pope were on guard all day at the entrances of the apostolic palace and the Vatican was under the especial protection of a detachment of royal troops, but there was no active outbreak of anti-clerical sentiments, and Sept. 20, the 37th anniversary of the occupation of Rome by Italian troops and the fall of the temporal power of the papacy, passed without the fulfilment of any of the fears entertained by the Vatican that the Italian people would show by deeds of violence their ill-feeing against the church.

VACATIONS

And their pleasures have passed, now to work and save for next year, and the good housewife must take up again the duties of home.

Now we would like to say a few things that we know will benefit those who will stop to consider the present situation. You all know the sharp advance in prices of all food stuff, and how careful we must be to meet these advances on our present incomes.

Right here we wish to state that we feel WE CAN HELP YOU, because, with our large new store, and increased room, we are able to purchase our stock in larger quantities, and by so doing take advantage of all cash discounts, which enables us to put our goods on sale at practically no advance in prices.

We all know there is NO MONEY SAVED IN BUYING CHEAP GOODS; and you know from past experiences that THE BEST IS WHAT PAYS, besides our families thrive better, if they have the PUR-EST AND BEST food stuff to eat; and that means a great deal to you. We have the

and our word can be depended upon, when we say that you will hardly notice the increase in the cost of living if you deal with us. Think about this and you will find by trial that WE MEAN JUST WHAT WE SAY. that THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST in the end.

Our fall goods have commenced to arrive, and we are opening them up for inspection; and, although weather conditions have made a short crop of some goods, we have on the whole as fine a line as we ever offered for trade. Food stuff is high, but our prices are right and our saving is your saving, so don't forget where we are.

LAUGH CURE ADVISER

CRACKED JOKES ON SICKBED

Aged Alton (Mo.) Court Clerk Tells How He Cured Himself of Paralysis. Converts His Sick Wife, Who Is Fast Recovering-His Favorite Joke.

Joviality-pure, unadulterated good humor-backed up by hearty laughter, is a positive cure for any disease, says Francis F. Brandewiede, eighty-two years old, clerk of the city court of Seven months ago he was stricken with paralysis, both arms and legs being helplessly crippled. Today he is walking the streets, bantering his friends, joking and telling how he cured himself by forgetting his troubles and laughing and having a good time with those who called to console and offer their sympathy, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"If more persons would be good humored and laugh instead of brooding over their illness, there would not be half so many sick in the world," said Brandewiede in relating how he cured himself. "At my age it would discourage almost any man to be stricken helpless with paralysis, but I have looked on the sunny side of things all my life, and I did not despair, though I often overheard friends who called to see me say that I was on my deathbed this time all right.

"I just kept my spirits up, joked about my illness, told good stories and made my visitors tell me some. I laughed heartily all the time and never for a moment gave way to gloom. I slept just as peacefully and sweetly as when I was an infant in my mother's arms. I awoke bright and early each morning, feeling refreshed and ready for another day's joviality.

"I did not take any medicine and attribute my recovery solely to the FURNITURE and PIANO MOVER bright, cheerful manner in which I bore my illness. The faith I have had all my life in the efficacy of cheerfulness as a cure for all ails has been increased a thousandfold. I am not a believer in the Osler theory, for at eighty-two I feel just as spry physically and as capable mentally as I did forty years ago. I am going back to my official duties within a few weeks."

This rugged old man also says that he is getting his wife, who has been seriously ill for some time, into his way of thinking. She has been suffering from a complaint which the doctors told her would soon necessitate an operation. Brandewiede was so cheerful during his own illness that his seventy-four-year-old wife began to partake of his spirit, and now she is fast recovering, he says.

For eighteen years Brandewiede has been clerk of the city court of Alton. So popular is he with both political parties because of his good humor and wit as a raconteur that within the past few years no one has been named seven months in which he was regain ing his health by his laugh cure his duties at the city court were performed by Deputy Clerk S. F. Conor. Mr. Brandewiede cured himself of paralysis by spending his time on his sickbed telling funny stories and laughing as heartily as if he were sitting over a bumper of wine. There has been widespread curiosity in Alton to know these laugh cure tales. All day recently Brandewiede was buttonholed by acquaintances who wanted to hear him relate the stories which warded off the hand of death. Chronic sufferers who know the jolly old official were especially solicitous to have him use the beneficent influence of his joviality on them. He was kept busy narrating mirthful tales from his seemingly unlimited fund, and it is said that perambulating invalids with whom he conversed went away laughing as lustily as he and determined to take up his cure.

Of course this witty old veteran, who has all the vim and fire of a robust man of forty, has his favorite "contes drolatiques." One of them, in which he takes particular delight, though it has a tinge of the grewsome, is this:

"Some twenty years ago I was about to alight from a street car when an intoxicated man placed his hand on my shoulder and informed me that he wished to talk with me a moment.

"I told him if he wanted to talk to me he would have to get off at that corner. This seemed to irritate him. for he hurled me from the car. My right foot went under the wheels, and two toes were mashed. I went home, removed the shoe and threw the toes At HALF PRICE out of the window. Soon I saw two of my chickens suddenly pounce upon what a few moments ago were such a valuable part of my anatomy and gobble them up.

"'I'll get even with both of you for that,' I said to myself. The next day I and ate them at the evening meal."

Congressional Life. At Washington.

The first public meeting of the Men's Club of the M. E. Church, South Braintree was held on Friday evening, Sept. 20, when Congressman John W. Weeks spoke most interestingly on "Congressional Life and Important Legislation Considered by the Fifty-Ninth Congress." There was a large attendance. Mr. Weeks referred to the broadening effect upon a Congressman which came from meeting with other men from other sections of the country, defending that body against the charge often found in newspapers, that they were not men of sufficiently high standards. While a few might not measure up to the desired standard, yet the vast majority were earnest, honest sincere men. seeking the best interests of their constituents and the country at large.

others to Speaker Cannon, Congressman Ketcham, John Sharp Williams, leader of the Democratic side: to Congressmen Hepburn of Iowa, Champ Clark of Missouri, Dalzell of Pennsylvania and Payne of New York. He spoke of the procedure at the opening session of Congress.

Mr. Weeks was at first opposed to pension legislation but, after study and interest in the same, he became had not been getting the full amount of pension to which they were entitled; freak bills introduced at the session also claimed his attention.

Trough the efforts of President Roosevelt the Philippine Tariff Bill. The Railroad Rate Bill, Pure Food Bill, Meat Inspection Bill, Panama Canal Bill, Consular Reform Bill, Naturalization Bill and National Quarantine Bill had been considered, party lines being very loosely drawn.

Mr. Weeks praised the United States Senate as a body, closing with a splendid tribute to President Roosevelt as a chief executive and leader of men, complimenting his keen interest and knowledge of all matters that affect the people, and his accomplishment of great deeds for the country's welfare."

New York, Sept. 21.-Through Wes-H. Tilford, treasurer of the Stand-AND Oil company, the government's at- mitted, in which many of the assailkey bare the records of the stockholders of the Standard Oil company of New Jiersey at yesterday's hearing of the government's suit for the dissolution of the alleged oil combine. The records disclosed the fact that John D. Rockefieller owns 247,692 shares, or nearly five times as much stock as any other imdividual shareholder, and that he and his associates who signed the trust ægreement in 1882 still control a majority of the Standard Oil stock.

Measured by the present market price $140 a share, the holdings of Rocke-Reller in the Standard Oil company have a value of $109,000,000. The holdings of William Rockefeller were stated by Tilford to be 11,700 shares, and those of H. H. Rogers 16,-1020 shares. Other large holders of origanal and present oil stock are Henry M. Flagler, Oliver H. Payne and Charles H. Pratt.

Some of the Standard Oil company books wanted by the government's counsel have not yet been produced, but several important books have been forthcoming. The agreement of 1882, which was signed by many of the men now in the front ranks of Standard Oil ownership and management, was put in evidence by Kellogg, and its authenticity was admitted by the company's lawyers.

How Kellogg obtained possession of this document is not known. It is said that Detective Flynn, head of the New Mork branch of the United States secret service, has conferred with Kellogg since the hearing here began.

Mr. Kellogg was able to obtain evidence of a verbal agreement that had been made between the Standard and hold them strictly responsible for the independent refineries doing business mear Cleveland and Pittsburg. argreement, which was entered into in the latter part of 1902, provided that these companies should sell their entire output of oil refined for export to kerton Detective agency, who died on the Standard Oil company of New York, the export department of the allied companies, in return for which the Standand was to sell the companies a certain left to his widow, Ann E. Mr. Kellogg then developed from the witness that the export business was Chiefly handled by the Standard Oil company of New York, and that in buying oil for export it paid the market price to the independent refinerles. Kellogg asked if the Standard Oil did Typewriter company, has begun in the not determine the market price and Tilford replied that it did. Treasurer Tilford explained finat the reason why the Standard dividend in 1899 was only $14,000,000, imstead of $32,000,000, was because the Elvidends of some subsidiary compranies went to individuals. In the bachelor apartment on the top

"You'll be all right now, my boy," was the doctor's parting shot. "Just take plenty of fresh air. Get up on the roof as often as you can."

"Confound the roof!" muttered Paul, but he took his overcoat and went up. for days shunned the roof religiously. In the apartment below the bachelors', her eyes red with weeping, Sylvia Randall was washing out a lingerie waist.

"It's mean of Sarah not to come today," she complained, regarding her shriveled fingers ruefully. "She knew I had to have this waist done up. And myself and hang the thing out to dry."

But before she went up Sylvia stopped to obliterate the effect of tears and to throw a scarf jauntily over her head.

"I might meet some one," she explained, with a demure little smile at her reflection in the mirror.

A strong wind whistling over the housetops snatched the waist from Sylvia's hands just as she was pinning it to the line and would have carried it over the edge of the roof had not help come unexpectedly.

"Oh, thank you-thank you, so much," exclaimed Sylvia. Then, noticing how good looking her benefactor was, she stopped in confusion.

"You're very welcome, I'm sure," answered Paul, lifting his hat and resuming his constitutional

"It's-it's my own waist, you see," stammered Sylvia. Paul turned.

"Is it, indeed?" he replied. "Then I'm doubly glad I rescued it." "I mean, I laundered it for myself. don't go out. Sarah didn't come. I didn't think there'd be any one up At this Paul burst into a laugh that even Sylvia in her embarrassment found contagious. "I see," he said, "you are the queen in the garden, hanging out the clothes. Sylvia assumed an injured look. "You know that isn't right," she corrected. "It was the maid who was in the garden." "Honest, was it?" asked Paul. "I never was much good on poetry. I always thought it was the queen, but I'm delighted to find it is really both."

Without another word Sylvia vanished, leaving Paul transfixed with astonishment.

"How deliciously naive and childlike she is!" he chuckled as he sought a sunny corner in which to stretch his lazy length. Having found one, he smoked a cigarette or two and then fell to scribbling. What he scribbled remained for Sylvia to discover. This she did the very next morning, for Sarah, the faithless, was still conspicuous by her absence, and there remained a handful of fluffy trifles that had to be laundered. Sylvia went at the task with commendable resignation. The drying stage reached, with careless indifference to appearances she ran up to the roof bareheaded and bare armed. As no one was in sight this time to rescue articles vagrantly disposed, each piece was pinned to the line with a firmness that defied whirlwinds.

This accomplished, a scrap of paper flapping in the side of the chimney attracted Sylvia's attention. She pulled it out from between the bricks and read the following:

The queen was in the rooftree Hanging out her gown.

Along came a brisk breeze

With a sniff, Sylvia tucked the paper into her belt. Then she picked up one of the little stones with which the roof was covered and tried to mark with it, but without success. A small sharp kerchief." but without success. A small sharp pointed stick proved equally futile. Suddenly in a corner she found a burned match. Triumphantly she scratched | tell. a word across the rhymes and then put them back in the chimney.

Here, an hour or two later, Paul found them. So the queen had not you?" come into the garden again, he argued. It was just as well perhaps. He was about to tear up the nonsense when Sylvia's scrawling letters caught his

Then he pocketed the missive, so oddly transformed from the ridiculous tic possibilities. to the sublime, and sought his favorite corner. There was no sun shining on it today, and the wind was bleak, but he turned up his coat collar and settled down to a smoke and more scribblings. The latter he soon read aloud:

One bright and sunny morning. When windy was the weather, I chanced to meet a young maid, Sweet as Scottish heather.

I began to compliment. And she began to cry: "How-do-you-do and how-do-you-do

And why do you say goodby?" After applauding his own performance Paul got up to deposit the effusion in the friendly chimney crevice. A Paul, drawing Sylvia gently to him. Closer inspection revealed a tiny mono. Paul could hardly hear the words.

There were undoubtedly other girls in the housegirls who might have monogram handkerchiefs-but Paul decided to take the risk. Accordingly he inscribed his rhymes "To S. M." and that he might not be accused of unfairness signed his own initials. He then fastened the fingle with a clothespin to the top of a lace collar. The monogram handkerchief he appropriated.

Later in the afternoon a shower developed unexpectedly, and Sylvia floor of the Riverview court Paul rushed up to the roof. There was no Laurison paced restlessly up and stopping between drops to read nondown. Occasionally he stopped to sense rhymes, so she gathered them in look out at the spring landscape and with her washing and hurried downstairs. "Sillier." was her only comment when she read them in the privacy of her room. Then, the loss of her handkerchief dawning suddenly upon her, she pronounced "P. L." not only a bold, bad poet, but a sneak thief, and better of her, and she ventured to go up just once more and see what would happen. The prospect wasn't promising. The only person in sight was a trained nurse hanging out blankets. "I hope no one is very ill," remarked Sylvia.

"I'm so sorry," she said sympathetically. "Is he delirious?"

The nurse looked at her curiously. "No, not exactly. He talks in his sleep sometimes. Are you a friend of Mr. Laurison's?"

"I-I know him slightly," stammered Sylvia. Then, after a moment, she added timidly, "Is Mr. Laurison con-

The days that followed stretched solemnly on into weeks. Occasionally Syl via inquired of the elevator boy how Mr. Laurison was getting on. It seemed an eternity before his lugubrious "About the same, miss," changed to the cheerful "They say he's much better. miss." No more counselings now with Dame Grundy as to the propriety of trips to the roof. Sylvia went every day-twice a day. She knew that some time she would find him there. When at length she did she almost ran to him for joy, but remembered suddenly that they had met only once before. So she called to him from the distance. "How do you do, Mr. Laurison?" Paul started up in his steamer chair and gazed at her in glad surprise.

"Why, how do you do again?" he called cheerily. "Won't you come over and shake hands?" Sylvia came toward him quickly and extended her little white hand. "I suppose this is Miss S. R. I have the pleasure of greeting," said Paul, "Yes-Sylvia Randall," she answered.

DUTIES OF TRUSTEES

Those In Charge of Eddy Trust Fund Want Court's Advice

Apparently a Violation of Provision In Instrument Establishing Fund of $125,000 For Christian Science Leader's Son and His Family

Concord, N. H., Sept. 21 .- An aftermath of the recent suits of the "next friends" of Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy, the head of the Christian Science church, against those associated with the leader in the management of her affairs, came yesterday when the trustees of a trust fund for the benefit of George W. Glover, Mrs. Eddy's son, and others. sought the ruling of the superior court as to their duties in regard to the fund. in view of the effect of the recent suit of "next friends" upon the conditions of the trust fund.

On Feb. 25, 1907, Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy established a trust fund of $125,-000 for the benefit of her son, George W. Glover, his wife and children, and named as trustees of the fund Frank 8 Streeter, Irving C. Tomlinson and Archibald McClellan. Four days later Mrs. Eddy's son and other "next friends" filed a suit in equity against Mrs. Eddy, which declared her incompetent to transact business.

On July 8 Glover, through counsel, filed another bill in equity in which the facts were set forth in regard to the trust which had been established for his benefit and asked the court to assume the guardianship of it.

Late yesterday an answer to this bill in equity was filed with the clerk of the unerior court by the three trustees. They refer to a provision in the trust deed which says that "if any one or any contest or opposition to my last will or to the disposition of other property by me, all right and interest of such beneficiary or beneficiaries in this trust fund shall thereupon and thereby ter

Whitney Carries Massachusetts in First Batch of Democratic Caucuses Boston, Sept. 21.—The end of the first chapter in the Bartlett-Whitney fight for the Democratic nomination for governor was reached last night in the Democratic caucuses in 22 of the 33 cities and 317 of the 321 towns.

The story of it is that Whitney carries the cities by about two to one. He has a lead in the towns, but Bartlett shows up strongest here.

On the showing of pledged delegates the caucuses give Whitney a long lead over his opponent, while his friends say that he has swept the state and will secure a large majority of the unpledged delegates.

Bartlett's friends, however, deny such a claim and say that the actual showing among the unpledged delegates, together with the results of the fight at the primaries next Tuesday. will give Bartlett a good showing in

There is no doubt that consternation reigns at city hall. Many there see plainly the handwriting on the wall and understand what it means. Every year the city is robbed of millions, and it goes into the pockets of grafters, high and low, and some of them, when brought to the witness stand, will tell what they know. Evidence has been placed in the hands of the finance commission which will cause a tremendous sensation when it is forthcoming.

Labor Leader Plans Chain of Posts

For Wandering Cree Indians. A band of 150 families of Cree Indians is to be the nucleus around which Honore Jaxon, half breed Indian himself and labor leader of Chitago, hopes to establish a plan for nomadic altruism, says the St. Louis Republic.

He proposes a chain of camping posts throughout the United States which will allow the Indians to roam south in winter, north in summer or any way they want at any time. The band of Crees are the lone remnant of one of the finest tribes of the northwest. According to Mr. Jaxon, they are the noblest martyrs of all redskins, who have been persecuted since in 1885 they succeeded in gaining enting the Canadian soldiers. They have been homeless wanderers in Montana Canadian authorities alike.

Mr. Jaxon recently left St. Louis for Chicago, where at his headquarters he will arrange for the preliminary steps in the undertaking. From Chicago he will go to Montana to consult with the Crees. He will reproduce in the eloquence of the Cree language, which, he says, is the equal of the Greek their pleas for the right of wandering These pleas are intended for the

A Deal for

It was news to Quincy people to read in a Boston paper that a Quincy man was a candidate for sheriff, and that he had all the Quincy delegates. The Globe says:

"Republican politicians in Norfolk county are very much interested over the report that J. Henry Cunningham, the tax collector of Quincy, is to contest with Sheriff Capen the office of sheriff of Norfolk county this

The clipping above, together with the one that follows from the Hyde Park Gazette, shows that someone in Quincy has been active and that there have been deals for more than one county office this year. The Gazette says: "In the Republican county convention there will be 112 delegates, and voted against extending till midnight the city of Quincy and Brookline together will have 35 of that number, and with Weymouth, Braintree, Milton, Avon and Randolph a nomination can be made. Rival Managers' Claims on Result of Bay State Caucuses

Division Close Enough to Give Bartlett Nomination, Though Mhitney Evidently Has Long Lead--Claim of "Whitneyizing" by the Press

Boston, Sept. 23 .- While the returns from the 343 cities and towns holding primaries Friday night to choose delegates to the state Democratic convention to be held at Springfield on Oct. 5 have come in, there were so many delegates in the column of the unpledged that the managers of both Henry M. Whitney and Charles W. Bartlett are able to claim an apparent majority for each of the candidates and neither side is willing to concede that any advantage is held by their opponents.

Both sides claim to have made notable gains as the returns are verified by wire and mail, yet each side varies widely in interpretation of the figures. At the various headquarters and newspaper offices, where the tabulations were made, irrespective of the candidates' headquarters, it is the prevailing sentiment that a majority of the Whitney delegates have been the chimney, 50 feet high, to the roof.

Peace Proceedings at the Hague Are Thus Described

GREAT OUESTIONS SHELVED

Largely Due to Defects In Constitution of Conference--Small and Weak Powers had Moral and Phys.ca Equality of Great Ones

London, Sept. 23 .- To call the international peace conference at The Hague a fiasco would merely be to repeat the public opinion of the whole of Europe. Its meetings long since have ceased to command attention and the newspapers are giving them less and ess space.

Socially the conference has been a great success. It has given The Hague a summer of gaiety unusual in that staid little capital by a constant series of dinners and receptions.

The greatest disappointment to the delegates is the failure of the conference to have established a permanent court of arbitration, which appeared to essfully two hobbies, but there is an be the nearest to realization of any of exception in George F. Elcock of 162 the practical projects put forward. The results attained give little satisfaction in England. Even those persons who at the commencement of the conference held the view that a mere discussion to consider would be a step toward the prevention of war admit their hopes among the first to condemn the entire proceedings, describing them as a waste of time.

This failure successfully to deal with the great questions included in the program is credited largely to defects in the constitution of the conference, by was the work of years, and to the recog nition of all powers, strong or weak, as norally and physically equal.

This latter defect was pointed out and emphasized during discussion of the project for a permanent court of arbi tration, in which the minor states in sisted having equal representation with the great powers. The overloading of Ard. the program with questions of navai warfare and of maritime law-subjects for specialists, not diplomats-also is considered to have been a mistake, the debates on them leading to dissensions, instead of agreements.

Even the international prize court the institution of which is one of the few results the conference is likely to accomplish, English authorities on international law say cannot be accepted | Hartsuff | fb by Great Britain until it has been fully McGreany for considered and a code for the guidance of the court laid down by experts and accepted by the governments. The questions of a limitation penditures for armaments, which the peace advocates hoped would be serilong since been forgotten, and in the reviews of the proceedings now appearing the question is seldom, if ever mentioned.

Government circles, however, are trying to find some excuse for the existence of the British delegation at The Hague. They summarize the accomplishments of the conference as follows: The censuring of periodical the Pacific. meetings of the conference; the conversion of Germany to the principle of arbitration; the recognition of the international prize court; the discovery ence in international affairs, and through South America's initiative the abolishment of the forcible collection of debts; the declaration of the nations in favor of obligatory arbitration and the humanizing of war in many directions. Further, they claim that the air has been cleared on many points and say "we know where we stand and where the points of danger lie."

Optimism Not Warranted

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.-As the natron of The Hague peace conference official Russia is slow to admit that it has been barren of results and persists in the hope that the intricate and protracted controversies will terminate fruitfully. In spite of the forced optimism here, however, it is apparent that Russia has regarded the conference from the start as a bothersome and untimely legacy, which it fostered and put through by necessity and without much conviction.

No Surprise In France

Paris, Sept. 23 .- The barrenness of results from The Hague conference on the great questions in which the world is interested causes regret but no surprise in Paris. From the very beginning France has fully realized that the jealous suspicions of the powers would prevent any steps toward the limitation of armaments; but she did hope for some progress toward compulsory arbitration.

An Appeal For Aid

Seattle, Sept. 23.—Senator Pyles has requested President Roosevelt to send a revenue cutter to Bristol bay to rescue 160 white fishermen and 200 Chinese said to have been wrecked there when the fishing boat John Currier went ashore on the rocks on Aug. 9. The men had supplies sufficient to last them for 30 days, but that time has expired, and the fishermen are in distress. It is feared that the party is in danger of starvation or freezing to death

The Globe says the government is negotiating for the charter of the three big colliers, building at Quincy for the New England gas and coke company, to transport coal around to

The steamers are not ready for service, but the Everett is practically completed and will be in commission next month. The Malden will be ready for sea in November, but the Melrose will probably not leave the yard until late in December or early in January. She will be launched in about six weeks.

The navy department is chartering all the available tonnage to get coal around to San Francisco, Honolulu and other points in the Pacific. The rate is about $6.50 per ton. Most of the steamers engaged are foreigners, the authorities claiming that no American vessels are obtainable. It is possible that the three big colliers may be taken for one trip each, but this has not been definitely decided.

MURDERED FOR MONEY

Fourteen Witnesses Held In Connec tion With Polish Baker's Death

Taunton, Mass., Sept. 23.-Lying in the yard in the rear of 32 Jackson street, where he had his stable, the body of John Ciolkosy, a Polish baker, was found early Sunday, the victim of a murderous assault, in which it is believed two or more persons were implicated. Robbery was the evident motive for the murder. Thus far no arrests upon the direct charge of murder have been made. Ciolkosy leaves a widow and six children.

An examination of the body showed a long, deep stab wound in the right side of the neck, a large number of cuts and bruises about the face and breast indicating that he had been struck a J. Sandberg. terrific blow from behind.

His wife stated that her husband had been in the habit of carrying all his ready money about his person in a cloth bag suspended from his neck by a string, and said that he had about $500 with him Saturday night. The string and a piece of the cloth were found upon him, but the bag and its contents were missing, the former having evidently been torn violently away.

The police also learned that while the victim had not taken part in a dance Saturday night, he had put in an appearance at the hall during the evening and remained there a short time. The names of those present at the dance were obtained, as far as possible, and 14 of them were held as witnesses. None of them will admit talking to Ciolkosy at the hall, or seeing any one

A quarrel arose over some trivial matter and, according to the story told by the two Tardy boys, the Downings rushed at them as if to attack them, when Guy Tardy fired two shots, killing both youths.

TIDEWATER STOCK

Thirty-One Percent Owned by Standard Oil Company

LIGHT ON OLD AGREEMENT

Standard Gets 88 I-2 Percent by Division of Business--Unsealing of Minutes of Stockholders' Meeting Reveals Some Interesting Facts

New York, Sept. 24.—The ways and means by which the Tidewater Pipe Line company of Pennsylvania came under virtual control of the Standard Oil company were unfolded yesterday in the hearing of the government's suit against the oil combine from the testimony of Robert Benson, president of the company, and from a mass of records and contracts. The Standard was shown to own at present 31 percent of the Tidewater stock, and by an agreement entered into in 1883 between the two companies, the oil business was divided in such proportion that the Tidewater did 111/2 percent and the Standard 881/2 percent. Benson testified that since the agree ment in 1883 the business of neither the Tidewater Pipe company nor the present parent company, the Tidewater Oil company, had materially increased. An interesting incident of the day's hearing was the unsealing of the minutes of a stockholders' meeting held in Titusville, Pa., on Jan. 17, 1883, the action of which, in electing officers, was repudiated at a meeting next day in Philadelphia of the managers of the Tidewater company, who directed that the existing officers remain in control and that a suit be brought in court to set aside the action of the Titusville meeting.

Counsel for the government obtained evidence from Benson and the records of the company that certain interests had held the Titusville meeting with out issuing a call to the stockholders as provided for by the company's bylaws. The litigation in the Pennsylvania courts that followed the Titusville meeting resulted in a decision against the Titusville officers and ordered the record sealed. Benson said that 1864 shares of stock voted at that meeting came into possession of men whom they considered to represent Standard interests and that this stock in 1900 was transferred by William G. Rockefeller to H. C. Folger, who still

Mr. Benson testified that under existing contracts with the Standard, of 95 percent of oil refined by the Tidewater company 77 percent was sold to the Standard and the remaining 23 percent was sold in a territory in which the Standard was not interested. The lent of the Tidewater con when asked what disposition was made of the remaining 5 percent refined for domestic purposes, said that the Standard secured 97 percent of it.

Frank B. Kellogg, the government's counsel in its suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, has important evidence in his possession, it is stated, bearing on the part railroad rebates have played in the enormous profits of the corporation in the last eight years. This phase of Kellogg's case is being reserved until the line he pursued last week is thoroughly exausted.

Several days more will be occupied with testimony to show that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey is practically the same corporation dissolved Doble to the Quincy Savings Bank by by the government in 1892 on the assignment dated Aug. 31, 1903, and ground that it was operating in restraint recorded as above in libro 956, fol. 622, Butter Thins, of trade, and that the present company the children of the daughters of shame Bought sold and exchanged is still doing business in Texas in spite of the fact that it was declared outlawed in that state at the time the Waters-Pierce company, one of its subsidiary concerns, was barred from

Several more witnesses are to be called before Kellogg turns his attention to rebates. One is William G. Rockefeller, assistant secretary of the ginning at a point on Willard street Standard Oil company of New Jersey, at the easterly corner of said premises, and still another is Wade Hampton, general auditor of the company. Subpoenas have already been served upon railroad men who are expected to throw some light on the rebate question. COAST IS STORM-SWEPT

Autumn Ushered In With Heavy Wind and a Deluge

Boston, Sept. 24.—Summer died hard, with a high wind and downpour ashore, and a living gale at sea. Autumn came in at midnight, with falling wires, crashing trees and darkened streets to greet it.

Down in Long Island sound terrific seas swept coastwise craft, and the big New York boats were tossed about like bottle-corks.

In Massachusetts bay and the Gulf of Maine the southeaster kicked up a wild sea, and the rain was a veritable sheet, opaque as fog. Tidings of disaser are feared today.

In the city and suburbs the rainfall approached the 4-hour record. Coniderably more than an inch fell, while the wind off Highland light attained a velocity of almost 60 miles an hour. Telephone communication was diffi

HOW TO COUNT.

City Clerk Keith has issued the following instructions to the election officers who are presiding today. The workings of the law will be new to many voters:

The provisions of the election laws apply to joint caucuses, except as hereinafter otherwise stated.

The ballots for each political party will be printed on paper of a different color. The color of the Democratic ballots is pink, the Independence League ballots blue, and the Republican ballots salmon.

When the voter presents himself at the guard rail, he must give his name, and, if requested, his residence, o one of the ballot clerks, who shall thereupon distinctly announce the same. If the name is found upon the voting list, the ballot clerk having charge of the list shall repeat the name and residence in a clear and audible voice and the name shall then be checked.

If the name is marked Dem. or Rep., he must be given a ballot of the party indicated. If the name is not marked at all, the voter must then be asked by the ballot clerk in charge of the ballots the following question:-"Which party ballot do you desire?" The voter's selection must then be distinctly announced by the ballot clerk in charge of the voting list, in the space indicated in front of the name, as follows:-

Democratic party, Dem., Independence League, Ind.; Republican, Rep., and the voter shall then be given such party ballot.

When the voter arrives at the balot box, one of the inspectors in charge of the box, after finding the name on the check list, must check the same, but must not check the Count the Democratic Party ballots first, the Independence League ballots next, and the Republican Party ballots last, and the Clerk should record each count as it is announced.

The voces must then be counted, beginning with those on the Demoratic ballots, according to the rules set forth for counting votes at elections, that is, in blocks of fifty, and particular attention is called to the wholesale prices of raw materials are provision that "each block of ballots given as the cause of the falling off of shall be called off and tallied by two profits. election officers representing different political parties ,and each election officer in so calling off and tallying, shall be under the supervision of directors has decided to allow all of an election officer of a different their books to be examined by the pubpolitical party." George Blake who was in the motor boat that rescued the capsized party tells how the accident happened. He says that the launch, in which were the party, ran head-on into a lobster car. The bow went into the car. Then a man stood in the stern of the launch and over she went. He did not know that one of the party had been drowned until after he had landed the rescued men on Peddock's island.

Bond's Cabinet Says It Makes Fishery Agreement Unlawful

ANOTHER HITCH IS PROMISED

Claims That Interior Order In Council, Under Authority of Old Act, Is Made Because Modus Vivendi of Last Year Lacks Legal Sanction

St. Johns, Sept. 25 .- A complication has developed in connection with the recent agreement between Great Britain and the United States as to the conduct of the fisheries on the west coast during the coming season. Last night the Royal Gazette published an interior order in council, made under the authority of an imperial act of 1819, following the treaty between the two countries the year previously. The order in council in effect suspends several sections of the foreign fishing ves sels acts passed by the Newfoundland government in 1905 and touches upon the bait act passed by the legislature in the same year. The St. Johns Telegram, the news paper organ of Sir Robert Bond's government, describes the order in council as "outrageous" and declares that the colonial cabinet refused to participate in publishing this order. The Telegram says that the explanation for the order in council is that last year's modus vivendi, arranged by the British and American governments, lacks legal sanction and that the imperial authori ties now resort to an old British act for the purpose of sanctioning the modus vivendi of 1907.

The newspaper declares that the act of 1819 was passed when fishing ad-The paper urges the colonial cabinet to repudiate the latest action of the im perial authorities in every possible way and appeals to other autonomous colonies in the British empire to take action toward vindicating the right of that she had been pinched until her colonial peoples. THE CANAAN WRECK

Error In Dispatch Due to "Failure of the Mental Process"

DISASTER WAS ANTICIPATED

Concord, N. H., Sept. 25 .- It is possiole that the mistakes of two operators caused the head-on crash of the Quebec outh-bound express and a freight train on the Boston and Maine railroad at Canaan on Sept. 15, by which 26 persons lost their lives and as many more were injured, according to the testimony of General Superintendent Lee, who was one of the principal witnesses at an inquiry held by the state railroad commission in this city.

Mr. Lee said that there were three theories to account for the wreck: First, that the train order sent from Concord to the operator at Canaan was correct; that the Canaan operator received the order wrong and sent it back correctly; second, that the operator made no error and that the dispatcher made two errors inside of a minute: third, that they both made a mistake, the Canaan operator omitting the word "four" in receiving it and the dispatcher automatically checking the "34," the number of a passenger train, when it came back to him "30," the number of the Quebec express.

Mr. Lee testified that the Concord division is one of the lightest in point of train traffic of the system. The wreck at Canaan, he said, was due to the order delivered to freight train No. 267 at Canaan. It read "train 30," when it should have read "train 34." The records at Concord, the divisiona headquarters, show that the order was sent "train 34," but the records at Canaan show that it was received "train

Continuing, Lee said: "The dis patcher at Concord, James A. Browley, and the operator at Canaan, J. S Greeley, are both unconscious of hav ing made an error, and we have been unable to ascertain how the error was really made." Lee considered that the error was due to a failure of the mental process of one or both operators.

Operator Browley, the Concord train dispatcher, testified that he knew the accident would occur a short time before the crash came, and did all he could to prevent it. The first he knew anything was wrong was when he called up Canaan to notify the freight train that the train order signal at Lebanon was out of order. then informed by Canaan that the freight train had already left the latter station. He told the Canaan operator that the freight did not have time to make the West Canaan station before the arrival of the Quebec express. Canaan replied that the freight had one hour and 10 minutes, which, if true, would have been plenty of time. Browley said he then told Canaan that the one hour and 10 minutes was the running time of passenger train No. 34, the Montreal express, which followed the Quebec train. The dispatcher knew a collision was certain and so certain was he that a collision was inevitable that he called up the superintendent and ordered out the wrecking train a few minutes before the crash. Browley testified that he was confident he had made no error in sending the order to the freight train or in receiving it back for veritication.

The next witness was John S. Greeley, the Canaan operator. He identified the fatal order as taken by him and transferred in duplicate to the crew of 1625 Hancock Street. the freight train. The order showed the transposition of figures, but he declared the order was the same as he received it and repeated it back to Concord. In response to questions Greeley said he was on duty from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. daily, and that in addition to working the wire he handled baggage, freight and mail for three trains. He said he was in the office and near his key all night preceding the wreck and was not asleep at any time. He was buy elsewhere for the simple reason sure, he said, the records showed the message as he received and repeated it.

Operator Maher of White River June tion told the commission that Concord sent him the same order on the morning in question. His order corresponded with that reported in the Concord office. It developed, however, that, although the rules require that an order shall be sent to all offices at once, the one sent to Canaan was not given to the operator there until after Concord had sent the order to White River. The closing witness was Superintendent Ray of the Concord division. He told of the method of train dispatch ing and gave in detail the steps taken by the company to investigate the accident and place the responsibility. He Office, 1495 Hancock Street. said that the inquiry had narrowed down to Greeley and Browley and that down to Greeley and Browley and that the train crews were in no way responsible. Ray regarded both operators as careful, prudent and thoroughly responsible men. At the conclusion of

Independent Producer Had Difficulty In Obtaining Them-Benson Offers More Testimony as to the Tide-Back Bay 209 2 water Oil Company's Dealings

> New York, Sept. 25 .- Accountants for the Standard Oil company annually audited the books of the Waters-Pierce Oil company of Missouri after 1900, when its name disappeared from the list of companies controlled by the Standard, according to Wade Hampton, general auditor of the Standard Oil the government's suit against the oil to a height of 600 feet.

Testimony has previously been adduced that Charles Pratt, secretary of the Standard, bought the stock and held it in the Standard's interests.

Mr. Kellogg produced a letter sent by the witness to an official of the Waters-Pierce company stating that an ac countant was on his way and that, for easons which he would understand, his name had better be put on the payrolls of the Waters-Pierce company until the accounting was completed Hampton said he had forgotten what were the reasons referred to in the letter. The troubles of the oil firm of Lombard & Ayres in the early 70s formed an interesting feature of the day's hearing. Mr. Lombard said that he had great difficulty in obtaining tank cars o ship oil and that his company felt the difficulty of competing with the Standard which, he said, was receiving rebates from the trunk lines. He had conferences with A. J. Cassatt and Thomas Scott, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, but was told that the rebates which were given the Standard did not amount to much and received an intimation that the difficulties would doubtless cease if he united the Lombard company with the Standard. Scott told him that the Lombard company was getting all the tank cars it could obtain under the allotment, and that the Pennsylvania railroad would

Benson said that the Standard fixed the price that the Tidewater should pay for its crude oil and also fixed the price for oil refined for export. "And you sold your oil at the prices they fixed?" asked one of the government's counsel. "Yes. They fixed the price and everybody had to follow," answered his offense was a misdemeanor only. "Were you consulted about the prices that you were to pay for the

A WONDERFUL AIRSHIP

In Air Over Four Hours and Performed Difficult Evolutions Constance, Germany, Sept. 25 .-

Count Ferdinand Zepplin, the German aeronaut, has made the most successful serial voyage hitherto achieved in any dirigible balloon. He spent four hours and 17 minutes in the air, completely circumnavigating the lake of Constance and passing over five different states. The speed of the airship is estimated to have been at least 38 miles an hour. When both motors were in operation fit easily outdistanced the numerous steamers laden with observers that followed on the lake.

Count Zeppelin, who is 69 years of age, was in command of the airship which bears his name. He had with him two assistants and a crew of sever men to run the motors. The airship executed the most diverse evolutions possible with the greatest ease. . NEED OF TENEMENTS

A specific instance of the injury done to the City of Quincy through the lack of tenements and dwelling houses suitable for the occupancy of many received by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company:

Boston, Sept. 16, 1907. Smith:-Some time ago I read town committee of 1907 and the other your advertisements in daily papers and engaged to go to work as an all As a result of the 193 ballots cast round machinist. Last Saturday in Boston.

Yours truly. George H. Brown.

Good machinists and other mechanics who would make desirable citizens and good tenants are being kept away from Quincy by reason of the lack of suitable living accommodations which the city affords. It is a matter which the committee of the Quincy Board of Trade having special charge of such matters could well give more than a mere passing consideration. Good men are being turned away from Quincy all the time for the reason given by the writer of the above letter. All the business men in Quincy are affected by such condition of affairs. Every family added to the city's population means more money spent here as well as a permanent increase in the city's wealth.

Our Granite Manufacturers Handicapped

I would like to ask through the columns of your paper if it is not about time that something be done to relieve the freight situation at Quincy Adams There have been committees appointed by the city authorities, Granite Manufacturers' Association, Board of Trade and Citizens' Association and they have waited upon the railroad people and have always receive the ssurance that the matter was under consideration, etc., etc., and that the work of improving facilities was un- first, third in the second, and then

Manufacturers' Association for nearly Margaret O., which took the first two twenty 'years, and almost every year heats; Claty Latus, Tempus Fugit, there has been a committee appointed Sterling, McKinney, Maye Earl, to try to induce the railroad company to have something done. The result of all the work on the part of the committees has amounted to absolutey nothing, as the conditions that prevail today are worse than they have

I am perhaps more interested in his matter than a great many, as my eams do about seventy-five percent of he hauling to the freight yard; and is to be the standard color of all the when a teamster reports at night that cars. all he has been able to do that day was to earn one dollar, with a pair of orses, it appears to me that the limit has been reached. This is not a single instance, as it has happened pefore. It is nothing unusual for eamster to report two loads or three oads a day, which at $1.00 per load i can be readily seen that a teamster cannot earn his wages, to say nothing about the feeding of horses and other

In my judgment, instead of going to the railroad people any longer, to beg, entreat and implore, the time has ar rived when we should go to the Railroad Commissioners, and demand that to which we are entitled. I believe there is not another town or city in this Commonwealth that would allow the railroad to impose upon them in the manner in which they have used us. I would like to have our city authorities and the several associa tions take this matter up at once and insist upon some definite time being stated when the new derrick is to be nstalled; and in the meantime to demand that what facilities they have at present, with which to handle the business, be worked to their full capacity, and not half their meagre outfit lying idle.

Think of it, a granite centre, known all over the country as the producer of the celebrated Quincy granite, with a derrick whose capacity is ten tons. and when there is a stone to handle at the freight yard that weighs ten or more tons, to handle that one stone the whole apparatus is tied up for nearly a day, when with proper appliances it should be handled in less than ten minutes.

There is more to this than just the eamster's part. The position in which it places the manufacturer of granite work is most unfair. In the first place, it is nothing unusual for finished work to remain at the freight yard one or two weeks after its arrival there, before it is placed on the cars. In the meantime the customer for the monument is anxiously awaiting its arrival, being unaware of the fact that it has really not started upon its journey. Then, again, the appliances are so crude and the facilities so poor, that there are many finished monuments badly broken and bruised in handling (no fault of the men that are doing the work, as they are doing as well as any men could under like circumbone of contention, and the abolition of that office will go far towards bringing about a change for the better in the city.

I believe that the heads of the several departments should be responsible to the Mayor, and that the head stances) and the result is that when manufacturer has to stand for all the delay, abuse and monetary loss. Quincy, Sept. 26

Colonial Authorities Forbidden to Seize American Fishermen--Will Prevent Any Dispute Relating to Rights Established In 1818

St. Johns, Sept. 26.—An imperial re script, forbidding the service by any colonial authority of any legal process regarding fishery rights aboard any American vessel, and suspending all colonial statutes authorizing colonial officials to seize American vessels for alleged fishery offenses, was proclaimed here yesterday. This, it is believed, will make it practically impossible for Premier Bond to carry out his recently announced decision to enforce the colonial fishery laws. The rescript forbids the service by

Premier Bond telegraphed the chairmen of the meetings, assuring them that the government accedes to their request and that lawful authority has been granted to enable the fishermen to sell their herring to the highest bidder during the present season.

The premier's reply indicates that of the imperial rescript, has decided to prevent the exercise of imperial authority by withdrawing all colonial rehome after an absence of some thirty strictions against Newfoundland fishermen hiring on board American vessels In other words, Americans will be able to enter Newfoundland waters and buy herring from the colonists without in terference, as they did prior to 1905.

DETAILS OF A TEXAS DEAL

Inquisitor Kellogg Wrings From Witness the Story of How Standard "Sold" Its Texas Company on a Verbal Agreement New York, Sept. 26 .- Some interesting evidence hidden in the voluminous schedule of oil tariffs submitted to the interstate commerce commission by the Standard Oil company was unfolded at the hearing of the federal suit against the so-called trust, when Calvin M Payne, vice president of the National Transit company, took the witness stand to tell about the various pipe lines of the oil combine over which he has general supervision. The schedule shows that tariffs for the transportation of crude oil by the Standard's pipe lines are fixed at Unionville, on the state line between New York and New Jersey, and Centrebridge, located on the New Jersey-Pennsylvania state line. Payne admitted that Unionville first sprung into existence in 1906, when the Hepburn bill, which provides that common carriers must publish tariff schedules, became a The pipes of the National Transit

At Centrebridge, the pipe line carrying the oils of the Eureka, Buckeye Southern Pennsylvania and National Transit companies from Lima, O., to the seaboard connects with the Standard of New Jersey line. Frank B. Kellogs, counsel for the government, sought to show that no independent company could send oil to the seaboard over those lines, because rates could not be obtained from those points through New Jersey. The control of the Corsicana Refining company of Texas, which the government, in its bill of complaint, alleges is really owned by the Standard, was inquired into. Payne and Henry C. These individuals were not molested for several reasons, one being the fact that they were seemingly well supplied with money which they were distributing in the provinces where they were working for recruits to their movement. and the government was anxious to locate the source whence this money came. This was a complete mystery. Another reason for permitting the suspects to remain at liberty has been the difficulty in proving the conspiracy water. charge and the fact that the government wanted to give the conspirators olenty of rope to hang themselves. There is reason to believe that this conspiracy has been going on for several weeks past. The recent miniature uprisings near Santiago and Camajuani were due to too great enthusiasm on the part of some of the partisans in the movement who failed to await the signal from the chiefs in Havana. It is declared that Masso Parra, a tive born Cuban, was to have been the leader of the activity. Parra has led several Latin-American revolutions in the past. He tried to return to Cuba two years ago after being expelled, but the Palma administration feared his purpose in returning was to organize a revolution and would not permit him to land. Parra landed in Cuba several weeks ago, and no objection to his coming was made. Considering his previous record and that the Palma administration had opposed his landing, the fact that he was permitted to return now was commented upon at the time as remark-

It is persistently stated here that the money to finance the movement was furnished from Wall street. There are reports current that a certain American, who was in Cuba recently and spent four days in Havana, is con-West Quincy. nected with the conspiracy. The movements of this man were mysterious. There is every reason to believe that ot more than one general or one prominent officer who was a party to the pact with Secretary Taft at the conclusion of the last revolution is connected with this conspiracy.

General Guerra, General Gomez and the other Cubans who led the revolution against former President Palma are earnestly opposed to this movement and stand ready to take the field with with Miss Sullivan; that he had thrown the government forces should an outbreak actually occur. of Boston coal graft cases.

The Boston authorities recently heard that Klous was in Providence and Inspector McGarr was sent to this city. McGarr caught sight of Klous in the union station as soon as the inspector stepped off his train. It developed that Klous' lawyer, a New York man, had come to Providence to see his client and Klous had accompanied the attorney to the station, where the lawyer boarded the New York train.

McGarr followed Klous from the station and on the street hailed a patrolman. Klous was taken into custody and booked at the police station as a fugitive from justice. After considering the matter Klous agreed to return to Massachusetts without extradition pa-

The Golden-Rod Turtle-Head And Other Plants Now in Blossom

While early spring gives us our delicate blossoms filling our hearts with joy merely at the thought of this life hidden under the snows of winter, our late plants, aggressive and showy must not be despised. Our earlier plants awaken thoughts of resurrection. Our later ones thoughts of preparation for resurrection.

Golden-rod is one of the most conspicuous plants of early fall. There are many species. Some are tall, some low. Some have branching infloresence; others bear their blossoms all at the summit and on one side of the stem. One Solidago bicolor or silver rod bears large white blossoms. A variety with flowers of the same size yet yellow, is Solidago bicolor-concolor. These blossoms are larger than any other inland golden-rod but are greatly surpassed in size by the sea-side species, Solidago sempervirens.

In early spring we found meadows yellow with marsh marigold, so often called cowslip. At this season every brook bears upon its banks the greater bur-marigold, golden in color and resembling a daisy in shape. The blossoms of this plant bring greater cheer to the human heart, than the fruit. This fruit is black or brown and shaped like a pitchfork. Perhaps you have picked hundreds of them from your clothing, thus spoiling a free ride they were taking over the country. This striking plant has a little sister who shows Are you going to Mosquito Woods on no petals. This little unobserved one has a home in every rough place. But she gets in her work all right in the fruiting season. We hunt, often in vain for her; but her fruit

Our Senator Stands High

In its biographical number of Sept. 14, Practical Politics has a very strong endorsement of the work of Long term rates furnished on applicathe senator from the Quincy district in the last Legislature. It says:

One of the solid men of the senate

s Hon, Charles F. Jenney of Hyde Park, who has come out strongly in his first session. Well grounded in the law, Sen. Jenney has shown a keen perception of its true application and ready grasp of the equity of a neasure under discussion. He is an earnest pleader and a convincing advocate. In nothing more plainly did ne manifest this than in his remarkable fight against the combined street railway committee on the assessment of damages by the construction of in terurban railway lines over private land as well as upon highways, to abutters. The committee reported a modified bill based upon the petition and bill of Philip A. Kiely of Lynn and others, but materially altering its provisions. Sen. Jenney succeeded in getting the senate to substitute the first section of the Kiely bill, throwing out bodily the section proposed by the committee, and he even got his amended bill advanced a stage Though finally beaten, it was a very pretty fight from start to finish and the senator from Hyde Park had the satisfaction of making the entire street railway committee sit up and take notice. Rather than sacrifice the abutter Sen. Jenney agreed to the bill of the committee as it was enacted, but the measure was somewhat modified from that originally reported and abutters upon public highways traversed by interurban roads may recover consequential damages. The senator is of robust physique and in temperament he is kindly and thoughtful of others, careful not to wound if it can be avoided. In fact, in Sen. Jenney it has been frequently remarked there is good timber for a president of the senate. He stood shoulder to shoulder with Taft and Vahey, sturdily fighting for the passage of the shoe machinery bill, combatting every position taken by its opponents, and to him belongs no small share of the final victory of as hard fought a measure as has ever been enacted by the legislature. He voted for the joint use of tracks by two or more street railway companies and against the Spanish war veterans prefto prevent juries to add "without

Canadian Furs at Canadian Prices.

The high quality of Canadian Furs is well known to Americans. A custom's duty of 35 per cent prevents Americans who do not visit Canada from buying Furs there. Our American house, 167 Tremont Street, Boston, will interest American buyers of Canadian furs. Here we receive our supply of raw skins from our own Canadian ouses where they are collected direct from the trappers and admitted to the United States duty free in the undressed state.

Owing to its rigorous climate Canada produces the finest furs known to comnerce. Silver Fox, Hudson Bay Sable, Mink, Otter, etc., are seen at their best. In dealing direct with us you secure the advantages that flow from a large and influential business following in our own stores in four Canadian cities, and a feeling of security and reliability that is always present when dealing with a house whose reputation has been merited by a constantly increasing patronage extending over a period of forty-two years, and whose products have been awarded five gold medals in different

In comparing prices remember that quality is of first importance. Canadian Furs average 35 to 50 per cent higher grade than those of more temperate climates, because nature produces the quality; the furriers make only the garment, and the dyer's art can make a southern mink to imitate the Canadian article. To insure reliability and value, buy Canadian Furs from Canadian furriers.

GEORGE W. JONES. No. 1 Granite Street, .

Or Provide For a Board Candidate Stone evidently realizes that changes are demanded in our city government by the voters, and he gets at the root of the evil in his open letter. He would amend the City Charter, abolish the office of Com missioner of Public Works, and suggests changes in the duties of other officers. Whether the voters concu entirely with all the changes he suggests, they are glad that some one has advanced ideas which may bring about a better condition of affairs The path of a Mayor would be smoother if he was not held responsible for the short comings of some of his department officials.

Abolish Office

Of Commissioner

It cannot be expected that a Commissioner of Public Works will give satisfaction when he has more duties than he can possibly perform. One man cannot possible carry out a comprehensive plan for the construction improvement and care of streets; fo the care and extension of the sewer system; for the care and extension o the water system, and an equitable adjustment of the water rates to pu for the construction and repair of schoolhouses and other public buildings; to supervise and improve the street lighting at a minimum of cost to superintend the street watering etc., etc.

To divide up the duties of the Comnissioner among the city engineer superintendent of streets, superin tendent of water department, inspector of buildings, etc., giving each sole authority over a department might be an improvement; but we contend no one man should have 12 lbs. for 25 cts authority to decide where sewers shal 10 to 12 cts. quart be extended, where water mains shall be extended, where streets shall be rebuilt, when water rates shall b changed, etc. The Daily Ledger recommends a continuous board of five commissioners, one to be the Mayor, one to be Street Commissioner, one to be the Water Commissioner, one to be the Sewer Commissioner, and one the Public Building Commissioner. Two season. of the above commissioners to be elected each year for a term of two ears, and the Mayor elected annualy. This would make it possible to change a majority of the board each year and still have it continuous. The board of commissioners would act upon all new work, contracts water rates, etc., while the individual commissioners would supervise their lepartments and execute all work in heir departments, employing superinendents and foremen as needed. The board could also perform the duties of overseers of the poor, park commissioners, board of health, managers of burial places, etc., thus reducing the number of officials. Reguar and public meetings to be held by he board: secret meetings being forpidden. All business transacted to be entered upon a record book open to he public. While amendments to the City Charter are in order, why not concur with ex-Councilman John Q. A. Field and increase the number of Councilnen to ten or more from each ward, and provide that there shall be no standing committees. Limit the number of meetings to one in a month, and have them more like a town meeting, all business to be considered to be published in advance in a warrant, or calendar, or newspaper. Log rollng would not be so easy in a large City Council of 60 or 90 members, and each order would stand on its merits

Stole a March On Their Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Warren French who were married Thursday afternoon stole a march on the score of young people who had arranged to give them a lively send off. While they were getting ready to take their departure the hack they were supposed to take drew up in front of the house on Elm place.

The young people quickly seized upon it, and in a few minutes it was gaily decorated with white cloth, flowers, etc., while from the rear there was attached a rope fastened to a lot of bric a brac, such as tin cans and old bottles. A large sign was also attached.

Then the party assembled about the door, a dozen or more of the young quent false alarms.

Suddenly the back door opened and the bridal party made a rush through praise. the church yard toward Washington street. The crowd followed but the oridal party had a good lead, and before they could be overtaken they had dashed up Washington street.

It was supposed that they were to wards the depot. But they were again Hancock street and disappeared toward Boston.

The Old Saratoga.

Only two bids were received by the Navy Department for the old sloop of war Saratoga, which is now at Philadelphia and which was stricken from the list of naval vessels last month and ordered sold. The bidders were John H. Gregory of Perth Amboy, N. J., who offered $2000 for the famous old vessel, and Daniel C. O'Conner of Boston, who bid $1250.61. As each of these bids was less than the appraised value of the ship, which is $4300, they will probably be rejected and new proposals invited.

When it comes to moral questions, right or wrong, the representative should assume a different position. No matter if the whole world was against him, he should stand for what he believes is right, for he is accountable to a Higher Power than the people. Now this is where our present City Council is weak and quite inconsistent. The express liquor business is a moral question, but, for sake of argument, suppose it is not, there is not one member of the Council who has voted for an express liquor license who has represeented the majority of the citizens and residents of his ward, as every ward in the city voted "No license."

You may say the "No vote" did not mean expresses carrying liquors but open saloons; perhaps not, but the but the monotony was broken by fre- at times deserve just criticism, but people who have given an opinion on the matter condemn the effect of the "travelling saloon on wheels," which ome expressmen run, more strongy than the open saloon, and it may all the criticism which is heard in be that if a vote was taken on express liquor licenses that it would result in a greater "No vote" than hereto-

GOOD AFTERNOON.

It has come to a pretty pass when the government feels compelled to contract with foreign steamships to carry American coal from one American port to another. It is only another argument in favor of ship subsidies to American ships and American shipbuilders.

A special feature of the Saturday eight-page Daily Ledger will be a sixcolumn illustrated article on the dedication of the McKinley mausoleum at Canton, Obio, next Monday. There martyr President will be interested.

Many are diffident about giving news to the press, and some go so far as to throw obstacles in the way, so that information will not be obtained. Cuban Conspiracy Checked by Arrest of Supposed Leaders

MAGOON TAKES NO CHANCES

Was Aware of What Was Going On and Awaited Carrying Out of Work of Plotters to D finite End -- Seeking Source of Financial Backing

Havana, Sept. 27 .- The secret police yesterday arrested General Masso Parra, General Juan Ducassi and General Lara Miret, charged with conspiring against public order. General Parra is the alleged leader of the conspiracy to start a revolution against the Americans in Cuba. It is known that simultaneously with the arrival of Parra at Havana three Santo Domingans, well known on account of their previous revolutionary records, also reached this port, and it is stated that other individuals of a similar character are working in eastern Cuba.

It is known that the conspiracy originally was hatched in New York by certain Americans whose names, it is said, already are in the possession of the United States government secret service offices, and it is said that the leaders here were simply professional revolutionists hired for the job.

The arrests made here are believed to have nipped everything in the bud. Governor Magoon, however, is not taking any chances. He is amply prepared with 5000 American soldiers and 5000 rural guards to crush any movement an instant after it is started.

The following statement was given out by Governor Magoon last evening: "The governor issued a statement in which he said, regarding the arrest of will be six illustrations and granite Masso Parra, Juan Ducassi and Lara manufacturers as well as friends of the Miret, that he had been advised of their actions for some time past and had waited for them to carry out their work to some definite end. It was rumored here that General Estanoz and General Acosta had taken the field, but the report could no be confirmed. It is known that the leaders of the movement planned to start the revolution yesterday at seven different points simultaneously. When General Miret was taken into custody he was in an automobile and it is alleged he was preparing to leave for the cality assigned him.

Members of the Conservative party are greatly worked up over the arrest of Ducassi, who has been declaring himself in sympathy with that party. A number of prominent conservatives called upon Magoon and insisted that Ducassi be released, urging his innocence. The governor replied that if he was innocent he would have ample time A natural pure food cleanser and to prove it. The conservatives retired and after a consultation returned to plead again, but their second effort was as futile as the first.

La France SHOE FOR WOMEN

Many shoes appear beautiful -in a store window. But the France. Permanent beauty requires far more than highgrade materials or even thorough workmanship. To these rare shoe-qualities must be added the skill and accurate knowledge of the designer who is able to perfectly fit coming footwear styles to the lines of a woman's foot. The popularity of the La France is partly due to its unvarying glove-like fit—the true basis for enduring shoeattractiveness. What, then, would be more becoming on your feet than the La France -the quality shoe of lasting beauty that wears as well as it looks.

Every woman much on her feet should investigate that newest invention in shoe-making—the La France Flexible Welt. Its unequalled comfort is in addition to, not in place of, the perfect fit, style-beauty and durability of every La France.

SUICIDE THEORY DOUBTED

Possibility That Important Murder Witness Was Slain

Chesterfield, Me., Sept. 27 .- That Ray Hutchins, the 17-year-old chief witness for the state against Harvey A. Searles, who is accused of the murder of his wife in July last, met with foul play and did not commit suicide by hurling himself in the river, is the latest theory to be advanced in this sensational case. Searles was in pris on when Hutchins died.

Dr. Sanborn, superintendent of the insane hospital where Searles has been kept since Friday, reported to the court yesterday that Searles was sane, and later in the day the grand jury reported indictments charging him with the murder of his wife and assault with is spending the week end with friends | intent to murder his brother, Jesse.

It was young Hutchins who testified before the coroner that Searles had declared to him just before the murder: "If I find my wife with my brother Jesse, I will kill them both and take my own life." He, the state claims, was the last person to see the accused man before the murder, and it was on him the state depended heavily.

A little less than a month ago Hutchins disappeared. His bicycle was found in the river a day or so later, and about 10 days after this the lad's body was found in the same river. Suicide as the result of worry over his promithe general belief, and so read the coroner's jury report.

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor.

That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

Dear Doctor Knowlton:-You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

THE AMERICA'S CUP

Regret That It Is Hedged About by Technicalties

YACHTSMEN'S OPINIONS VARY

Lipton Wou d Have Sympathy of New Englanders If He Tried to Bring About Race With Other Than a Scow Boat For a Challenger

Boston, Sept. 27.-New England yachtsmen express much regret that a trophy which has become so famous as the America's cup cannot be sailed of Lipton's challenge. for in the same spirit which obtains in other international sport, notably in the recent so-called sonder class yacht to criticise the action of a meeting at those who were seen will permit themselves to be quoted publicly.

That the New York Yacht club is the deed of gift, but that Sir Thomas | ing prospect of success. Lipton would have the sympathy of New England yachtsmen if he tried to bring about a race under a less extreme boat than that typified by the Reliance, seems to voice the general sentiment. One or two yachtsmen are of the opinion that an English built scow type of boat could be brought to this country. The same yachtsmen, however, hope that the next cup race will be sailed with boats of less than 90foot waterline, in order that builders of moderate means may have a chance to defend the cup.

Another yachtsman believes that the present American rating rule has been sufficiently tried out to prove its worth and hopes that a challenge will be accepted for a 90-foot sloop built under that rule. Still another cannot see how the New York Yacht club can refuse a challenge under a rule which is on its own books, while others feel that the attitude of the club is bad for the sport. in that it is quibbling over technicalities instead of treating the matter on a broad basis. One man points out that in nearly every instance where a challenge has been sent the mutual agreement clause has been brought into effect, and numerous conditions of the deed itself have been waived or modi-

There were very few of those who were interviewed who did not refer to what they considered a spirit of commercialism in connection with recent races for the America's cup and regreted that anything of the kind should have come into the sport.

On the whole, New England yachts men may be considered as eager for another race for the America's cup, but they want it on a broad, sportsmanlike basis, with yachts that are seaworthy and which will develop the highest type of design and bring out the highest quality of seamanship.

Expects to Surmount D fficulties London, Sept. 27 .- Sir Thomas Lipton was interviewed last night after he had learned the reasons why his challenge to race for the America's cup had been declined by the New York Yacht club. He said:

"I still have plenty of time to issue another challenge, but all depends upon what I am advised to do. Mr. Fife is coming especially to consult with me on the situation.

"I know the New York Yacht club feels its responsibility and I am quite willing to abide by its decision. I cannot help hoping that the existing difficulty may be overcome and that a race will occur in 1908. I will do everything in my power that is reasonable to meet the wishes of our American friends. I am willing to consider most favorably the idea of challenging with a 90-foot boat, if that will be received under the conditions existing in the New York Yacht club, and if Mr. Fife can design a boat which will give me a reasonable prospect of success. Although such a boat might have to be constructed as a freak boat, even then I would be only too pleased to do it."

New Trophy Suggested

London, Sept. 27 .- The morning papers, writing editorially of the refusal by the New York Yacht club to accept the challenge for the America's cup made by Sir Thomas Lipton, express the opinion that if the club persists in its present attitude the cup must be ruled out as an international trophy, since nobody else is likely to challenge

The Daily Mail and The Daily News suggest that the time has arrived to institute another international trophy for yacht racing under rules more in accordance with modern conditions. The Daily News says the Americans covered themselves with glory when they captured the cup, but that they might gain more renown now by losing it than by keeping it under grotesque-'y unequal conditions.

St. Paul, Sept. 27.-Yachtsmen in the west would like to see a change in the method of construction, a reduction in the size and cost of the yachts entered in the contest for the America's cup, in order that there might be greater competition. This is, in substance, the opinion of the White Bear Yacht club of this city.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—The yachtsmen of this city are strongly in favor of seeing the participants in the races for the America's cup something beside mere racing machines.

Thomas B. Hickey says the firm must recognize the independent union which now claims control of the factory and of the lasting conditions in Brockton, and that on no other basis will the strike be settled. President John F. Tobin was noti-

All the Shipyard Will Be Busy With Government Work Fer Ten Years

There is plenty of govenment work ahead for the Fore River sipyard at Quincy and in fact for all the shipyards which are equipped to do government works, as battleships, scom cruisers, torpedo boats, torpedo boats destroyers, submarine and colliers are wanted. Work should be good in Quincy for ten years at least. A Washington dispatch to the Transcript says:-President Roosevelt declares very emphatically to callers that the battleship fleet will certainly make the cruise to the Pacific coast next winter. All the obstacles that have been cited and all the opposition that has been aroused by the announcement has not changed, the President's determination. Any reasonable bonus over the cost of foreign colliers will be paid in order to send the coal in American vessels. Even if the difference should amount to something more than $200,000 to will be paid. The President expects to have the matter settled before he leaves Washington on Sunday for his Western and Southern trip.

The Pacific cruise is not the whole of it, however. There are indications which cannot be overlooked that the Administration intends to break away from the old programme of naval extension this winter and advocate the construction of at least two, and probably three, new battleships of the newest type and highest efficiency, For several years it has been the policy to ask for only one ship a year, the design being merely to keep the line full, replacing the old ships with new ones year by year and sending the obsolescent fighters into reserve, to go into the second line in case of necessity, and ultimately to the scrap heap or target range.

It is expected, however, that the President will tell Congress that the time has come when that policy care no longer be followed. It has become apparent that we must maintain a battle fleet in the Pacific, and that entails the creation of another fleet for the Atlantic. Nor will it serve the purpose to maintain simply a store we are now prepared to open the squadron in the Pacific. > Along with the recommendation for more battleships will go a demand for a couple of fast scout cruisers and a number of torpedo vessels, probably of all three classes-destroyers, submarines, and torpedo boats. The navy is rediculously deficient in this class of ships, as it is in colliers. There will be a request for several colliers, and any authorized will be built on lines to make them of the greatest efficiency. The President took upathe matter of the pending bids for submarines with Secretary Metcalf yesterday, and a decision will be announced before he leaves here on Sunday

> Henry T. Scott, who was president of the Union Iron Works of Sam Francisco when that concern built the battleship Oregon, says that the navy of the future will have to be almost entirely the product of Eastern shipyards, as labor conditions on the Boston, Sept. 28.—General William Booth, commander of the Salvation Army forces of the world, came to Boston last night, following a tour of Canada, and was greeted at the North station by Mayor Fitzgerald on behalf of the city and Colonel Evans, commander of the Salvation Army forces in Boston, at the head of over 500 Salvation Army soldiers and lassies.

The coming of Booth marked the opening of a three days' hallelujah period in Salvation Army circles in Boston, the ardor and enthusiasm of which was well attested last night, when a torchlight procession of more than a score of army corps of a dozen districts and cities about Boston, with three bands, marched to the North station to greet the head of the army. The army, with thousands of interested spectators, gathered at the intersection of Causeway and Friend streets, where Booth was to be officially welcomed to the city, a grand stand having been erected for those participating in the

Notwithstanding the train bringing the commander was nearly an hour late, the eager enthusiasm of the army corps did not abate and the interval was occupied with the playing of patriotic and sacred airs by the band and the burning of colored fire. A mighty cheer went up as the stately figure of Booth was seen approaching the platform. At one side of the commander was Fitzgerald and on the other Evans. Evans presented Fitzger ald, who, with an address of some length, welcomed Booth and presented him with the keys to the city. Booth responded very briefly, expressing his appreciation of the welcome.

The commander was then whirled away in an automobile to his hotel and the members of his staff were entertained by Evans and others of the Boston corps. The procession of Salvation Army corps, which included soldiers then countermarched to the People's palace, where the forces were dis-

When the Wabash field first attracted the attention of the mussel diggers it was thought to be only a poor one. Experts making their examination about five years ago said that the mussels would be good for the pearl button factories only, and for awhile the activity was but slight. A few months had passed when experts decided to make closer examinations, and these revealed hidden treasures. The news spread rapidly, and mussel men flocked there from all parts of the country.

RICE GROWING CHIEF WORK

Home Style of Culture Introduced With Great Success-Well Supplied With Money For Their Operations-Turning to Fruit Now-Scout Talk of War

Unlike California, Texas is glad to have Japanese within its borders, says a special dispatch from Webster, Tex., answered the enthusiastic Miss. to the Philadelphia Record. It has half a dozen colonies of the little citizens. Through them oriental elements are being brought into the agricultural methods of the state,

The principal colonies are at Deepwater, Webster, Wharton and Victoria, and in all there are probably 500 Japs in the state. A number of Japanese rice farmers are also located along the line of the Southern Pacific between Houston and Beaumont. They are adepts at growing rice and other farm products. At Deepwater the Japanese method of transplanting rice has been followed for the last two years with the greatest success and profit.

The rice harvesting season is now in progress, and the scene in the Japanese colonies is an animated one from early morning until late in the evening. They conduct the harvesting work on the co-operative plan, much the same as wheat harvesting is carried on in the middle states of the north. All the Japanese farmers in the colony join forces and help thrash the crops on the different farms. The Japanese make a holiday out of the work. They appear to get much enjoyment out of everything they do. A noticeable thing about the Jap anese in Texas is that they never lose sight of their patriotism for their native country. The Japanese flag always occupies a position of honor upon every farm. It may be seen fly-Vaughan of Washington square will ing upon the thrashing machines while be pleased to learn of her improved the rice thrashing work is in progress. It is frequently planted upon some ele vated spot in the field, where it is in constant view of the little brown men while they are working. The Japanese colonists in Texas have many thousands of acres in rice this year. The yield will be heavy and the profits from the crop large. The home life of the Webster and Deepwater colonists is very similar to that which they lead in Japan. They attend strictly to their own affairs and at 8 P. A number of Japanese bought several thousand acres of land near Wharton last spring and established a colony of fifty Japanese thereon. They rapidly developed the virgin land into the most attractive schools it was necessary to open a rice farms in the state. They had more second and third grade at the Tufts than 5.000 acres in rice this year. They school with Miss Alice M. RAKED A FISHERMAN

Croiser Prairie Dismantles the Schooner Flora S. Nickerson

Helmsmen of Both Ships, Which Were Running at High Speed, Blame One Another--Twenty-Four Men Escaped Death by Narrow Margin

the big United States auxiliary cruiser Prairie and the Boston fishing schooner Flora S. Nickerson collided with terrific force about 15 miles out to sea and abreast of Nauset light, Cape Cod, before daylight.

The big warship completely dismantled and dismasted the Nickerson and her crew of 24 souls to a watery grave.

Twelve of these plucky heroes of the deep were penned like rats in a trap for nearly a half hour in a dark, narrow forecastle by the schooner's great Foremast, which, in crashing to the deck, crushed the companionway into splinters, and lying across the hatchway held them prisoners until their Companions chopped them free.

The rest of the crew, buried beneath an avalanche of falling wreckage, had sensational escapes from death.

All escaped unburt, while the Prairie. which kardly felt the shock, escaped with only the denting of one of her harbor. A thole pin broke and he was plates above the waterline, and the dis- carried out to sea. abling of two of her six-inch port guns.

Although the bowsprit and nose of the fisherman was smashed into kindling wood, and the shock, which ripped up great bolts from her deck, opened some of her seams, she did not take any water.

The accident, which, in many respects, was one of the most remarkable in the history of New England fishing vessels, was due, it is believed, to the gross misjudgment and stubbornness of one or both of the helmsmen at the wheels of the colliding vessels. Each admits that he saw the lights of the other vessel a long time before the

The naval authorities, it is said blame the crew of the fisherman, while the latter say that it was due to a little misjudgment on the part of the watches on each vessel.

It was the second accident to the Nickerson in 24 hours, she having been . compelled to make a late start Thursday on account of being in collision with a towboat as she was leaving her clock. The accident occurred shortly 4:45, or just before daybreak.

WHITNEY'S FIGHT

Tremendous Democratic Opposition to His Nomination

Bartlett Men Issue Scathing Statement Declaring Whitney a Menace to the People and Democratic Party

The political situation as it exists today is probably without parallel in the history of the commonwealth.

The Democrats have been, for the last three months, fighting the battles of the Republican party with vigor and persistency.

The candidacy of General Charles W. Bartlett of Boston for the Democratic prove unprofitable. gubernatorial nomination has brought to the attention of the people of the commonwealth in most conspicuous and telling manner, what a large element of the Democracy consider the constitutional unfitness of Henry M. Whitney of Brookline to be governor of this commonwealth. It must be conceded at the start that this has been the most vigorously waged contest for the governorship made on the Democratic side since the famous days of General Benjamin F. Butler, a quarter of a century ago. Both Bartlett and Whitney have been worthy antagonists, and each of these men has purpose so strong as to make the contest memorable in the annals of the Democracy.

There has been very little that the Whitney men have been able to say against General Bartlett, except that he parted his hair in an unconventional way and was defeated for the governorship two years ago.

The Opposition to Whitney

But with Mr. Whitney the case has been different. It was felt by many prominent Democrats that his nomination would be a party misfortune, from the fact that in his connection with several affairs of great moment his methods had been subject to the sharpest criticism and condemnation. It has been emphasized that if he were nominated the Democratic party would be instantly placed upon the defensive, and would be unable, by reason of that fact, to wage an aggressive and successful cam-

His connection with the investigation of the scandalous methods employed by the West End Street Railway company, of which he was the head, in attempting to secure the passage of an elevated railway measure, was felt by Democrats with a high sense of public duty, to unfit him for the governorship. Probably with the masses of the party this matter cut a small figure. There are, however, in the Democratic party many men whose standard of public morality, and corporate morality for hat matter, was high enough to enabl them to see the incongruity in such a nomination as that of Henry M. Whitney to the highest office in the gift of the people of the great Puritan commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Early in the fight Mr. Whitney secured enough of the prominent Democratic leaders to probably insure his success in the convention. He has spent money lavishly during the nominating canvass, and much more so than General Bartlett. although it is quite possible that the Bartlett men might have spent more if they had been able to secure it.

Lawson's Advice Is Offered

Thomas W. Lawson has advised Mr. Whitney to withdraw from the field as a candidate. Lawson has said some very strong things in regard to Mr Whitney and his connection with legislation at the state house, and declares himself ready to wage war on Mr. Whitney if he is nominated by the Democratic state convention. Mr. Lawson says in case the Democrats nominate Mr. Whitney he will personally "before the polls close on Nov. 5 have made, but the great crime of the Democratic party, a byword in every household in the commonwealth, a crime of a great political party deliberately selecting for its leader a public corruptor of citizenship."

The Bartlett men have not given up the fight yet. They claim that the Boston newspapers have misrepresented the returns from the caucuses greatly, and that the general is no doubt in the lead. The convention must decide the question Oct. 5.

One of the most striking documents issued in any recent nominating campaign has been prepared by the Bartlett men, and distributed among the Democratic voters. It is a powerful arraignment of Mr. Whitney as a politiclan, a seeker of legislation, and gen. buy elsewhere for the simple reason erally. It sums up the opposition to we have no expenses. him in the following "Twenty reasons why Mr. Whitney is a menace to the people and to the Democratic party:"

Menace to the People

"1. He is a Democrat only by profession; he is a self-constituted candidate who stands for Republican policies and his own profit only.

"2. His platform consists of reciprocity with Canada and tariff reforms; form by postponing any real reduction for 10 or 20 years.

"3. He betrayed Mr. Bryan in 1896 and 1900 and Mr. Moran in 1906. "4. He admits himself to be a corporation man.

public franchises and his demands for legislation have always been attended

"6. He attempted Mr. Moran's defeat last year and his leaders are those who outrageously attacked Mr. Moran, "7. His success means the control of the Democratic party by the anti-

Bryan forces. "S. He openly advocates the merger of the Boston and Maine which would complete the tyrannical monopoly of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company in New England and its future dominion over the politics

"9. He asks to be governor that he may veto the efforts of the people to prevent a monopoly of transportation in Massachusetts.

"10. He seeks success by giving money to politicians and not by appeals to the people. "11. He spent $45,000.00 in an attempt to elect himself lieutenant governor and failed; no amount of money will elect him governor; the sale of the Democratic party to him will therefore

"12. He has no sympathy with or ganized labor or the social reforms which it advocates; he represents capital only.

"13. His success would defeat labor's efforts for the initiative and referendum and legislation against government by injunction.

"14. His success would secure a delegation to the National Democratic convention hostile to the policies advocated by William J. Bryan.

"15. His nomination would drive progressive Democrats out of the party. "16. The Republicans who would vote for him are corporation Republifought with a tenacity and grimness of | cans and a Democratic party so constituted would cease to be the party

"17. He traffies in politics for the benefit of the corporations he represents. Mr. Bryan says such men should be spewed out of the Democratic party. "18. He opposes Mr. Bartlett who is

forces and bring victory. "20. Mr. Whitney's success means party discord, corporation control, the defeat of labor measures, a monopoly of transportation, a dominion of corrupt politicians; public approval of the West End and pipe line scandals, anti-Bryan victory and the breaking up of the Democratic party in the state."

Even later the melody was hurled to its echo in erection of the mausoleum within the workmen were still busy on the marble the surrounding woods by a male chorus of more than a hundred voices. The cabinet, the supreme bench, the diplomatic corps and all members of both houses of congress received invitations. Two thousand of Uncle Sam's regulars and more than an equal number of state troops received orders to guard the flag walled route of the proession. Canton, of many memorable McKinley days, put forth every effort to care for the nation's visitors on its last great day. It sent McKinley forth, received him back with cheers in triumph and with weeping in death. And now Canton, which has watched its progress from the time the first stone was placed, gives up to the nation the McKinley tomb.

In three ways the McKinley national memorial is held to be unique-it was built by popular subscription in the fullest meaning of that term; it has been completed within the time set in the contract; it was built within the first estimate of its cost.

The citizens of the nation paid for the McKinley mausoleum. The people at large gave the $600,000 needed for the building and maintenance of this tomb. No contribution exceeded $5,000. and few were of that magnitude.

floor. A race against time in which seconds counted had developed, and the contractors made seconds count. The contract had called for the completion of the memorial Sept. 1. Despite the fire, which alone had prevented the fulfillment of the contract, all was rushed to completion within the month of grace.

With the bodies of President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley in their sarcophagi, with the caskets of their children in niches in the wall prepared for that purpose, with the memorial to a dead president given over to the people he ruled, the trustees, after their many meetings, busy meetings, see the completion of their chief tasks. Experience in raising a fund of over a half million to which every civilized country on the globe contributed, and in husbanding that fund by paying all running expenses from its interest, has made them confident of augmenting the endowment fund to the desired total. In fact, their cares were in large part over when, Nov. 16, 1905, Justice Day presided at the laying of the cornerstone of the mausoleum. The last lays have been filled with the myriad letails of the dedication, the elaborate preparations for the task of playing the host to the nation. This task the city of Canton shared.

Adependence League to Oppose Republicans and Democrats

New York, Sept. 28 .- The organizav tion of a National Independence league was decided upon at a meeting here of representatives of state Independence lagues and others in sympathy with the objects of these leagues as outlined in state or local platforms. The national body will be a solidification of minor leagues existing or yet to be formed. Its aims are political and in opposition to the Republican and Democratic parties.

W. R. Hearst told of the success of the league in New York, Massachusetts and California, and urged the formation of a minor league in every state and the union of all in a general body. The Republican and Democratic parties, he said, were hopelessly in the control of corporation interests and failed to represent truly the people. A third party was sorely needed. There were other speeches.

The committee on organization recommended that the national organization should consist of a national committee composed of three members from and do not care from whom you buy as long as you get what you want you may call on me. I may have what you want. I have Houses and Land in all parts of Quincy at reasonable prices and easy terms. I also represent some reliable Insurance Companies (Fire and Life) and should be pleased to place your risk.

Respectfully. committee recommended the election of W. R. Hearst as national chairman and that he be empowered to appoint the members and officers of the first national committee. The report was accepted.

BOSTON THEATRE.

The new Boston Theatre stock Company is to add a distinct dramatic novelty to its season's attractions next week by giving the first Boston production of "Graustark." The novel of this name, by George Barr McCutcheon, an immense circulation when it was published about four years ago and its adaptability was immediately reognized. HOLLIS ST. THEATRE.

Boston has been selected by Grace leorge as one of the first cities to see her in her New York and London success, Divorcons. She will appear at the Hollis Street theatre for two weeks only beginning Monday. This light comedy from the pen of the master match it. We grind them at 1473 French dramatist, Sardou, is unquesionably the best play in which Miss George has ever appeared, and its presentation both in New York and abroad was the sensation of the past dramatic season. In support of Miss George will be Frank Worthing, agreeably cast as the husband of frivolous young wife who at first loses her love but later through a clever ruse succeeds in regaining it. Max Quincy. Freeman, for years regarded as the most successful stage director of the New York Casino, is another member of the cast. His portrayal of "Joseph" the waiter, at the Cafe Grand Vatel is as amusing a characterization as has been seen on any stage. This engagement will probably be the last appearance in Boston of Miss George for some time for at the conclusion of her present tour, she returns to London for an indefinite season. So successful was she in London in this pleasant comedy, and so strong was the demand to see her that efforts were made to cancel her American tour in order that her London run might not be interrupted. When this was not found BELYEA-SMITH-In St. John, N. B., Sept. feasible Miss George's engagement was then twice extended and contracts were signed for her return to London in the spring.

McKinley a Good Citizen, Brave Soldier and Wise Executive

Address of President Roosevelt at Dedication of McKinley Mausoleum

Canton, O., Sept. 30 .- The great Mc-Kinley mausoleum, with the bronze statue of President McKinley, was dedicated today in the presence of many notable men from all over the country. Justice Day spoke on "The Building of the Memorial." Miss Helen McKinley, sister of the late president, unveiled the bronze statue on the south staircase. James Whitcomb Riley read a poem. President Roosevelt then delivered an oration on "McKinley." "America" was sung and Bishop Horstman of Cleveland pronounced the benediction. The president's address fol-

It is these men who, more than year of war when the honor of the nation called him to arms.

As congressman, as governor of his state, and finally as president, he rose to the foremost place among our statesmen, reaching a position which would Miss Marguerite Davis, daughter of satisfy the keenest ambition; but he kindness toward every human being, great or small, lofty or humble, with whom he was brought in contact, which so endeared him to our people.

He had to grapple with more serious and complex problems than any president since Lincoln, and yet, while meet ing every demand of statesmanship, he ontinued to live a beautiful and touching family life, a life very healthy for this nation to see in its foremost citizen; and now the woman who walked in the shadow ever after his death, the wife to whom his loss was a calamity more crushing than it could be to any in the same sepulcher. There is a singugovernment. From purposes not merely diverse, he had to meet as a leader of the nation, and like all men with the root of true greatness in them he grew to steadily larger stature under the stress of heavy responsibilities. He was a good citizen and a brave soldier, a chief executive whose wisdom most marked traits was the intensely human quality of his wide and deep

Finally, he not merely preached; he was, that most valuable of all citizens in a democracy like ours, a man who gate, by order of the admiralty officers in the highest place served as an unconscious example to his people of the virtues that build and conserve alike our public life, and the foundation of all public life, the intimate life of the Many lessons are taught us by his career, but none more valuable than the lesson of broad human sympathy for and among all of our citizens of all classes and creeds. No other president has ever more deserved to have his life work characterized in Lincoln's words as being carried on "with malice toward none, with charity toward all." As a boy he worked hard with his NATURES HERB CURE TABLETS have been tried and approved, by many residents, the past five years Send for tree sample. By mail, 25 and 50 cents a box. Address, A. J. PRESTON, 33 Park street, Wollaston, Mass., General Agent. Sept. 28-tf and town dweller, with capitalist and wageworker, but he felt an intimate understanding of each, and therefore an intimate sympathy with each; and his consistent effort was to try to judge all by the same standard and to treat all with the same justice. Arrogance toward the weak, and envious hatred of those well off, were equally abhortent to his just and gentle soul.

Surely this attitude of his should be the attitude of all our people today. It Wednesday, Oct. 2, '07, would be a cruel disaster to this country to permit ourselves to adopt an attitude of hatred and envy toward success worthily won, toward wealth honestly acquired. Let us in this respect His Career Taught Us the Lesson | profit by the example of the republics of this Western Hemisphere to the south of us. Some of these republics have prospered greatly; but there are certain ones that have lagged far behind, that still continue in a condition hind, that still continue in a condition of material poverty, of social and political unrest and confusion. Without exception the republics of the former class are those in which honest industry has been assured of reward and protection; those where a cordial welcome has been extended to the kind of enterprise which benefits the whole country, while incidentally association, introduced Governor Harlas is right and proper, giving sub stantial rewards to those who manifest was offered by Dr. Frank M. Bristol of it. On the other hand, the poor and backward republics, the republics in livered an address. The "Star Spangled | which the lot of the average citizen is least desirable, and the lot of the labor ing man worst of all, are precisely those republics in which industry has been killed because wealth exposed its owner to spoliation.

From the standpoint of our material prosperity there is only one thing as important as the discouragement of a spirit of envy and hostility toward honest business men, toward honest mer of means; this is the discouragement of dishonest business men, the war up on the chicanery and wrongdoing culiarly noxious, when exhibited poverty, of ignorance, for their crimes, Men of means, and above all men of great wealth, can exist in safety unonly in orderly societies, where liberty any others, should, in the interests of the class to which they belong, in the interests of their children and their children's children, seek in every way, but especially in the conduct of their lives, to insist upon and to build up respect for the law. It is a veritable calamity to achieve a temporary tri umph by violation or evasion of the law; and we are the best friends of the man of property, we show ourselves the staunchest upholders of the rights of property, when we set our faces like flint against those offenders who do wrong in order to acquire great wealth or who use this wealth as a help to wrongdoing.

Wrongdoing is confined to no class. Good and evil are to be found among both rich and poor, and in drawing the line among our fellows we must draw it on conduct and not on worldly

In the abstract most of us will admit this. In the concrete we can act upon such doctrine only if we really have knowledge of and sympathy with one another. If both the wage-worker and the capitalist are able to enter each into get into genuine sympathy with him, most of the misunderstanding between them will disappear and its place will be taken by a judgment broader, juster more kindly, and more generous; for each will find in the other the same essential human attributes that exist in himself.

It was President McKinley's peculiar glory that in actual practice he realized this as it is given to but few men to realize it; that his broad and deep sympathies made him feel a genuine sense of oneness with all his fellow-Americans, whatever their station of work in life, so that to his soul they were all joined with him in a great brotherly democracy of the spirit.

It is not given to many of us in our lives actually to realize this attitude to the extent that he did, but we can at least have it before us as the goal of our endeavor, and by so doing we other way to the memory of the dead day commemorate.

Attack Upon Mayor of "Bigger, Better and Busier Boston"

SLOGAN MUST BE CHANGED

Suggestion That It Be "Boston For the Bosses and Boozers" -- Fitzgerald's Appointees and Other Official Acts Assailed

Boston, Sept. 30 .- Rev. W. H. Bustard, pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist church, last night, at his evening service, attacked Mayor Fitzgerald. Bustard said that he realized that he was about to say some things possibly detrimental to Fitzgerald's further success, but that, for each instance cited Reliable Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers, office, he had proof. Continuing, Bustard said: "In Mayor Fitzgerald's last campaign his slogan was 'A Bigger, Better, Busier Boston.' If he is a candidate a second time, his slogan must of a necessity be 'Boston for the Bosses and Boozers.' "Our present mayor has the distinction of having appointed more saloon-keepers and bartenders to public office han any previous mayor.' Mr. Bustard then arraigned Superntendent of Streets Dolye and "Jim" Curley, and added: "For James Curley's criminal record I expect the Democrats of Boston to some time elect him mayor. "As soon as Mr. Fitzgerald was in office he appointed the saloonkeeper, James Doyle, to be superintendent of streets, one of the most responsible of ity offices. "He tried to get an appropriation of $300,000 set aside for the water department. The head of the water department said that the department did not need this sum of money, thus clearly proving that the money was to be used for graft in that department.

"Mr. Fitzgerald tried to get a loan bill through for the purpose of buying playgrounds. As a matter of fact several more sites for playgrounds are to be purchased by the city. Fitzgerald was a party to a scheme by which the city was to purchase, for three times its real value, a piece of swamp grounds on the outskirts of the city, this to be converted into a playground.

"When the department of sealer of weights and measures was, as it was afterward proven, in a wholly demoral ized and incompetent state, Fitzgerald attempted to secure the appointment of eight additional sealers for men who were his political allies. This would mean an added drain upon the city of $10,000 to provide for these men's salaries.

"One of Fitzgerald's friends, a young man, was appointed a collector of poll taxes. He made a really good name fo himself and did a good work as a collector. This so elated the mayor and gave him such assurance that he had 20 incompetent clerks, friends of his appointed to have the same rating as the young man I have spoken of, with an increase of salary for each of them.

"Among his saloonkeeper appointees I may mention two. One of the three health commissioners is a man named Norris. Norris is a saloopkeeper. His only recommendation for this very responsible office is (and this is but a possibility) that Norris kept his saloon clean. Another saloonkeeper, named Nolan, was appointed to the department of public works."

Time Has Dealt Lightly With Head of Salvation Army

Haymarket 724—Quincy 448-4. A TALK WITH THE PRESS

Familiar With Great Social Problems of the Day--Race Suicide a Grea Evil, but Divorce Is Not--Booth's Ideas In Regard to Immigration

Boston, Sept. 30.—A demonstrative three days' "hallelujah" service in honor of the presence of General William Booth by the Salvation Army corps of Boston and vicinity came to a close last night with a monster mass meeting in the Boston theatre at which Booth exhorted his followers and besought all to surrender themselves to Christ Three great meetings, preceded by a nonster knee drill in the People's palace, marked the closing day of the hallelujah" period.

Those Americans who will see and hear General Booth during the eight weeks' inspection of the Salvation Army in this country will find that age has marked the noteworthy man lightly, while time has not in the least essened his enthusiasm for the contest which he began 42 years ago against

At the age of 79 the venerable head of the Salvation Army apparently has but one infirmity, a slight affection of the hearing. He stoops slightly, but there is no indication of age in the bright eve, which glistens beneath the heavy eyebrows, and the clear, strong voice. The whitened, tangled hair and the beard speak of advanced years, but there seems to be an abundant vitality for years of further work in his chosen

General Booth is a great traveler. He is heard of today in England, tonorrow in Japan, next in the antipodes and again in central Europe. He says he finds such long journeys exhilarating and enjoys them. The present visit is his fourth to the United States.

Years of experience has made Booth person delightful to interview. He talks first and answers questions afterwards. He is familiar with all great ocial problems of the day and that he nas strong views concerning them was shown in the course of an hour's conference which he devoted to the newspaper writers of Boston at his hotel. General Booth believes that small families foster indulgence, which breeds recklessness, then sensuality, the triumph of which, he says, is seen in the assaults upon young girls in this country. Large families, he maintains, are a blessing, and it is better to tains, are a blessing, and it is better to have many children to care for you as years advance than to rely upon the system of old-age pensions, which he ystem of old-age pensions, which he claims is among the schemes to promote dleness. Divorce does not appeal to Booth as a great evil, although he is prosed to it in most cases.

The greatest religious problem of the day, Booth said, is "loving thy neighbor as thyself." This should permeate through all religions. Booth sees no cause for alarm in the breaking up of the old lines of religion or theology and of the establishment of new lines of thought, but, on the other hand, welcomes it, as showing that there is something stirring and that the people are not content to slumber.

Concerning immigration Booth said: 'We are taking a very great interest in the matter of immigration. In our desire to benefit the deserving poor we have been drawn into the immigration work, and it is becoming rapidly and steadily of greater importance.

He described the work of the army s that of "a transfer agent," in that its ffort is to pilot many bands of people who are unable to find work in one country to advantageous locations in other lands. He believes that it is an error for Canada to ask for young armers, who, he says, are restless. What that country needs and what every country which encourages immigration ought to have is hard workers, who will remain fixed and not wander

General Booth believes in working for all men and helping those who need it into some sort of usefulness. To a representative of The Associated Press he gave this sentiment: "Write and fight for truth and righteousness, and for the elevation, materially and religiously, of those who cannot help themselves.

General Booths visit reveals evidence that the discipline of an organization as strict as that of German military bodies is still a feature of the Salvation Army. Booth has but to speak a word of command, even though of an insignificant nature, to be obeyed with a salute by the officers addressed. There is no question, no halting, no commo-

GALE AND A DELUGE

At Least Two Lives Are Lost Off the New England Coast

Boston, Sept. 30 .- The easterly storm which set in Saturday evening, and contnued Sunday with an unusually heavy rainfall, changed last night to a northwest gale, which swept along the New England coast at from 50 to 70 niles an hour. Fears that news of disaster to shipping would come in the wake of the storm have not been borne out, only two or three cases of damage to vessels having been reported, and these of minor consequence. Vessel masters had generally received sufficient warning of the storm and were able to make harbors safely. Two men were lost overboard from the Provincetown schooner Annie M. Perry while returning from the fishing grounds. The men were setting a try-sail when they were swept away by a neavy sea which boarded the vessel. In spite of the gale, which rendered the task one of great danger, Captain Cabrial ordered a dory put overboard and a crew from the schooner got away n search of their shipmates, but both the men were drowned before they could be reached. They were of Portuguese descent, but their names are un-

The record of 7.43 nches for the month is also the greatest rainfall in any September since 1882.

Boston, Sept. 30 .- Solomon Robithek of Lowell, who was defaulted in the federal court after being found guilty of using the United States mails in an attempt to defraud the Salvation Army of $30,000, was visited by a United States marshal at his home in Lowell and found to be too sick to leave home and thus had been unable to come to court for his sentence. On account of the man's condition the marshal took no action.

It is believed that as he was climbing the fence separating the pasture from the main road his rifle was accidentally discharged, killing him. The coroner found no evidence of foul play or sui-

Silas A. Stone In Lead for Norfolk County Commissioner

The most promisng candidate for the Republican nomination for Norfolk County Commissioner seems to be Silas A. Stone of Sharon, for several years a special commissioner. Although strong efforts have been made to pull the Quincy delegates toward a Brookline candidate, the voters and the delegates do not take very kindly to the gentleman who has secured the delegates from that aristocratic city. Last year Brookline dictated the nomination, and if they get the nominee this year, it is felt by some, that they will have not only a representative on the board but a majority of the board.

Mr. Stone's experience has largely been along lines that qualify him for that position. When a young man, he served two years on the board of Selectmen of Norton. Since becoming a resident of Sharon he has been elected to the board of Selectmen of that town for twenty-two years, at first for twelve consecutive years when he declined a nomination, and after one year, again for six consecutive years, when he again declined a nomination, and again after one year for four consecutive years, and for twenty out of the twenty-two years serving as assessor.

In 1899 and 1900 he was a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives for the Norfolk District, then comprising the towns of Stoughton, Sharon and Walpole, serving on It will probably clear off tomorrow the committee on Street Railways. For three years he was a special commissioner for Norfolk County. He has been employed in settling land damage claims caused by railway constructions and separations of grades.

SAVING A SUNKEN SHIP.

Difficulties of Submarine Drilling Alaskan Waters.

On March 20 the big steamer Northwestern went ashore on La Touche island, in southeastern Alaska. The vessel was jammed in between two large hidden rocks and was held fast, as if In the jaws of a gigantic vise, and all usual methods of recovery would have torn big holes in the hull. A loss of $225,000 seemed inevitable to the insurance company. However, the British Columbia Salvage company took the contract to float the great hull. This was finally accomplished through the agency of dynamite.

All the work was done by divers. First a survey was made of the submerged rocks and a map prepared It was then decided where to drill the holes for the blasts, and considerable time was occupied in this work. The drills were operated by compressed air and each hole plugged as soon as finished to keep out the sand. When all the holes were ready the dangerous operation of filling them with dynamite was performed. A much greater danger, however, threatened the div ers at all times. The water fairly swarmed with giant cuttle (devil) fish, which constantly attacked the divers, who had many narrow escapes. In fact, the progress of the work was so slow to send them down in pairs. While one drilled the other protected him.

So scientifically was the work planned and executed that when the explosion occurred the summit of the submarine mountains were torn away without injury to the ship.

States Left To Be Honored By President

Apropos the naming of the mammoth battleship building at Quincy the "North Dakota, the Boston Transcript comments editorially as follows: The unsatisfactory charater of our system of naval nomenclature receives fresh illustration in the President's decision to name one of the "Dreadnoughts" the North Dakota. As the law is vessels that are first rates must be named for States of the Union, and in this classification are included battleships, all armorclads and the large armored cruisers. Thus the name Virginia is borne by a battleship, Pennsylvania by an armored cruiser, and Florida by a singleturreted monitor.

The lists of State names has been so nearly exhausted in the development of the navy that the President having named one of the Dreadnoughts the Delaware, had to choose between Utah and North Dakota in Ralihanrh, naming the other. Bowdoins Lose Championship

The Bowdoins lost on Saturday their game with North Dorchester and with it the championship of the first section of the Boston amateur suburban league. Swan and Carlisle were the battery for Dorchester, and the Bowdoins found Swanson for 10 hits including 4 doubles, resulting in 4 runs. Michael and Rogers were the battery for the Bowdoins and they allowed Dorchester 12 bits including 2 doubles and a three bagger, which netted 6 runs. Michael had the best of the strike outs. Only the goals were scored by Henry and one error was made during the game, by Collins of the Bowdoins.
